Criticism R. S. Sugirtharajah, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of Postcolonial Biblical Criticism is a comprehensive treatment of a relatively new form of scholarship Generally speaking postcolonialism aims to critique and dismantle hegemonic worldviews and power structures while giving voice to previously marginalized peoples and systems of thought This approach has inevitably engaged with the text and reception of the Bible a scripture that Western colonizers introduced to and often imposed upon their colonial subjects With a globally diverse list of contributors the Handbook aims to cover the perspective and context of the authors of the Bible as well as the modern experiences of imperialism resistance decolonization and nationalism Church of North India Monodeep Daniel, 2025-09-16 Faced with discrimination and disadvantages Dalits have long sought and created alternative communities and ideas One such community has been the Indian church which since the eighteenth century has sheltered them in large numbers The CNI is one such protestant church whose great majority of membership comprises the Scheduled Castes and Tribes However the missionaries who established the church in India carried the baggage of a divided church from Europe In the twentieth century the Indian Christian leadership took the initiative to integrate their disjointed community This first volume narrates the saga of a broken community that took forty years starting from 1929 to integrate as a united and unifying church of six religious denominations in northern India The differences in social practices religious rituals and theological ideas were transcended The negotiations were tough yet breakthroughs occurred which kept propelling the conversations among the denominational representatives The conversations were in two phases The first were called the Round Table Conferences starting from 1929 and after the preparation of the first draft of the Plan of Church Union in 1950 it entered the second phase of Negotiation Committee meetings The Negotiation Committee through its sub Committees kept fine tuning the draft till they settled for the fourth edition as final The document called the Plan of Church Union in North India and Pakistan 1965 fourth edition became the basis for the unification of six churches This study shows that the church union movement in India was successful and as a result the Church of North India was inaugurated on November 29th 1970 at All Saints Cathedral grounds in Nagpur In the past five decades this unified community which has surmounted various legal and political challenges has continued to thrive For those interested in church history they will find this book a stimulating read with notable details and interesting episodes woven in a seamless saga of a minority community in the heartland of India This research and publication are a part of the fifty year jubilee decade of the Inauguration of the CNI It is a story of people who are rooted in Christ and related to the soil their motherland India The Chaldean Syrian Church of the East Aprem (Mar), 1983 Journeys of the Muslim Nation and the Christian Church David W. Shenk, 2003-10-12 Islam and Christianity seem to be at opposite and unbridgeable poles both committed to world mission Given the political tension and violent acts that sometimes surround these two major world religions it is essential for both sides to understand the other its history beliefs traditions and vision for the future This invaluable resource from David W Shenk an expert in comparative religious studies examines Islam and Christianity at their deepest spiritual cultural and communal levels It explores the similarities and yet unavoidable differences found in Isaac and Ishmael Jesus and Muhammad the Bible and the Qur'an Jerusalem and Medina the Eucharist and the Hajj the Church and the Ummah Reflecting years of conversations and dialogue with Muslim friends this is narrative theology full of anecdote and personal experience that bridges the poles and builds understanding Part of the Christians Meeting Muslims series

Hidden Treasures and Intercultural Encounters. 2. Auflage Dietmar W. Winkler, Li Tang, 2009 East Syriac Christianity spread outside the Roman Empire as a result of the missions carried out by the Church of the East formerly known as Nestorian Church This volume contains the most recent cutting edge research on this very Church in China and Central Asia World renowned scholars from universities and institutions in China India Europe and North America contributed to the study of this fascinating chapter of the history of Christianity They come from various disciplines such as Religious and Ecclesiastical History Philology Sinology Syrology Archeology Theology and Central Asiatic Studies A History of Christianity in Asia, Vol. I Samuel Hugh Moffett, 2014-07-30 The story of Christianity in the West has often been told but the history of Christianity in the East is not as well known The seed was the same the good news of Jesus Christ for the whole world which Christians call the gospel But it was sown by different sowers it was planted in different soil it grew with a different flavor and it was gathered by different reapers It is too often forgotten that the faith moved east across Asia as early as it moved west into Europe Western church history tends to follow Paul to Philippi and to Rome and on across Europe to the conversion of Constantine and the barbarians With some outstanding exceptions only intermittently has the West looked beyond Constantinople as its center It was a Christianity that has for centuries remained unashamedly Asian A History of Christianity in Asia makes available immense amounts of research on religious pluralism of Asia and how Christianity spread long before the modern missionary movement went forth in the shelter of Western military might Invaluable for historians of Asia and scholars of mission it is stimulating for all readers interested in Christian history Christians in Asia before 1500 Ian Gilman, Hans-Joachim Klimkeit, 2013-01-11 The history of Christianity in Asia is little dealt with either by Church historians or by historians of religion It is generally unknown even amongst theologians that there was a long history of Christianity in Persia India Central Asia and China before the appearance on the scene of the first missionaries from the West A systematic history of the Christian Church in Asia before 1500 is needed Drawing on material hitherto unknown in the English speaking world this is a timely and important book because there is a heightened interest today in the early forms of Asian Christianity The Church in Asia today seeks to find forms of religious expression that are in harmony with Asian culture as was the case in the earlier period The book covers the period up to 1500 CE The geographical areas dealt with are Palestine Syria Mesopotamia Persia India Central and South East Asia China and Japan The book takes into account the outward development of the Church in these areas as well as the inner theological issues A Theological Book List 1971 Theological Education Fund,1971 The Contextualized Psalms (Punjabi Zabur) Yousaf Sadiq,2020-11-09 The metrical translation of the Psalms into the Punjabi language set to indigenous music in the late nineteenth century in India plays a vital role in the personal and communal worship of the global Punjabi Christian community This book is a pioneer work that comprehensively encompasses the cultural socio historical missional and sociolinguistic aspects of the Punjabi Psalter It investigates the unique and fascinating story of the contextualizing of Psalms in an exclusive South Asian Punjabi context and engages in an in depth study on the life and work of Rev Dr Imam ud Din Shahbaz This work determines to bring a deeper appreciation for the Punjabi Psalter by encouraging the Punjabi Christians to not only pass the Psalms on to the next generations but also to grow in loving and valuing their mother tongue the Punjabi language The thrust of this book is to esteem the shared heritage of the global Punjabi Christian community the Psalms in Punjabi commonly known as the Punjabi Zabur Handbook of Source-materials for Students of Church History Up to 650 A.D. William G. Young,1969 First Voyage of the Apostle Thomas to India James Kurikilamkatt,2005-12-31 If St Thomas reached India in 52 AD where was he preaching in the years prior to this Can there be truth to the idea that he traveled to India This book tries to give comprehensive answers to these questions The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 Theological Education for the Mission of the Church in India, 1947-1987 Siga Arles,1991 Indian National independence and Church Union in the Church of South India both in 1947 demanded a rethinking on the part of the Indian Christians with regard to the mission of the Church in India the meaning and methods of ministry and the role of theological education This book is a study of the quest for relevance in Indian theological education during the period 1947 to 1987 This book studies concepts of mission such as the traditional evangelization and the modern participation in nation building ministry as changing from the domination of male clergy to the participation of the laity and women theological education as equipment of the whole church for wider involvement in Indian society within the context of poverty and religious pluralism It deals with the four decades of thought development and indigenous experimentations simultaneously looking at the effect of the evangelical and ecumenical division of the church s understanding of her mission and ministry in India While studying several seminaries Tamilnadu Theological Seminary is used as a case to illustrate the continuing process of the quest for relevance An extensive bibliography notes on people referred and a directory of theological colleges are additional resources in this work The Early Church and Africa Sean P.
