The Surprising Lives of Animals Anna Claybourne, 2020-02-04 This vividly illustrated book shines a light on the animal kingdom like never before Perfect for young animal lovers The Surprising Lives of Animals is a captivating reading experience that will amaze children and deepen their understanding of the world around them Did you know that some animals giggle and play just like us Or that certain animals build their homes stockpile their food and use tools In this fascinating book you'll learn about the things that humans and animals have in common From team work exercise and self care to dancing and getting into trouble you'll discover that actually animals are a lot like you Visiting underground burrows and grassy savannahs watery realms and towering tree tops this book will take you around the world on a journey of discovery Meet the monkeys who love to take baths or the penguins who toboggan for fun Hear the stories of escaping honey badgers sneaky spiders and clever crows Or find out if animals can really talk You'll see plenty of Earth's creatures from creepy crawlies to mega mammals and you'll learn about their lives habitats characteristics and behaviors and uncover what makes each of them so surprisingly similar to us humans Look out for Scientist Spotlight boxes too to learn about some important scientists and conservationists such as Sir David Attenborough and Dame Jane Goodall

How Eskimos Keep Their Babies Warm Mei-Ling Hopgood, 2025-05-01 The book is breezy and entertaining and Hopgood is charmingly self-deprecating about her own mothering of the formidable Sofia who emerges as a sassy character in her own right Boston Globe A tour of global practices that will inspire American parents to expand their horizons and geographical borders and learn that there's more than one way to diaper a baby Mei Ling Hopgood a first time mom from suburban Michigan now living in Buenos Aires was shocked that Argentine parents allow their children to stay up until all hours of the night Could there really be social and developmental advantages to this custom Driven by a journalist's curiosity and a new mother's desperation for answers Hopgood embarked on a journey to learn how other cultures approach the challenges all parents face bedtimes potty training feeding teaching and more Observing parents around the globe and interviewing anthropologists educators and child care experts she discovered a world of new ideas The Chinese excel at potty training teaching their wee ones as young as six months old Kenyans wear their babies in colorful cloth slings not only is it part of their cultural heritage but strollers seem outright silly on Nairobi's chaotic sidewalks And the French are experts at turning their babies into healthy adventurous eaters Hopgood tested her discoveries on her spirited toddler Sofia with some enlightening results This intimate and surprising look at the ways other cultures raise children offers parents the option of experimenting with tried and true methods from around the world and shows that there are many ways to be a good parent
