Good Old Mum:

Good Old Mum Roderick Hunt, 1995 This is a new branch for those children who need strongly patterned text and reinforcement of the key words in the Oxford Reading Tree It features real stories and retains the humorous element of Reading Tree stories whilst providing repetition of the key verbs and character names The text is handwritten using a cursive flick and consists of one or two lines per spread The Story books are accompanied by an Extended Story booklet the extended version of the stories with guided response questions for the teacher parent to use to contextualize the stories and increase children's enjoyment of them A set of Big Books for introducing the stories and for group class use is also available Good Old Mum Roderick Hunt, 2011

Oxford Reading Tree: Stage 1+: Patterned Stories Good Old Mum Roderick Hunt, 2008 The teaching notes for the Oxford Reading Tree Biff Chip and Kipper books are full of practical suggestions for using the storybooks saving you hours of preparation time They have been updated in line with the simple view of reading and the renewed Primary Framework for Literacy They now include guidance for group guided reading comprehension and word recognition and assessment These replace the existing Teaching Notes and Guided Reading Cards The storybooks are unchanged but notes for parents carers and teaching assistants have been added to the inside covers These notes replace the existing Take Home Cards
