Edward Hopper 1882 1967 Vision Of Reality:

Green Leaf Ivo Kranzfelder, 1991-09-01 Hopper Ivo Kranzfelder, Edward Hopper, 2006-01-01 This volume presents a survey of the painting of American artist Edward Hopper 1882 1967 While most popularly known for his oil paintings he was equally proficient as a watercolorist and printmaker in etching In both his urban and rural scenes his spare and finely calculated renderings reflected his personal vision of modern American life depicting the loneliness of big city people in canvas after canvas Many of Hopper's pictures represent views of streets and roads rooftops abandoned houses depicted in brilliant light that strangely belies the melancholy mood of the scenes Hopper's paintings are marked by striking juxtapositions of color and by the clear contours with which the figures are demarcated from their surroundings His extremely precise focus on the theme of modern men and women in natural and man made environments sometimes lends his pictures a mood of eerie disquiet Edward Hopper Edward Hopper, Ivo Kranzfelder, 1998 Edward Hopper, 1882-1967 Ivo Kranzfelder, 1998 American Culture in the 1930s David Eldridge, 2008-10-08 This book provides an insightful overview of the major cultural forms of 1930s America literature and drama music and radio film and photography art and design and a chapter on the role of the federal government in the development of the arts The intellectual context of 1930s American culture is a strong feature whilst case studies of influential texts and practitioners of the decade from War of the Worlds to The Grapes of Wrath and from Edward Hopper to the Rockefeller Centre help to explain the cultural impulses of radicalism nationalism and escapism that characterize the United States in the 1930s Eliseo Subiela in Life and Cinema Nancy J. Membrez, 2022-03-11 Audiences never have a lukewarm opinion of a Subiela film They either love it passionately or hate it profoundly That Eliseo Subiela Buenos Aires 1944 2016 an original and sensitive thinker survived and indeed thrived in economically challenged Argentina while garnering more accolades abroad than in his own country is a tribute to his grit intelligence imagination and persistence of vision With an astounding list of prizes and honors he was a world class auteur Even when he was making a TV commercial his surreal style and poetic sensibility were unmistakable This book represents the culmination of 20 years of research and personal correspondence with Eliseo Subiela Through ten scholarly studies and five interviews it sheds light on his life esthetics obsessions struggles with madness and of course his films It addresses his earlier career in advertising lifelong artistic influences screenwriting techniques critical reactions to his films and what Subiela's example has to offer aspiring filmmakers especially those in Latin America Visual Arts and Religion Hans Alma, Marcel Barnard, Volker Küster, 2009 Images have caused uproar violence and even casualties in the meeting of religions and cultures during the last years Iconoclasm and iconolatry are on the agenda once more Late Modern Culture is dominated by images and is understood in concepts such as aestheticization and symbolisation Theological debate is likewise performed through images symbols and rituals rather than through doctrines and beliefs In this book authors from various research backgrounds seek to clarify the terms of reference and explore the diversity and disagreements in their use from a Christian perspective The Dark Interval Padraic Killeen, 2022-05-05 Invoking key concepts from the philosophical writings of Gilles Deleuze and Giorgio Agamben The Dark Interval examines a subtle but distinct iconography of passivity stillness and profound self affection that recurs across noir films of every era In doing so it identifies the emergence of a specific cinematic figure the intervallic noir protagonist exposed to the redemptive force of his or her own passion Significantly the book contextualises the iconography of film noir in relation to prior art historical visual traditions in particular earlier representations of melancholia and the saturnine locating noir against a much broader canvas than has been the norm Examining central noir films of the classic and modern era The Killers The Man Who Wasn't There as well as films at the peripheries of noir from Jacques Tourneur's Cat People to Wong Kar Wai's 2046 the book locates a series of iconographic gestures performance traditions and affective tonalities at once specific to noir and yet resonant with a deeper cultural and philosophical heritage It is a meditation that uniquely grapples with the look and the feel of noir and which dares to detect a unique quality of beatitude that runs through a certain strain of noir films In doing so it illuminates why film noir remains one of the most provocative and affecting visual milieus of our time

Yabar David Lipset, 2017-03-27 This book analyses the dual alienations of a coastal group rural men the Murik of Papua New Guinea David Lipset argues that Murik men engage in a Bakhtinian dialogue voicing their alienation from both their own indigenous masculinity as well as from the postcolonial modernity in which they find themselves adrift Lipset analyses young men's elusive expressions of desire in courtship narratives marijuana discourse and mobile phone use in which generational tensions play out together with their disaffection from the state He also borrows from Lacanian psychoanalysis in discussing how men's dialogue of dual alienation appears in folk theater in material substitutions most notably in the replacement of outrigger canoes by fiberglass boats as well as in rising sea levels and the looming possibility of resettlement
