Hanging Fire:

Loose Cannons Red Herrings and Other Lost Metaphors Robert Claiborne, 2001-07-31 A colorful compendium of everyday words and phrases and where they originated The English language is a treasury of splendid mysteries among them the many words and phrases whose origins we no longer know Often the original meaning was literal pertaining to forgotten objects or activities such as aftermath which once meant the grass that sprang up after a farmer had mowed a field With the informal scholarship and good humored wit that are his trademarks Robert Claiborne reveals the wonders buried in our speech vivid images of people and customs of the past As the reader soon discovers they are a sort of hidden poetry that can heighten the colors and sharpen the meanings of words and phrases that we read or write daily Primal Scenes Ned Lukacher, 1986 Primal Scenes is concerned with those elements in the thought of Freud and Heidegger which make us continue to regard them as our contemporaries It seeks to reassert their radical potential which the author believes has been minimized as critics celebrate the radicality of Lacan Derrida and others Seeing in the Dark Pauline Butling, 2006-01-01 Poet Phyllis Webb initiated new ways of seeing into the cultural dark of Western thought By blurring the axis between light and dark she redefined in positive terms women's subjectivity and sexuality which are traditionally assigned dark negative values Seeing in the Dark includes perceptive discussions on a number of Webb's collections specifically Naked Poems Wilson's Bowl Water and Light and Hanging Fire Butling shows how Webb uses strategies of subversion reversal and re vision of prevailing traditions and tropes to facilitate seeing in the dark She also provides a fascinating analysis of Webb criticism tracing it over the past thirty years and revealing a shift in critical paradigms A chapter on biography includes intriguing archival material Pauline Butling offers important new ways of reading one of Canada's finest poets Seeing in the Dark is essential introductory material for the general reader and provides provocative penetrating analysis for literary scholars Captured by Fire Chris Czajkowski, Fred Reid, 2019-09-28 In the summer of 2017 wildfires dominated the headlines in British Columbia As a low pressure weather system continued to cause lightning strikes starting new fires strong winds fanned the existing ones Over two hundred fires burned in the province and nearly ten thousand people in or around the towns of 100 Mile House Ashcroft Cache Creek Princeton and Williams Lake received the instruction YOU MUST EVACUATE NOW But not everyone left Captured by Fire alternates between the dramatic first person accounts of wilderness dweller Chris Czajkowski and homesteader Fred Reid who both ignored the evacuation order and stayed to protect their properties animals and livelihoods Living in a remote area they knew that their homes would be of low priority to officials when fire fighting resources were deployed Over the course of the summer as alerts fluctuated and even the firefighters pulled out both had to decide when is it time to go Pansegrouw's Crossword Dictionary Louisa Pansegrouw, 1994-10-04 With over 90 000 entries in alphabetical order this crossword dictionary is a comprehensive yet easy to use reference with material from a wide range of sources Modern Mining Practice George Mitcheson Bailes, 1906 A Dictionary of Military Terms Edward
