Hoel, 2021-04-06 An edgy and ambitious debut by a powerful new voice in contemporary literary fiction Monday Kierk wakes up Once a rising star in neuroscience Kierk Suren is now homeless broken by his all consuming quest to find a scientific theory of consciousness But when he's offered a spot in a prestigious postdoctoral program he decides to rejoin society and vows not to self destruct again Instead of focusing on his work however Kierk becomes obsessed with another project investigating the sudden and suspicious death of a colleague As his search for truth brings him closer to Carmen Green another postdoc their list of suspects grows along with the sense that something sinister may be happening all around them The Revelations not unlike its main character is ambitious and abrasive challenging and disarming Bursting with ideas ranging from Greek mythology to the dark realities of animal testing to some of the biggest unanswered questions facing scientists today The Revelations is written in muscular hypnotic prose and its cyclically dreamlike structure pushes the boundaries of literary fiction Erik Hoel has crafted a stunning debut of rare power an intense look at cutting edge science consciousness and human connection Journeys and Journals Farid Abdelouahab, 2005 This magnificently illustrated book traces the history of travel dairies from the earliest sometimes crude collections of drawings and notes to volumes that
