Contemporary Sino-French Cinemas Michelle E. Bloom, 2017-11-30 Transnational cinemas are eclipsing national cinemas in the contemporary world and Sino French films exemplify this phenomenon through the cinematic coupling of the Sinophone and the Francophone linking France not just with the Chinese mainland but also with the rest of the Chinese speaking world Sinophone directors most often reach out to French cinema by referencing and adapting it They set their films in Paris and metropolitan France cast French actors and sometimes use French dialogue even when the directors themselves don t understand it They tend to view France as mysterious sexy and sophisticated just as the French see China and Taiwan as exotic As Michelle E Bloom makes clear many films move past a simplistic opposition between East and West and beyond Orientalist and Occidentalist cross cultural interplay Bloom focuses on films that have appeared since 2000 such as Tsai Ming liang s What Time Is It There Hou Hsiao hsien s Flight of the Red Balloon and Dai Sijie s Balzac and the Little Chinese Seamstress She views the work of these well known directors through a Sino French optic applying the tropes of m tissage or biraciality intertextuality adaptation and remake translation and imitation to shed new light on their work She also calls attention to important lesser studied films Taiwanese director Cheng Yu chieh s Yang Yang which depicts the up and coming Taiwanese star Sandrine Pinna as a mixed race beauty and Emily Tang Xiaobai s debut film Conjugation which contrasts Paris and post Tiananmen Square Beijing the one an incarnation of liberty the other a place of entrapment Bloom s insightful analysis also probes what such films reveal about their Taiwanese and Chinese creators Scholars have long studied Sino French literature but this inaugural full length work on Sino French cinema maps uncharted territory offering a paradigm for understanding other cross cultural interminglings and tools to study

transnational cinema and world cinema The Sino French rich and multifaceted linguistically culturally and ethnically constitutes an important part of film studies Francophone studies Sinophone studies and myriad other fields This is a must read for students scholars and lovers of film      Books in Print ,1991      The Real Bogie and Bacall Catherine Curzon,2024-08-30 Chronicles the turbulent Hollywood love story of Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall navigating fame adversity and enduring passion against all odds It was the Hollywood romance that warmed hearts and thrilled audiences but the path to true love was littered with alcoholism abandonment and bitter disappointments Humphrey Bogart had crawled up the hard way leaving behind a childhood without affection for a life as the idol of millions Bogie s road to stardom had been long and tough forging a superstar who hated being in the spotlight as much as he loved being in the bar With three marriages to his name and a reputation as one of the hardest drinkers in Hollywood happiness was always fleeting Lauren Bacall grew up in New York as the apple of her hard working mother s eye dreaming of a life in the limelight Modelling by day and tearing tickets at night when she was summoned to Hollywood to make a screentest young Betty Bacall grabbed it with both hands There she was reborn as the vampish Lauren Bacall a teenage nobody who would make her debut in To Have and Have Not opposite the quintessential Hollywood tough guy Humphrey Bogart Nobody expected what came next but the love affair between Bogie and Bacall took the world by storm The Real Bogie Bacall tells the story of two people whose romance shouldn t have worked but did      The Snowmaiden Michael Weeks,2000-10 Neil Radford wants what we all want love and purpose But he s also what so many of us are unsatisfied and unfulfilled but eternally hopeful When he walks away from his job and a troubled relationship Neil finds more than he bargained for in Natasha Kirtsova a beautiful young Russian woman who sets him on a course of passion But he learns quickly that love and purpose entail far more than the romantic ideal that being alive is as much about longing sacrifice and losing as it is about emerging victoriously that love everlasting means more than he d ever imagined
