Gaze Of The Gorgon:

The Gaze of the Gorgon Tony Harrison, 2011 The Gorgon's Gaze Julia Golding, 2007 Mallins Wood is home to the last surviving gorgon and Col's mother the gorgon's supernatural Companion is determined to save it from encroaching development even to the point of endangering Col and his best friend Connie the most powerful Companion alive The Gaze of the Gorgon Karen Ruth Brooks, Marc McBride, 2002 Cassandra Klein accidentally drags her friend and Deputy Principal into the fantastical world of Morphea Transmediations Niklas Salmose, Lars Elleström, 2019-11-22 This collection offers a multi-faceted exploration of transmediations the processes of transfer and transformation that occur when communicative acts in one medium are mediated again through another While previous research has explored these processes from a broader perspective Salmose and Elleström argue that a better understanding is needed of the extent to which the outcomes of communicative acts are modified when transferred across multimodal media in order to foster a better understanding of communication more generally Using this imperative as a point of departure the book details a variety of transmediations viewed through four different lenses The first part of the volume looks at narrative transmediations building on existing work done by Marie Laure Ryan on transmedia storytelling The second section focuses on the spatial dynamics involved in media transformation as well as the role of the human body as a perceptive agent and a medium in its own right The third part investigates new radical boundaries and media types in transmediality and hence shows its versatility as a method of analyzing complex and contemporary communicative discourses The fourth and final part explores the challenges involved in transmediating scientific data into the narrative format in the context of environmental issues Taken together these sections highlight a range of case studies of transmediations and in turn the complexity and variety of the process informed by the methodologies of the different disciplines to which they belong This innovative volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars in multimodality communication intermediality semiotics and adaptation studies Tony Harrison Joe Kelleher, 1996 Tony Harrison is one of the most popular and respected poets and verse writers for the stage working in Britain today In his lucid critical study Joe Kelleher brings Harrison's diverse output together under coherent themes from his early published verse The Loiners 1970 to his accomplished translation and adaptation of The Oresteia 1981 through to his recent work for stage and television including The Shadow of Hiroshima 1995 He pays particular critical and theoretical attention to the issues of autobiography translation testimony and remembrance and to poetry's obligation to face up publicly to the worst things of twentieth century history Joe Kelleher's book considers Harrison's work as that of a dramatic poet in the widest sense staging personal utterance upon the landscape of public concerns The Classical Archaeology of Greece Michael Shanks, 2003-09-02 Archaeologists do not discover the past but take the fragmentary remains which they recover and make something of them Archaeology is a process of detection and supposition this is what makes it so fascinating However the interpretations of archaeologists differ and change over time They depend upon the amount of evidence available the ideas and preconceptions of the archaeologist and their interests and aims Michael Shanks's enlivening work is a guide to the discipline of classical archaeology and its objects It assesses archaeology as a means of reconstructing ancient Greek society using the latest approaches of social archaeology In addition The Classical Archaeology of Greece outlines the history of the discipline and discusses why Classical Greece continues to fascinate us and why it has had such an impact on European civilization and identity

The Creatures of Arator Volume 2 Joseph Barresi, 2011-01-04 The world of Arator A place of myth magic legends and heroes Populated within this world are creatures monsters and beings that defy explanation and the imagination Described in this second full colored and illustrated volume are the monsters and creatures of the world of Arator From how they live to how they fight even down to their inner biology this book is an invaluable resource to your Arcanum gaming world which brings it more to life with the denizens that populate it

Literature and Fascination Sibylle Baumbach, 2015-07-30 Exploring literary fascination as a key concept of aesthetic attraction this book illuminates the ways in which literary texts are designed presented and received Detailed case studies include texts by William Shakespeare S T Coleridge Mary Shelley Bram Stoker Oscar Wilde Joseph Conrad Don DeLillo and Ian McEwan

Reading the Odyssey Jonas Grethlein, 2024-11-12 A fresh and original introduction to the Odyssey and how it continues to shape literature film art and even the ways we make sense of our lives Reading the Odyssey is an introduction to Homer's masterpiece like no other It combines a cultural and intellectual history of the epic with an in depth exploration of its unique and influential narrative structure and the ways it continues to inform issues of identity meaning and experience Reading the Odyssey begins with a broad history of the epic's reception and interpretation its place in cultural and intellectual history and its influence today on literature film and art After introducing the literary form of the Odyssey the book turns to its main focus the layered narrative that lies at the heart of the poem Taking readers on a tour of the epic Jonas Grethlein shows the nuanced ways the Odyssey uses a wide variety of narrative forms and functions At the same time he highlights how we all rely on narratives first used by Homer to form identities forge communities and make sense of our lives The result is a compelling guide to the Odyssey that demonstrates why it continues to speak so powerfully to so many readers today

Critical Theory and the Classical World Martyn Hudson, 2018-07-17 This book radically re-examines Europe's imaginaries of its origin in the ancient Greek world Extracting central concepts of critical theory in its widest sense beyond the Frankfurt School like the human force spirit and domination it allies them to characters mythologies and motifs in ancient thought Just as the stories of Achilles Helen and Odysseus have become central to our modes of self understanding so we can also examine the roots and routes of the concepts of social theory out of the ancient earth and its myths An important book for scholars and students of critical theory social theory aesthetic theory and the history of the human sciences it alerts us to the catastrophe that we are facing in the 21st century a catastrophe of domination and ecological collapse that has its origins in the ancient world and the ways in which it began to define a certain sense of humanness Considering the artistic production of the ancient world in relation to the thought of Adorno Critical Theory and the Classical World argues that it is only by understanding the persistence of the haunted motifs of the past into the present that we can begin to re forge our critical theory of society and re found our social formations on a new basis Nocturnal Whispers: Volume I Dan Champagne,2014-10-10 A series of shorts occurring between Volumes I and II of the Abaddon Trilogy Simon Diamond Welcome to a little tale about the happy go luckiest serial killer you re ever liable to encounter You might like Simon but Simon isn t so apt to like you Join up with Simon For a Day in the Life as he strolls through downtown Philadelphia and spends his overnight in all hours diner But don t get too close Because if Simon says you re dead Ben Arlington How does an ordinary police detective deal with the dangerous world of the supernatural underground Very very carefully Join Benjamin Arlington as he investigates a string of grisly murders while on the path to finding his immortal companion Cupideau There will be blood Hillary St Claire What do you do when you ve just turned eighteen inherited a family tradition of black magic from your father and you ve just finished murdering your mother finally gaining you their financial fortune as well To top it off your mentor in evil is missing and your friends are no help at all Well Hillary St Claire is about to figure that out for herself Molly Bethlehem Molly is the cutest little girl you ever could see She s also one of the most evil people in the world So evil in fact that her talent for black magic attracts the attention of none other than the Antichrist himself Here s the story of the best Halloween that Molly s ever had Bonus unrelated Chapter One the Dark Hand of a Hundred Days A father abandons a son and a son abandons a father One war is traded for another when a sword of dark power is taken up by living hands once again Weakness is banished in a singular display of terrible strength dragging from the shadows the magic and monsters of the past ages The age of myth and wonder is reborn in blood and the dust of a thousand years Genres Occult Supernatural Horror Action Adventure Sub Urban Fantasy Humor Satire Philosophy Religion War Pre Post Apocalyptic Sword Sorcery Prior Reading Provoker Volume I Further Reading Seducer Alliance Volume II I Seducer Escalation Volume II II Seducer Insurgence Volume II III Nocturnal Whispers Volume II Destroyer Onus Volume III I The Holocaust and the Nonrepresentable David Patterson,2018-05-23 Argues that Holocaust representation has ethical implications fundamentally linked to questions of good and evil Many books focus on issues of Holocaust representation but few address why the Holocaust in particular poses such a representational problem David Patterson draws from Emmanuel Levinas s contention that the Good cannot be represented He argues that the assault on the Good is equally nonrepresentable and this nonrepresentable aspect of the Holocaust is its distinguishing feature Utilizing Jewish religious thought Patterson examines how the literary word expresses the ineffable and how the photographic image manifests the invisible Where the Holocaust is concerned representation is a matter not of imagination but of ethical implication not of what it was like but of what must be done Ultimately Patterson provides a deeper understanding of why the Holocaust itself is indefinable not only as an evil but also as a fundamental assault on the very categories of good and evil affirmed over centuries of Jewish teaching and testimony This book commands respect both for the author's immense and intimate knowledge of what has become a vast body of work and for his unconditional commitment to the subject I am in awe of what I have just read Dorota Glowacka coeditor of Between Ethics and Aesthetics Crossing the Boundaries Tony Harrison and the Holocaust Antony Rowland, 2001-06-01 This book argues that Tony Harrison's poetry is barbaric It revisits one of the most misquoted passages of twentieth century philosophy Theodor Adorno's apparent dismissal of post Holocaust poetry as impossible or barbaric His statement is reinterpreted as opening up the possibility that the awkward and embarrassing poetics of writers such as Harrison might be re-evaluated as committed responses to the worst horrors of twentieth century history Most of the existing critical work on Harrison focuses on his representation of class which occludes his interest in other aspects of historiography The poet's predilection for establishing links between the atrocities perpetrated by the Nazis the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki and the prospect of global annihilation is examined as a commitment to oppose the dangers of linguistic silence Hence Harrison's work can be read fruitfully within the growing field of Holocaust Studies his texts enter into arguments about the ethics of representing traumatic incidents that still haunt the contemporary Harrison's status as a non-victim author of the events is stressed throughout His writing of the Holocaust allied bombings and atom bomb is mediated by his reception of the events through newsreels as a child and his adoption and subversion as an adult poet of traditional poetic forms such as the elegy and sonnet This book also discusses the ways in which Holocaust literature engages with a number of concepts challenged or altered by the historical events such as love mourning memory humanism culture and barbarism articulation and silence RuneQuest Monsters , Corpora in Applied Linguistics Susan Hunston, 2022-05-05 Corpus Linguistics has revolutionised the world of language study and is an essential component of work in Applied Linguistics This book now in its second edition provides a thorough introduction to all the key research issues in Corpus Linguistics from the point of view of Applied Linguistics The field has progressed a great deal since the first edition so this edition has been completely rewritten to reflect these advances whilst still maintaining the emphasis on hands-on corpus research of the first edition It includes chapters on qualitative and quantitative research applications in language teaching discourse studies and beyond It also includes an extensive discussion of the place of Corpus Linguistics in linguistic theory and provides numerous detailed examples of corpus studies throughout Providing an accessible but thorough grounding to the fascinating fast-moving field of Corpus Linguistics this book is essential reading for the student and the researcher alike Tony Harrison Sandie Byrne, 1997 Abbreviations Foreword Lord Gowrie Introduction Tony Harrison's Public Poetry Sandie Byrne 1 The Best Poet of 1961 Desmond Graham 2 Tony Harrison the Playwright Richard Eyre 3 v by Tony Harrison or Production No 73095 LWT Arts Melvyn Bragg 4 On Not Being Milton Marvell or Gray Sandie Byrne 5 Open to Experience Structure and Exploration in Tony Harrison's Poetry Jem Poster 6 Culture and Debate Christopher Butler 7 Book Ends Harrison's Public and Private Poetry N S Thompson 8 Tony Harrison and the Guardian Alan Rusbridger 9 Doomsongs Tony Harrison and War Rick Rylance 10 The Medusa's Mirrors Julia M.

Walker,1998 The question of selfhood in Renaissance texts constitutes a scholarly and critical debate of almost unmanageable proportions The author of this work begins by questioning the strategies with which male writers depict powerful women Although Spenser s Britomart Shakespeare s Cleopatra and Milton s Eve figure selfhood very differently and to very different ends they do have two significant elements in common mirrors and transformations that diminish the power of the female self

Symbols and Myth-Making in Modernity Tatiana Tiaynen-Qadir, Ali Qadir, 2022-11-01 Why do people queue up and break the bank to watch fantasy movies Why do some fictional characters and mythical creatures strangely arrest our mind and senses Why do some images and tales affect us so deeply From mystical heroic journeys to uncanny images and invincible goddesses Symbols and Myth Making in Modernity investigates the metaphoric power of symbols in human imagination today and in the past The book traces how ever present symbols in cultures and rituals across the world as well as in masterpieces of Renaissance Sufi poetry and Finnish Kalevala myths erupt in popular culture today including in cinema books visual art music and politics The authors develop a phenomenological theory of deep culture that nourishes human perception of reality through multivalent symbols and myths in which art and rituals occur as liminal spaces of symbol making Drawing on examples from the Hobbit and Avengers street art politics and work of acclaimed modern artists the book describes how deep culture can be seen as a symbolic map of modern mythology Dismantling literalism and disturbing our view of the world at each step the book unpacks how symbols play out in the modern world and the work they do in transforming the self

Tony Harrison and the Classics Sandie Byrne, 2022 This volume presents fifteen chapters focusing on different aspects of the work of Tony Harrison showing how his adaptations and translations explored themes of language class access to art and the causes and effects of war
