Mehmet Tutuncu,2008-01-01 From the Year 1069 until 1917 Turks Ruled in Greater Parts of Middle East and also in todays Palestine First e Seljukids Artuqids and Zangids and later Mamluks and lastly Ottomans But despite this nearly 850 years long rule the Turkish heritage and contribution is often overlooked and underestimated in the literature One of the most significant and visible heritage in the sacred landscape of Palestine are the building activities and inscriptions that are fixed in these buildings is book is a follow up to the in 2006 published Turkish Jerusalem 1516 1917 Ottoman Inscriptions from Jerusalem and Other Palestinian Cities Was in the first volume recorded 122 inscriptions from Jerusalem and 18 inscriptions outside Jerusalem in this second volume 134 inscriptions are recorded from towns outside Jerusalem and 9 from Jerusalem Also the time range wider was in the first volume almost all inscriptions from Ottoman times this volume covers inscriptions from the first entrance of the first Turks in the year 1069 to the end of the Ottoman empire in 1917 So therefore the title of Turkish Palestine 1069 1917 is justified e earliest inscription is from the year 476 1083 From next places next number of inscriptions are published Hebron 73 Safed 12 Nabi Musa 7 Ramle 8 Nablus 5 Lod 5 Yavne 4 Jaffa 8 and from Tanturah Haifa Beysan Azariya Herzlyia Isdud Dimra and Qalat Subaybah 1 inscription ere are also recorded 9 inscriptions from Jerusalem that were missed in the first volume Each inscription is accompanied by photographs and commentary on subject and form dimensions of Palestine To capture the diversity of Palestinian scholarship and to introduce readers to a mix of approaches and perspectives both internationally established and emerging Palestinian scholars have contributed The Handbook attempts to avoid narrowly framing Palestine around the Israeli Palestinian conflict incorporating postcolonial approaches attentive to a broader range of hitherto overlooked actors While a significant proportion of the Handbook examines the contemporary period it is divided up into four sections that together provide a detailed overview of the main developments in the region A historical section that contextualizes the complex historical formation of contemporary Palestine perhaps best regarded as a country but not yet a state A section exploring the society geography economy and identity of Palestine A section on the political significance of Palestine covering the dynamics between Jewish nationalism Zionism and Palestinian nationalism A final section on culture touching on architecture literature music cuisine education and contemporary art Providing a deep analysis of the Palestinian perspective the Handbook will prove valuable reading for anyone interested in the history politics and society of Palestine and the Middle East

The Palestine Nakba Nur Masalha, 2012-08-09 2012 marks the 63rd anniversary of the Nakba the most traumatic catastrophe that ever befell Palestinians This book explores new ways of remembering and commemorating the Nakba In the context of Palestinian oral history it explores social history from below subaltern narratives of memory and the formation of collective identity Masalha argues that to write more truthfully about the Nakba is not just to practise a professional historiography but an ethical imperative The struggles of ordinary refugees to recover and publicly assert the truth about the Nakba is a vital way of protecting their rights and keeping the hope for peace with justice alive This book is essential for understanding the place of the Palestine Nakba at the heart of the Israel Palestine conflict and the vital role of memory in narratives of truth and reconciliation

Bones of Contention Andrew Petersen, 2017-11-29 This pivot sets Muslim shrines within the wider context of Heritage Studies in the Muslim world and considers their role in the articulation of sacred landscapes their function as sites of cultural memory and their links to different religious traditions Reviewing the historiography of Muslim shrines paying attention to the different ways these places have been studied through anthropology archaeology history and religious studies the text discusses the historical and archaeological evidence for the development of shrines in the region from pre Islamic times up to the present day It also assesses the significance of Muslim shrines in the modern Middle East focusing on the diverse range of opinions and treatments from veneration to destruction and argues that shrines have a unique social function as a means of direct contact with the past in a region where changing political configurations have often distorted conventional historical narratives Palestine Nur

Masalha,2018-08-15 This rich and magisterial work traces Palestine s millennia old heritage uncovering cultures and societies of astounding depth and complexity that stretch back to the very beginnings of recorded history Starting with the earliest references in Egyptian and Assyrian texts Nur Masalha explores how Palestine and its Palestinian identity have evolved over thousands of years from the Bronze Age to the present day Drawing on a rich body of sources and the latest archaeological evidence Masalha shows how Palestine s multicultural past has been distorted and mythologised by Biblical lore and the Israel Palestinian conflict In the process Masalha reveals that the concept of Palestine contrary to accepted belief is not a modern invention or one constructed in opposition to Israel but rooted firmly in ancient past Palestine represents the authoritative account of the country s history The Woman in the Pith Helmet Jennie Ebeling,Philippe

Guillaume,2020-12-01 This volume celebrates the career of Norma Franklin an archaeologist who has made important contributions to our understanding of the three key cities of Samaria Megiddo and Jezreel in the Northern Kingdom of Israel during the Iron Age The sixteen essays offered herein by Franklin s colleagues in archaeology and biblical studies are a fitting tribute to the woman in the pith helmet an indomitable field archaeologist who describes herself as happiest with complex stratigraphy and dedicated to killing sacred cows Crusader Landscapes in the Medieval Levant ,2016-08-20

Written to celebrate the prestigious career of Professor Denys Pringle this collection of articles produced by many of the leading archaeologists and historians in the field of crusades studies offers a compilation of pioneering scholarship on recent studies on the Latin East The geographical breadth of topics discussed in each chapter reflects both Pringle s international collaborations and research interests and the wide development of scholarly interest in the subject With a concentration on the areas corresponding to the crusader states during the twelfth and thirteenth centuries the articles also offer research into the neighbouring areas of Cyprus Anatolia Greece and the West and the legacy of the crusader period there with results from recent archaeological fieldwork in the Middle East Hebrew Orientalism Mostafa Hussein,2025-12-09

How Jewish writers in late Ottoman and British Mandate Palestine used Arabo Islamic culture to advance the goals of Zionism In the decades before the establishment of a Jewish state in 1948 native and immigrant Jews in Palestine mediated between Jewish and Arab cultures while navigating their evolving identities as settler colonists Hebrew Orientalism challenges the conventional view that Hebrew thinkers were dismissive of Arabo Islamic culture revealing how they both adopted and adapted elements of it that enhanced Zionist aims Drawing on a wealth of sources ranging from Arabic medieval chronicles travel narratives and poetry to modern Hebrew geography and botany texts Mostafa Hussein provides a nuanced understanding of Hebrew orientalism by focusing on the practical activities of Hebrew writers such as recuperating the Jewish past in the East constructing Jewish indigeneity consolidating Jewish ties to Palestine s landscape enhancing understanding of the Hebrew Bible reviving Hebrew language and undertaking translation projects Through the lens of a diverse group of Jewish intellectuals ranging from Palestine born Sephardi Oriental and Ashkenazi Jews to Eastern European immigrants he unveils the complex realities of cultural exchange and knowledge production highlighting the dual role of these intellectuals in connecting with the East and promoting Zionist aspirations Hussein offers fresh insights into the role of scholarly practices in advancing new perspectives on the region and its peoples and forging a modern Zionist Hebrew identity Illuminating the intricate and often contradictory engagement of Hebrew scholars with Arabo Islamic culture Hebrew Orientalism informs contemporary discussions of postcolonialism and settler colonialism and enriches our understanding of the historical dynamics between Jews and Arabs in Palestine

In Plain Sight Ann E. Zimo, 2024-09-24

How Muslims integrated themselves into the Kingdom of Jerusalem founded in the wake of the First Crusade In Plain Sight draws from a wide array of interdisciplinary sources to show how Muslims seemingly hostile to the entire crusading enterprise integrated themselves into the kingdom founded in the wake of the First Crusade The book examines how Muslims whether Sunni or Shi a or Druze fit into society in the crusader Kingdom of Jerusalem uncovering the daily reality of their experience Exploring how and to what extent Muslims interacted with the Frankish ruling elite historian Ann E Zimo presents a new vantage point from which to reconsider the popularly accepted notion that the crusades and by extension the crusader states were a locus of a monolithic clash between West and East or between Christianity and Islam By untangling the relations between the Muslim communities and their rulers Zimo offers a more fully realized image of a society too multifaceted to be reasonably reduced to a black and white binary opposition Zimo not only re reads the well known Frankish sources including narrative chronicles letters charters and legal treatises but combines them with an investigation of the Arabic documentary base including chronicles biographies fatwa literature pilgrimage guides and treaties which are not translated and largely inaccessible to most historians of the crusades She also draws from the enormous and growing body of scholarship generated by archaeologists whose work can often provide insights into the aspects of the past not recorded in the historical record By casting such a wide evidentiary net In Plain Sight sheds new light on Frankish society and how Muslims fit into it offering major revisions to the current conception of population distribution within the kingdom and the nature of the Frankish polity itself

International Handbook of Historical Archaeology Teresita Majewski, David Gaimster, 2009-06-07

In studying the past archaeologists have focused on the material remains of our ancestors Prehistorians generally have only artifacts to study and rely on the diverse material record for their understanding of past societies and their behavior Those involved in studying historically documented cultures not only have extensive material remains but also contemporary texts images and a range of investigative technologies to enable them to build a broader and more reflexive picture of how past societies communities and individuals operated and behaved Increasingly historical archaeology refers not to a particular period place or a method but rather an approach that interrogates the tensions between artifacts and texts irrespective of context In short historical archaeology provides direct evidence for how humans have shaped the world we live in today Historical archaeology is a branch of global archaeology that has grown in the last 40 years from its North American base into an increasingly global community of archaeologists each studying their area of the world in a historical context Where historical archaeology started as part of the study of the post Columbian societies of the United States and Canada it has now expanded to interface with the post medieval archaeologies of Europe and the diverse post imperial experiences of Africa Latin America and Australasia The 36 essays in the International Handbook of Historical Archaeology have been specially commissioned from the leading researchers in their fields creating a wide ranging digest of the increasingly global field of historical archaeology The volume is divided into two sections the first reviewing the key themes issues and approaches of historical archaeology today and the second containing a series of case studies charting the development and current state of historical archaeological practice around the world This key reference work captures the energy and diversity of this global discipline today
