Gautier The Romantics:

The Myth and Identity of the Romantic Artist in European Literature Elena Anastasaki, 2022-08-04 This study addresses the question of artistic identity and the myth of the artist as it has been shaped by the artists themselves While the term artist is to be understood in a broad sense the focus of this study is the literature of the Romantic tradition Identity is largely perceived as a construct and a central hypothesis of this book concerns its aesthetic value and the ways it creates dominant narratives of self perception that produce powerful myths The construction of the artist s identity be it collective or personal rests on a series of aesthetic praxes Caught between the mythic idealisation of poetic genius and its social devaluation the Romantic artist seeks to create a place for himself and in doing so he engages in his own mythmaking This process is studied in an interdisciplinary perspective approaching texts and writers from different traditions The study analyses various typologies of the artist numerous mythmaking strategies as well as several postural techniques all of which have sketched major direct or indirect fictional self portraits in the European tradition

Iran and French Orientalism Julia Caterina Hartley, 2023-12-28 New translations of Persian literature into French the invention of the Aryan myth increased travel between France and Iran and the unveiling of artefacts from ancient Susa at the Louvre Museum are among the factors that radically altered France's perception of Iran during the long nineteenth century And this is reflected in the literary culture of the period In an ambitious study spanning poetry historiography fiction travel writing ballet opera and marionette theatre Julia Hartley reveals the unique place that Iran held in the French literary imagination between 1829 and 1912 Iran's history and culture remained a constant source of inspiration across different generations and artistic movements from the Oriental poems of Victor Hugo to those of Anna de Noailles and Thophile Gautier's strategic citation of Persian poetry to his daughter Judith Gautier's full blown rewriting of a Persian epic Writing about Iran could also serve to articulate new visions of world history and religion as was the case in the intellectual debates that took place between Michelet Renan and Al Afghani Alternatively joyous as in Flicien David's opera Lalla Roukh and ominous as in Massenet's Le Mage Iran elicited a multiplicity of treatments This is most obvious in the travelogues of Flandin Gobineau Loti Jane Dieulafoy and Marthe Bibesco which describe the same cities and cultural practices in altogether different ways Under these writers pens Iran emerges as both an Oriental other and an alter ego its culture elevated above that of all other Muslim nations At times this led French writers to critique notions of European superiority But at others they appropriated Iran as proto European through racist narratives that reinforced Orientalist stereotypes Drawing on theories of Orientalism and cultural difference this book navigates both sides of this fascinating and complex literary history It is the first major study on the subject

Pleasure Wars Peter Gay, 1998 Whereas Education of the Senses focused on the sexual attitudes and practices of the nineteenth century Bourgeoisie The Tender Passion concentrates on their notions of love No less revisionist than he was in his first volume Gay argues here that the Victorians were able not only to enjoy their sexuality but to know love in its most exalted sense The realities of love for the Victorians he shows came much closer to their ideals than many have thought Gay delves into a huge body of material from philosophical treatises to medical texts from letters and diaries to works of fiction The book is replete with fascinating insights into the lives and works of individual Victorians Dickens Stendhal Wagner Oscar Wilde Beatrice Potter and Sydney Webb among them and his discussions range from the discovery of homosexuality to the ways love was diverted or disguised in music and religion

Pleasure Wars: The Bourgeois Experience Victoria to Freud Peter Gay, 1998-01-17 A master historian shows us a new side of the Victorian Era the role of the Bourgeois as reactionaries revolutionaries and middle of the roaders in the passage of high culture toward modernism The Victorians in this richly peopled narrative maneuvered through decades marked by frequent shifts in taste some seeking safety in traditional styles others drawn to the avant garde of artists
