morphology syntax and discourse Some of the typologically notable characteristics of Pangkhua include presence of a relatively large number of sesquisyllabic words an elaborate person marking on verbs absence of a clausal conjunctive and lack of a distinct word class of adjectives As the first comprehensive description of the language this grammar contributes to comparative Tibeto Burman linguistics more broadly by laying the groundwork for further studies locating Pangkhua in its genealogical areal and typological contexts It will also serve as an invaluable resource for the maintenance and revitalization of Pangkhua language and culture

Medieval Tibeto-Burman Languages IV , 2012-06-22 While providing unique and detailed information on early Tibeto Burman languages and their contact and relationship to other languages this book at the same time sets out to establish a field of Tibeto Burman comparative historical linguistics based on the classical Indo European model The volume includes six papers on Tangut three on Tibetan and one each on the languages Mon Burmese Lepcha Pyu Nam and Yi Building a bridge between linguistic and literary research the range of studies treats phonology decipherment literature and religion The Mainland Southeast Asia Linguistic Area Alice Vittrant, Justin Watkins, 2019-06-04 This book lies at the crossroads of areal typology language contact and genetic affiliation Concerned with mainland Southeast Asia in particular the various grammatical sketches lay emphasis on characteristics shared by unrelated languages Synchronic and Diachronic Aspects of Kanashi Anju Saxena, Lars Borin, 2022-02-21 Kanashi a Sino Tibetan ST language belonging to the West Himalayish WH subbranch of this language family is spoken in one single village Malana in Kullu district Himachal Pradesh state India which is surrounded by villages where entirely unrelated Indo Aryan IA languages are spoken Until we started working on Kanashi very little linguistic material was available Researchers have long speculated about the prehistory of Kanashi how did it happen that it ended up spoken in one single village completely cut off from its closest linguistic relatives Even though suggestions have been made of a close genealogical relation between Kanashi and Kinnauri another WH language at present separated by over 200 km of rugged mountainous terrain their shared linguistic features have not been discussed in the literature Based on primary fieldwork this volume presents some synchronic and diachronic aspects of Kanashi The synchronic description of Kanashi includes a general introduction on Malana and the Kanashi language community chapter 1 linguistic descriptions of its sound system chapter 2 of phonological variation in Kanashi chapter 4 of its grammar chapter 3 and of its intriguing numeral systems chapter 5 as well as basic vocabulary lists Kanashi English English Kanashi chapter 9 As for the diachronic and genealogical aspects chapters 6 8 we compare and contrast Kanashi with other ST languages of this region in particular languages of Kinnaur notably Kinnauri thereby uncovering some intriguing linguistic features common to Kanashi and Kinnauri which provide insights into their common history For instance a subset of borrowed IA nouns and adjectives in both languages end in a or a s elements which do not otherwise appear in Kanashi or Kinnauri nor in the IA donor languages chapter 6 and both languages have a valency changing mechanism where the valency increasing marker ja alternates with the intransitive marker e d in borrowed IA verbs again elements without an obvious provenance in the donor or recipient language chapter 7 These features are neither found in IA languages nor in the WH languages geographically closest to Kanashi Pattani Bunan Tinani but only in Kinnauri which is spoken further away Intriguingly traces of some of these features are also found in some ST languages belonging to different ST subgroups both WH and non WH spoken in Uttarakhand in India and in western Nepal e g Rongpo Chaudangsi Raji and Raute This raises fundamental questions regarding genealogical classification language contact and prehistory of the WH group of languages and of this part of the Indian Himalayas which are also discussed in the volume chapter 8 Compounds and Compounding in Old Tibetan. Vol. 1 Joanna Bialek, 2018-08-26 Old Tibetan documents are the oldest extant monuments of the Tibetan language Their exploration although successfully flourishing in the last two decades has been considerably impeded by often unintelligible and obsolete vocabulary that was bound to the particular cultural and political context of the Tibetan Empire that collapsed in the 840s CE The present publication aims at clarifying a part of this vocabulary by examining nearly 400 Old Tibetan compounds In Part I an attempt has been undertaken to define a compound and to provide the first linguistic classification of Old Tibetan compounds Part II concentrates on a lexicological analysis of the compounds and strives to explain their etymology word formation and usage in Old Tibetan Contents of Volume 1 Introduction Indices References Part I Compounding in Old Tibetan Part II Old Tibetan Compounds Lexicological Analysis Lexemes 1 119 The Languages and Linguistics of South Asia Hans Henrich Hock,Elena Bashir,2016-05-24 With nearly a quarter of the world's population members of at least five major language families plus several putative language isolates South Asia is a fascinating arena for linguistic investigations whether comparative historical linguistics studies of language contact and multilingualism or general linguistic theory This volume provides a state of the art survey of linguistic research on the languages of South Asia with contributions by well known experts Focus is both on what has been accomplished so far and on what remains unresolved or controversial and hence offers challenges for future research In addition to covering the languages their histories and their genetic classification as well as phonetics phonology morphology syntax and sociolinguistics the volume provides special coverage of contact and convergence indigenous South Asian grammatical traditions applications of modern technology to South Asian languages and South Asian writing systems An appendix offers a classified listing of major sources and resources both digital online and printed Ethnolinguistic Prehistory of the Eastern Himalaya Mark W. Post,Stephen Morey,Toni

Huber,2022-08-08 The Eastern Himalaya holds perhaps the highest levels of ethnolinguistic diversity in all Eurasia with over 300 languages spoken by as many distinct cultural groups What factors can explain such diversity How did it evolve and what can its analysis teach us about the prehistory of its wider region This pioneering interdisciplinary volume brings together a diverse group of linguists and anthropologists all of whom seek to reconstruct aspects of Eastern Himalayan ethnolinguistic prehistory from an empirical standpoint on the basis of primary fieldwork derived data from a diverse range of Himalayan Indigenous languages and cultural practices Contributors are David Bradley Scott DeLancey Toni Huber Gwendolyn Hyslop Linda Konnerth Ismael Lieberherr Yankee Modi Stephen Morey Mark W Post Uta Rein hl Alban Stockhausen Amos Teo and Marion Wettstein An Investigation of Various Linguistic Changes in Chinese and Naxi Jung-yao Lu,2013-08-19 The comparative analysis of historical linguistics focuses on reconstructing ancient patterns based on diachronic records and typological data from several languages or dialects in a language group The ultimate aim of the comparative reconstruction which requires significant cross linguistic observation and theoretical reasoning is to demonstrate the historical process of language changes This book considers the diachronic development of both the Chinese language and the Naxi language focusing particularly upon six contentious linguistic issues that are associated with various linguistic changes in most areas of the grammar of these languages including phonological changes semantic changes syntactic changes and contact induced changes These linguistic issues are 1 tonal splits in proto checked syllables and subgrouping of Loloish 2 the semantic development of RETURN in Chinese 3 the semantic development of TAKE in Chinese 4 the development of agentive passive markers in certain dialects of Chinese 5 definiteness and nominalization relativization and genitivization in Chinese and 6 the development of nominalization relativization and genitivization in Naxi This volume provides new methods and perspectives through which these issues can be analyzed and resolved on the basis of typological and diachronic evidence It uses cross linguistic data from Chinese and the Tibeto Burman languages in order to reconstruct various diachronic developments in Chinese and Naxi

Functional-Historical Approaches to Explanation Tim Thornes,Erik Andvik,Gwendolyn Hyslop,Joana Jansen,2013-07-25 Contributions from both well known practitioners and new voices in the areas of language typology historical linguistics and function based approaches to language description define this volume as does its foci in two major geographical areas southeast Asia and northwestern North America All of the papers appeal in one way or another to functional historical approaches to explanation Behind this appeal lies an assumption that languages are selective in their development in ways that are dependent upon the communicative tasks to which they are put As such language function accounts for both variation and historical development over time

Origins and Migrations in the Extended Eastern Himalayas Toni Huber,Stuart Blackburn,2012-02-03 Origins and migration are core elements in the histories identities and stories of Tibeto Burman speaking populations in the extended eastern Himalayas These essays explore theories of explaining origins and migration methods for studying them and expressions of them in local cultures
