Caserio, 2009-04-30 The twentieth century English novel encompasses a vast body of work and one of the most important and most widely read genres of literature Balancing close readings of particular novels with a comprehensive survey of the last century of published fiction this Companion introduces readers to more than a hundred major and minor novelists It demonstrates continuities in novel writing that bridge the century's pre and post War halves and presents leading critical ideas about English fiction's themes and forms The essays examine the endurance of modernist style throughout the century the role of nationality and the contested role of the English language in all its forms and the relationships between realism and other fictional modes fantasy romance science fiction Students scholars and readers will find this Companion an indispensable guide to the history of the English novel The Persistence of Realism in Modernist Fiction Paul Stasi, 2022-10-06 Form vs content aesthetics vs politics modernism vs realism these entrenched binaries tend to structure work in early 20th century literary studies even among scholars who seek to undo them The Persistence of Realism demonstrates how realism's defining concerns sympathy class social determination animate the work of Henry James James Joyce Virginia Woolf Samuel Beckett and Ralph Ellison In contrast to the oft told tale of an aesthetically rich modernism overthrowing realism's social commitments along with its formal structures Stasi shows how these writers engaged with realism in concrete ways The domestic novel naturalist fiction novels of sentiment and industrial tales are realist structures that modernist fiction simultaneously preserves and subverts Putting modernist writers in conversation with the realism that preceded them The Persistence of Realism demonstrates how modernism's social concerns are inseparable from its formal ones

Masculinities in British Adventure Fiction, 1880-1915 Joseph A. Kestner, 2016-05-06 Making use of recent masculinity theories Joseph A Kestner sheds new light on Victorian and Edwardian adventure fiction Beginning with works published in the 1880s when writers like H Rider Haggard took inspiration from the First Boer War and the Zulu War Kestner engages tales involving initiation and rites of passage experiences with the non Western Other colonial contexts and sexual encounters Canonical authors such as R L Stevenson Rudyard Kipling Joseph Conrad and Olive Schreiner are examined alongside popular writers like A E W Mason W H Hudson and John Buchan providing an expansive picture of the crisis of masculinity that pervades adventure texts during the period

Dynamic Psychology in Modernist British Fiction G. Johnson, 2005-10-06 Dynamic Psychology in Modernist British Fiction argues that literary critics have tended to distort the impact of pre Freudian psychological discourses including psychical research on Modern British Fiction Psychoanalysis has received undue attention over a more typical British eclecticism embraced by now forgotten figures including Frederic Myers and William McDougall This project focuses on the Edwardian novelists most fully engaged by dynamic psychology May Sinclair and J D Beresford but also reconsiders Arnold Bennett and D H Lawrence The book concludes by demonstrating Woolf's subtle assimilation of pre Freudian discourse

Late-Victorian Heroic Lives in the Writings of Frank Mundell Moniez Baptiste, 2017-08-21 This study explores the work of Frank Mundell a late Victorian author for the Sunday School Union Mundell focused on heroism and represented various kinds of heroic deeds and figures regardless of gender in his books Writing for educative as well as entertaining purposes he avoided the use of didacticism and he endeavoured to combine the traditional and the modern in the stories he chose to tell Mundell's favourite format was that of the prosopography putting together several heroic lives or incidents He was careful to dedicate each of his volumes to one topic in particular thus distinguishing the different types of heroic deeds from one another His writings belong to four series or collections each highlighting a specific version of heroism from instances of the mundane performed in a familial context to extraordinary deeds He wrote about such bold acts as those featuring in the stories of brave firemen fighting devouring flames fearless sailors in tempestuous seas determined miners risking their lives to save their comrades or intrepid explorers facing perils in the wide world This book analyses each of his publications highlighting the elements belonging to his representation of heroism as a whole

American Fiction Between the Wars Harold Bloom, 2009 America in the 1920s and 30s saw the emergence of some of the best known writers of the modern generation John Steinbeck Ernest Hemingway and William Faulkner

and the Nineteenth Century Domestic Novel Emily Blair explores how nineteenth century descriptions of femininity saturate both Woolf's fiction and her modernist manifestos Moving between the Victorian and modernist periods Blair looks at a range of nineteenth and early twentieth century sources including the literature of conduct and household management as well as autobiography essay poetry and fiction She argues for a reevaluation of Woolf's persistent yet vexed fascination with English domesticity and female creativity by juxtaposing the novels of Elizabeth Gaskell and Margaret Oliphant two popular Victorian novelists against Woolf's own novels and essays Blair then traces unacknowledged lines of influence and complex interpretations that Woolf attempted to disavow While reconsidering Woolf's analysis of women and fiction Blair simultaneously deepens our appreciation of Woolf's work and advances our understanding of feminine aesthetics The

Routledge Research Companion to Ford Madox Ford Sara Haslam, Laura Colombino, Seamus O'Malley, 2018-12-07 Taking account of Ford Madox Ford's entire literary output this companion brings together prominent Ford specialists to offer an overview of existing Ford scholarship and to suggest new directions in Ford studies The Routledge Research Companion to Ford Madox Ford is split into five parts exploring the scholarly foundations of Ford Madox Ford studies Ford's literary identity Ford and place specific case studies and themes and critical approaches Within these five parts the contributors cover areas relevant to Ford's fiction nonfiction and poetry including reception history life writing literary histories gender and comedy The Routledge Research Companion to Ford Madox Ford is an invaluable resource for students and scholars in Ford Studies in modernism and in the literary world that Ford helped shape in the early years of the twentieth century Looking at Shakespeare Dennis Kennedy, 2001-12-20 Most studies of the performance of Shakespeare's work concentrate on how the text has been played and what meanings have been conveyed through acting and interpretive directing Dennis Kennedy demonstrates that much of audience response is determined by the visual representation which is normally more immediate and direct than the aural conveyance of a text Ranging widely over productions in Britain Europe Japan and North America Kennedy gives a thorough account of the main scenographic movements of the century investigating how the visual relates to Shakespeare on the stage The second edition of this acclaimed history includes a new chapter on Shakespeare performance in the 1990s bringing the story up to date by drawing on examples from a wide international field There are more than twenty new illustrations some of them in colour bringing the total number of illustrations to almost 200 and previous references have been updated Gothic Topographies Matti Savolainen, 2016-04-22 In demonstrating the global reach of Gothic literatures this collection takes up the influence of the Gothic mode in literatures that may be geographically remote from one another but still share related issues of minor languages nation building place and race Suggesting that there is a parallel between certain motifs and themes found in the Gothic of the North Scandinavia Northern Europe and Canada and South Australia South Africa and the US South the essays explore the transgressions and confusion of borders and limits whether they be linguistic literary generic class based gendered or sexual The volume includes essays on a wide diversity of authors and topics Jan Potocki Gustav Meyrink William Godwin Alan Hollinghurst Marlene van Niekerk John Richardson antislavery discourse and the Gothic imagination the Australian aboriginal Gothic vampires of Post Soviet Gothic society Danish Swedish and Finnish fiction and film and the Canadian female Gothic and the death drive What distinguishes this book from other collections on the Gothic is the coverage of themes and literatures that are either lacking in the mainstream research on the Gothic or are referred to only briefly in other book length studies Experts in the Gothic and those new to the field will appreciate the book's commitment to situating Gothic sensibilities in an international context

The Cambridge Companion to the English Short Story Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2016-06-06 This Companion provides an accessible overview of short fiction by writers from England Scotland Ireland Wales and other international sites A collection of international experts examine the development of the short story in a variety of contexts from the early nineteenth century to the present They consider how dramatic changes in the publishing landscape during this period such as the rise of the fiction magazine and the emergence of new opportunities in online and electronic publishing influenced the form covering subgenres from detective fiction to flash fiction Drawing on a wealth of critical scholarship to place the short story in the English literary tradition this volume will be an invaluable guide for students of the short story in English
