Disguises James J. Benjamin, 2010-04-15 I honor God for giving me this word for his people While going through a difficult time in my life I experienced God like never before All that I have been through in my life God told me to write it down because my life is a testimony to the next person We as people of God need to be able to detect the many different disguises of the enemy In this book I am going to expose the enemy I'm going to bring to the light the many different disguises and faces that the enemy has set for the people of God to lose their focus Satan is present and evident and present in the world today and unless we recognize his disguises we will be unable to defeat him I pray that this word convict the hearts of the readers

Maide Pauline Bradford Mackie, 2021-11-05 Over two centuries ago a little Puritan maiden might have been seen passing along the Indian path which led from out Salem Town to her home It was near the close of day The solemn twilight of the great primeval forest was beginning to fall But the little maid tripped lightly on unawed untroubled From underneath her snowy linen cap with its stiffly starched ear flaps hung the braid of her hair several shades more golden than the hue of her gown Over one arm she carried her woolen stockings and buckled shoon A man seated near the path on the trunk of a fallen tree of such gigantic girth that his feet swung off the ground although he was a person of no inconsiderable size hailed her as she neared him Where do you wend your way in such hasty fashion little mistress She paused and bobbed him a very fine courtesy such as she had been taught in the Dame School judging him to be an important personage by reason of his sword with its jeweled hilt and his plumed hat I be sorely hungered good sir she replied and I ken that Goody Higgins has a bowl o porridge piping hot for me in the chimney corner Her dimpled face grew grave her eyelids fell When one for a grievous sin she added humbly has stood from early morn till set o sun on a block o wood beside the town pump and has had naught to eat
