Gay And Lesbian Online:

Gay and Lesbian Elders Nancy J. Knauer, 2016-04-15 The approximately two million gay and lesbian elders in the United States are an underserved and understudied population At a time when gay men and lesbians enjoy an unprecedented degree of social acceptance and legal protection many elders face the daily challenges of aging isolated from family detached from the larger gay and lesbian community and ignored by mainstream aging initiatives Drawing on materials from law history and social theory this book integrates practical proposals for reform with larger issues of sexuality and identity Beginning with a summary of existing demographic data and offering a historical overview of pre Stonewall views of homosexuality author Nancy J Knauer goes on to address the invisibility of this community She examines the multiple double binds central to their identity formation including ageism among gays and lesbians and homophobia among seniors Further the book focuses on specific legal concerns such as estate planning housing discrimination and financial insecurity and how they impact this community uniquely Integrating theory with practical questions of policy and advancing a new understanding of the construction of sexuality and identity this book advocates meaningful new reforms designed to ensure equity and dignity in aging regardless of sexual orientation Get on with it Richard Laermer, 1997 Publisher Description Same-Sex

Marriage and Social Media Rhonda Gibson, 2018-01-12 According to polls from the early noughties to now public support for same sex marriage has increased dramatically Same Sex Marriage and Social Media asks how such a rate of attitude change came about and more specifically what role social media played Digital platforms like Facebook Twitter and YouTube have proved to be useful outlets for political expression and Rhonda Gibson explores how this came to benefit the marriage equality movement Drawing on a wealth of movement related discourse the book looks at how marriage equality was framed by news companies online and in print the digital strategies deployed by LGBT rights organizations and their opponents to gain support the corporate response to the same sex marriage debate the effect of perceived public opinion and the concept of social identity on how the debate evolved online This book seeks to demonstrate how the unique ability of social networks to share personal stories on a mass scale connect like minded individuals regardless of geography and leverage the bandwagon effect of viral content contributed to a seismic shift in visibility and public opinion around the issue of marriage equality Students and researchers will find this a timely and accessible introduction to the impact of online networks on LGBTQ rights Online Access, 1996 Gay Men: Oxford Bibliographies Online Research Guide Oxford University Press, 2010-05-01 This ebook is a selective guide designed to help scholars and students of social work find reliable sources of information by directing them to the best available scholarly materials in whatever form or format they appear from books chapters and journal articles to online archives electronic data sets and blogs Written by a leading international authority on the subject the ebook provides bibliographic information supported by direct recommendations about which sources to consult and editorial commentary to make it clear how the cited sources are interrelated related A reader will discover for

Forbidden Fruit Sarah McNicol,2008

Forbidden Fruit The Censorship of Literature and Information for Young People was a two day conference held in Southport UK in June 2008 This collection of papers from the conference will be of interest to teachers school and public librarians publishers and other professionals involved in the provision of literature and information resources for young people as well as to researchers and students The proceedings draw together some of the latest research in this area from a number of fields including librarianship education literature and linguistics The topics covered include translations and adaptations pre censorship by authors publishers and editors LGBT lesbian gay bi sexual and trans materials and the views of young people themselves The papers included in the proceedings deal with a wide range of issues Research student Lucy Pearson takes a historical perspective considering the differences in the way in which two titles Young Mother in the 1960s and Forever in the 1970s handle the theme of teenage sexuality John Harer from the United States and Elizabeth Chapman and Caroline Wright from the UK also deal with the controversial issue of teenage sexuality Both papers are concerned with the censorship of LGBT lesbian gay bi sexual and trans materials for young people especially referring to issues faced by librarians in dealing with such resources in their respective countries Another writer to examine the issue from a librarianship perspective is Wendy Stephens who reports on her action research into students reactions to book banning and censorship in the context of a twelfth grade English literature research project Taking one step back from the question of access to controversial materials Cherie Givens reports on her doctoral research examining the often neglected issue of pre censorship that is restrictions which take place usually as a result of pressure from editors and publishers before materials reach the library shelves Showing a different side of the publishing industry Christopher Gruppetta writes from the perspective of a publisher keen to promote young adult fiction in Malta His article demonstrates the huge strides which can take place in a relatively short period of time even in a religiously conservative country Talks by young adult authors were also included in the conference programme Ioanna Kaliakatsou considers how self censorship is exercised by authors and how attitudes have changed since the early twentieth century Yet another point at which works might be censored is when they are translated or adapted Evangelia Moula focuses on censorship in adaptations of classic Greek tragedies while Helen T Frank examines Australian children s fiction translated into French to highlight the process of purification or sanitization that can occur during translations
