Good Harbor A Novel:

Good Harbor Anita Diamant, 2002-02-19 Anita Diamant whose rich portrayal of the biblical world of women illuminated her acclaimed international bestseller The Red Tent now crafts a moving novel of contemporary female friendship Good Harbor is the long stretch of Cape Ann beach where two women friends walk and talk sharing their personal histories and learning life's lessons from each other Kathleen Levine a longtime resident of Gloucester Massachusetts is maternal and steady a devoted children's librarian a convert to Judaism and mother to two grown sons When her serene life is thrown into turmoil by a diagnosis of breast cancer at fifty nine painful past secrets emerge and she desperately needs a friend Forty two year old Joyce Tabachnik is a sharp witted freelance writer who is also at a fragile point in her life She's come to Gloucester to follow her literary aspirations but realizes that her husband and young daughter are becoming increasingly distant Together Kathleen and Joyce forge a once in a lifetime bond and help each other to confront scars left by old emotional wounds Good Harbor Anita Diamant, 2003 The Book That Changed My Life Roxanne J. Coady, Joy Johannessen, 2007-10-18 Now in paperback a delightful collection of essays on the transformative power of reading In The Book That Changed My Life our most admired writers doctors professors religious leaders politicians chefs and CEO's share the books that mean the most to them For Doris Kearns Goodwin it was Barbara Tuchman's The Guns of August which inspired her to enter a field history writing traditionally reserved for men For Jacques P pin it was The Myth of Sisyphus which taught him the importance of personal responsibility dignity and goodness in the midst of existentialist France A testament to the life altering importance of literature this book inspires us to return to old favorites and seek out new treasures All proceeds go to The Read to Grow Foundation which partners with urban hospitals to provide books and literacy information to newborns and their families The Genesis of Fiction Terry R. Wright, 2016-03-09 This book considers a range of twentieth century novelists who practise a creative mode of reading the Bible exploring aspects of the Book of Genesis which more conventional biblical criticism sometimes ignores Each chapter considers some of the interpretive challenges of the relevant story in Genesis especially those noted by rabbinic midrash which serves as a model for such creative rewriting of the biblical text All the novelists considered from Mark Twain John Steinbeck and Thomas Mann to Jeanette Winterson Anita Diamant and Jenny Diski are shown to have been aware of the midrashic tradition and in some cases to have incorporated significant elements from it into their own writing The questions these modern and postmodern writers ask of the Bible however go beyond those permitted by the rabbis and by other believing interpretive communities Each chapter therefore attempts to chart intertextually where the writers are coming from what principles govern their mode of reading and rewriting Genesis and what conclusions can be drawn about the ways in which it remains possible to relate to the Bible Encyclopedia of the American Novel Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition no other reference work on American fiction brings together such an array of authors and texts as this The Sacred Calling

Rebecca Einstein Schorr, Alysa Mendelson Graf, 2016-05-17 Women have been rabbis for over forty years No longer are women rabbis a unique phenomenon rather they are part of the fabric of Jewish life In this anthology rabbis and scholars from across the Jewish world reflect back on the historic significance of women in the rabbinate and explore issues related to both the professional and personal lives of women rabbis This collection examines the ways in which the reality of women in the rabbinate has impacted on all aspects of Jewish life including congregational culture liturgical development life cycle ritual the Jewish healing movement spirituality theology and more Published by CCAR Press a division of the Central Conference of American Rabbis Sir William Monson's Naval Tracts in Six Books ... Sir William Monson, 1703
