Gay And Lesbian Theologies Repetitions With Critical Difference:

Gay and Lesbian Theologies Elizabeth Stuart, 2003 Gay and lesbian theology has been one of the most distinctive voices to have emerged in Christian theology in the last 30 years. It has placed lesbian and gay experience at the heart of the theological process. Elizabeth Stuart, one of the most prominent theologians in this field, presents the first critical survey of gay and lesbian theology, arguing that its emergence was nothing short of miraculous. Gay and lesbian theologians managed to take a dominant Christian discourse which rendered them sinful, sick and harmful to the common good and transform it into a theology which argued that a person's sexuality provided the point of contact between God and themselves. Stuart argues that, miraculous though this was, gay and lesbian theology has revealed itself to be bankrupt, incapable of providing universally convincing reasons for the inclusion of lesbian and gay people and their relationships in the Church, and unable to deal with the defining experience of lesbian and gay communities in the late twentieth century AIDS. Stuart concludes that lesbian and gay people and their opponents in the Church have too easily bought into modern constructions of sexual identity and cut themselves off from a Christian tradition which is far more queer in that it refuses to accept the stability of gender and sexual desire. Stuart argues that the only way out of the current deadlock on the issue of homosexuality in the Churches is for both sides to embrace this ancient queer tradition, a Christian tradition which teaches that in the end, gender and sexual identities have no ultimate importance. Provided by publisher Gay and Lesbian Theologies Elizabeth Stuart, 2003. Gay and lesbian theology has been one of the most distinctive voices to have emerged in Christian theology in the last 30 years. It has placed lesbian and gay experience at the heart of the theological process. Elizabeth Stuart, one of the most prominent theologians in this field, presents a critical survey of gay and lesbian theology. She charts the development of gay and lesbian theology from an early apologetic phase to a more confident liberationist outlook which owed much to Latin American liberation theology and feminist theology and finally to its current wrestling with queer theory. Singleness and the

Numen, Old Men Joseph Gelfer, 2016-09-17 Since the early 1990s there have been various movements designed to encourage masculine spirituality All these movements share a concern that spirituality has become too feminine and that men's experiences of the spiritual are being marginalized The task of masculine spirituality is to promote authentic masculine characteristics within a spiritual context Numen Old Men examines these characteristics to argue that masculine spirituality is thinly veiled patriarchy The mythopoetic evangelical and Catholic men's movements are shown to promote a hetero patriarchal spirituality by appealing to either combative and oppressive neo Jungian archetypes or biblical models of man as the leader of the family Numen Old
