Subject Leadership and School Improvement Hugh Busher,Alma Harris,2000-11-17 Curriculum and subject leadership in schools has recently gained substantial attention from both researchers and policy makers The Teacher Training Agency TTA has reinforced the importance of subject leadership in school improvement proposing a new measure of such leadership competence through the creation of national subject leader standards NPQSL Subject Leadership and School Improvement reflects critically on the work of subject and curriculum leaders especially in schools in England and Wales that is those within the policy framework of The National Curriculum and the Teacher Training Agency The book debates the functions of subject leaders in primary and secondary schools using current research based conceptual frameworks and considers how they can bring about improvement and change with their colleagues in their subject areas It emphasizes what is particular about leading and managing the middle realm of education organizations showing how structural cultural and individual imperatives and perspectives interact with each other in the professional practice of being a subject leader The book is of interest not only to subject leaders and curriculum co ordinators to help them reflect rigorously on their practice but also to those responsible for supervising them such as headteachers and school governors as well as for those accountable to them It will be a useful text for serving teachers undertaking higher degrees programmes or programmes for gaining national standards qualifications the National Professional Qualification for Headteachers NPQH as much as for the NPQSL National Professional Qualification for Subject Leaders when it is implemented Leadership, Capacity Building and School Improvement Clive Dimmock, 2011-12-07 Leadership Capacity Building and School Improvement provides a fresh and original perspective on the most important issues confronting today's practitioners and academics in the field of educational leadership. New and exciting concepts are introduced such as the research engaged school of the future. While its theoretical and evidence-based approach raises to a robust level the discussion on the most important leadership challenges of the day, the book is at the same time intensely practical in addressing everyday issues faced by contemporary policy makers and school practitioners. Underpinning the eleven chapters is a conceptual framework founded on the notion of leadership as capacity building, giving the book a coherence that many others on school leadership lack. Among the themes actively discussed are Conceptualising and Contextualising Leadership: what is leadership? What distinguishes good from mediocre and poor leaders? What are the traits, dispositions and attributes that make for good leadership? How does context influence leadership? How appealing is leadership as a career? What are the components of capacity building leadership? Contemporary Leadership Themes: what is learning-centred leadership and how can it best promote good teaching and student learning? How can leaders distribute leadership across the school and what are the pitfalls? How can leaders capitalise on the notion of the school as a professional learning community? How can leaders best be nurtured and developed? Policy Leadership: Practice and Impact: what new forms of leadership are presaged by the specialist schools policy as a means of school improvement? How can schools combine a focus on academic achievement with the need to prepare students for the changing twenty-first century workplace? Leadership Capacity Building and School Improvement provides an up-to-date, authoritative, critical and insightful account of school leadership. It combines advocacy and argument with evidence-based practice drawn from the most plausible and robust sources. This book will prove a valuable tool for those taking higher degrees in school leadership and management, school leaders on NPQH courses and school practitioners as a whole interested in interfacing with the latest empirical evidence and ideas as well as academics teaching and researching in the area of educational leadership. Since the book adopts an international perspective, drawing its examples and evidence from both the Anglo-American and the Asian contexts, it will be found relevant to academics, policy makers and practitioners across these regions. Clive Dimmock is Visiting Professor at the National Institute of Education in Singapore and Professor Emeritus at the University of Leicester, UK.
