Cosmopolitan Modernity in Early 20th-Century India Sachidananda Mohanty,2018-05-20 This book presents an alternative view of cosmopolitanism citizenship and modernity in early 20th century India through the multiple lenses of mysticism travel friendship art and politics It makes a key intervention in the understanding of cosmopolitan modernity based on the lives and experiences of Rabindranath Tagore Ananda Coomaraswamy Sri Aurobindo Mirra Alfassa James Cousins Paul Richard Dilip Kumar Roy and Taraknath Das Using archival texts and photographs Mohanty interrogates the ideas of tradition and modernity the local and the global and Self and the world as integral to the conception of a cosmopolitan world order This second edition will interest scholars and students of modern Indian history comparative literature cultural studies Indian philosophy and South Asian studies and the general reader      Dust Off the Gold Medal Sara L. Schwebel,Jocelyn Van Tuyl,2021-08-23 The oldest and most prestigious children s literature award the Newbery Medal has since 1922 been granted annually by the American Library Association to the children s book it deems most distinguished Medal books enjoy an outsized influence on American children s literature figuring perennially on publishers lists on library and bookstore shelves and in school curricula As such they offer a compelling window into the history of US children s literature and publishing as well as into changing societal attitudes about which books are best for America s schoolchildren Yet literary scholars have disproportionately ignored the Medal winners in their research This volume provides a critically and historically grounded scholarly analysis of representative but understudied Newbery Medal books from the 1920s through the 2010s interrogating the disjunction between the books omnipresence and influence on the one hand and the critical silence surrounding them on the other Dust Off the Gold Medal makes a case for closing these scholarly gaps by revealing neglected texts insights into the politics of children s literature prizing and by demonstrating how neglected titles illuminate critical debates currently central to the field of children's literature. In particular, the essays shed light on the hidden elements of diversity apparent in the neglected Newbery canon while illustrating how the books respond sometimes in quite subtle ways to contemporaneous concerns around race, class, gender, disability, nationalism, and globalism. African and African American Images in Newbery Award Winning Titles Binnie Tate Wilkin, 2009-08-03. Since 1922, the Newbery Medal of Honor has been awarded to distinguished works of literature for children. Although African and African American characters appeared in children's books well before the establishment of the Newbery award, such depictions were limited, with characters often only appearing as slaves or servants. However, over the last several decades, there has been much progress, and Black characters have played a much more integral role in many highly regarded novels. In African and African American Images in Newbery Award Winning Titles, Binnie Tate Wilkin provides a historical and contextual examination of books with such depictions that have been acknowledged by the nation's most prestigious award for children's literature. Wilkin explores the depictions of African and African American characters in these novels and illuminates the progressive quality of such representations. Wilkin looks closely at such elements as aesthetic descriptions, subservient characterizations, the relationships between characters, and specific language usage to investigate how these images have progressed toward increasingly positive depictions. She also notes, when applicable, the significance of the lack of any African or African American images. This book is an essential resource for those interested in African American studies, children's literature, and the relationship between the two.
