Old Testament Quotations in the Fourth Gospel M. J. J. Menken,1996 From the very beginning of Christianity Jesus followers have tried to legitimize their views of him with the help of the Scriptures This means that if we wish to understand the beginning of the Christian church and of Christian theology we have to examine the early Christian use of the Old Testament A conspicuous way of using the Scriptures consists in directly quoting from them Eleven OT quotations in the Fourth Gospel are the topic of this study These eleven quotations in fact the majority of John s OT quotations differ from the known versions of the OT but are not free paraphrases of the OT text in some cases it is not immediately clear from which passage precisely the evangelist quotes This state of affairs raises the questions which OT passages in which versions John used and how and why the quotations were modified In this study the questions of source and of redaction are dealt with in their interrelationship Can we adequately explain the form of a quotation by taking into account Johannine redaction of an OT passage in a textual form which we know which we can reasonably argue Results of research in the field of early Jewish and early Christian exegetical techniques and devices are of course taken into account Each of the eleven quotations is scrutinized on the points of source and redaction It appears that John mostly used the LXX but that where that translation did not suit his purposes he either translated the Hebrew himself or used an other translation He modified the quotations in agreement with extant exegetical rules and for christological reasons This study gives new insight into an aspect of the early Christian use of Scripture     The Ballad Book of John Jacob Niles John Jacob Niles,2021-12-14 A legend in the folk music community John Jacob Niles enjoyed a lengthy career as a balladeer folk collector and songwriter Ever close to his Kentucky roots he spent much of his adulthood searching for the most well loved songs of the southern Appalachia The Ballad Book of John Jacob Niles brings together a wealth of songs with the stories that inspired them arranged by a gifted performer This new edition includes all of the melodies text commentary and illustrations of the 1961 original and features a new introduction by Ron Pen director of the John Jacob Niles Center for American Music at the University of Kentucky     The

Paul Verhoeven, 2010-04-06 Building on the work of the great Biblical scholars of the twentieth century Rudolf Bultman Raymond Brown Jane Schabert and Robert Funk founder of the Jesus Seminars among others filmmaker Paul Verhoeven disrobes the mythical Jesus to reveal a man who is after all startlingly familiar to us a man who has much in common with other great political leaders throughout history human beings who believed that change was coming in their lifetimes Gone is the Jesus of the miracles gone the son of God gone the weaver of arcane parables whose meanings are obscure In their place Verhoeven gives us his vision of Jesus as a complete man someone who was changed by events the leader of a political movement and perhaps most importantly someone who in his speeches and sayings introduced a new ethics in which enlightened behavior and the embrace of human contradictions transcend the mechanics of value and worth that had defined the material world before Jesus Coming to a deeper understanding of the historical Jesus has been a lifelong passion for Verhoeven who for the last quarter century has been among the very few nonacademics participating in the Jesus Seminars Verhoeven assumed that one day he would make a film of the life of Jesus Then he realized that it must be a book Steeped in Biblical scholarship but free of the institutional biases whether academic or religious that so often dictate the terms of discussion of the historical Jesus Jesus of Nazareth is a book that builds a bridge reaching all the way back to Jesus s lifetime all the way forward to the present and from biblical scholars to lay readers whose interest might be personal or political

Born in Indiana Dr Edward J Clemmer is a social psychologist by profession He now lives with his Maltese wife Jane Zammit and enjoys dual citizenship with Malta His four sons by a previous marriage continue to live in America His personal journey with the Lord into this Gospel on the Road to Emmaus began in a moment of grace on 12th September 2003 as Ed was on his way to the priest The context for this initiation was the Feast of Exultation of Holy Cross 14th September as the source of every grace is derived from the sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the cross The gospel is explained for us as the author and reader journey with the Lord as potential disciples Our journey begins at Bethany near the Jordan with John the Baptist preaching and baptizing Part 1 continues up to the Transfiguration of Jesus Volume One reaches its climax before the Lords final journey to Jerusalem when Jesus returns to Bethany where the Baptist had preached Volume Two resumes with the Lords healing and preaching at Bethany near the Jordan Part 2 concludes in Bethany near Jerusalem with the Lords dinner celebration with Lazarus after Jesus had raised Lazarus from the dead This celebration anticipates the Lords death and resurrection and ours in Christ Part 3 takes up the Grand Liturgy of the Lords New Creation with Holy Week The book initially concludes with a retrospective of the incarnation of Jesus as God with us and with the parallel coming of the Spirit at Pentecost Then in the Part 4 conclusion of this gospel our post Emmaus journey with the risen Lord returns to our post Pentecost life in the Holy Spirit The authors seven year personal journey through this Gospel Emmaus ends in 2010 with the Feast of Sukkot just as when the Lord also had anticipated the Holy Spirit But the Lord provides us with his own conclusion although he had healed ten lepers as they were on their way to the priest only one had returned to give thanks

The Christological Witness Function of the Old Testament Characters in the Gospel of John Sanghee M. Ahn,2014-06-16 This book investigates the narrative function of the Old Testament characters in the Gospel of John The intriguing thesis is that the Hebrew characters in John's narrative uniformly function as a witness for the messianic identity of Jesus. The Jewish scriptural traditions Hebrew and intertestamental ones are compared to shed light on John's indebtedness for its formation of his Christology. A compelling argument ensues that informs our understanding not only of the Gospel itself but also of Jesus Christ revealed in the Gospel.
