Jacobson, Kristin Allukian, Rickie-Ann Legleitner, Leslie Allison, 2018-05-04 This book highlights the multiplicity of American women s writing related to liminality and hybridity from its beginnings to the contemporary moment Often informed by notions of crossing intersectionality transition and transformation these concepts as they appear in American women s writing contest as well as perpetuate exclusionary practices involving class ethnicity gender race religion and sex among other variables The collection s introduction three unit introductions fourteen individual essays and afterward facilitate a process of encounters engagements and conversations within between among and across the rich polyphony that constitutes the creative acts of American women writers The contributors offer fresh perspectives on canonical writers as well as introduce readers to new authors As a whole the collection demonstrates American women s writing is threshold writing or writing that occupies a liminal hybrid space that both delimits borders and offers enticing openings
