Egypt Revisited Journal Of African Civilizations:

Egypt Revisited Van Sertima Ivan, 1989 This volume represents a new departure in the examination of Egypt's place in the African context. It brings together the latest research of the 1980s on Nile Valley civilizations, what they achieved and their impact on Africa and the world. The authors take an Afrocentric in contrast to a Eurocentric perspective in their studies of the birthplace of civilization. This volume includes sections on the race and origin of the ancient Egyptians, black dynasties and rulers, Egyptian science and philosophy, and great Egyptologists. It sheds new light on neglected aspects of history. Ivan Van Sertima is professor of African studies, Rutgers University, and editor of the Journal of African Civilizations. He is the author of They Came Before Columbus: The African Presence in Ancient America, winner of the Clarence L. Holte International Prize.

The Kalenjin People's Egypt Origin Legend Revisited Kipkoech Araap Sambo, 2007

The God in Us Hlumelo Biko, 2024-06-07 This book traces the unitary source of all of the world's major religions. The book underscores the fact that there are many ways in which humanity has sought revelation of God, yet there is a common inspiration behind humanity's God concept. The author's analysis of world religions or faiths adopts a multi-interdisciplinary approach, taking the reader through historical, anthropological, archaeological, and theological viewpoints to make juxtapositions. God in us is a rich resource that helps the readers understand the origins of human civilisation and how humans began to worship God, domesticate animals like sheep, invent astrology, and create languages. Biko's research also delves deeper into unveiling African indigenous knowledge systems and science that predate the arrival of the colonisers on the African soil. Print edition not for sale in Sub-Saharan Africa.

L'ancien et le Nouveau Paulin Hountondji, 2024-11-29 Comment s'articulent en Afrique dans le domaine du savoir et du savoir faire l'ancien et le nouveau? Que savions nous hier et que savons nous aujourd'hui? Quelle était hier, quelle est aujourd'hui la part du mythe dans ce que nous croyons savoir? Et comment finir dans chaque cas le noyau dur des connaissances solides et universellement valables? Quels droits et quels devoirs nous reconnaissons nous en tant qu'être humains, en tant que femmes, en tant qu'enfants, en tant que peuples ou nations, et quelle conscience avons nous aujourd'hui de ces droits et devoirs? Quel est l'impact de ce qu'on appelle aujourd'hui la mondialisation sur l'évolution du savoir, du savoir faire et de cette conscience des droits et devoirs? À ces questions et à d'autres qui y sont liées, le présent ouvrage apporte quelques éléments de réponse. C'est le résultat d'un colloque tenu à Cotonou en octobre 2006 sur le thème: Savoirs traditionnels et science moderne. Il est dédié à la mémoire de Georg Elwert, africaniste allemand disparu en 2005, dont les travaux sur le Bénin, l'Afrique et le Tiers Monde restent une source d'inspiration pour beaucoup.

How are the old and the new expressed in the field of knowledge and know-how? What did we know yesterday and what do we know today? What was yesterday and what is today the mythical part in what we believe we know? And how do we define in each case the core of concrete and universally valid knowledges? What rights and duties do we acclaim as human beings, as women, as children, as peoples or nations, and what understanding do we today have of these rights and duties? What is the impact of what we today

call globalisation on the evolution of knowledge know how and the awareness of such rights and duties To these questions and to other related ones this book provides some answers It is the result of a conference held in Cotonou in October 2006 on the theme Traditional knowledges and modern science It is dedicated to the memory of Georg Elwert a German Africanist who passed away in 2005 and whose work on Benin Africa and the Third World remains a source of inspiration for many

The Misiri Legend Explored araap Sambu, Kipkoech,2015-03-16 How can a black people who do not even profess to Islam claim to have originated from Egypt which is such an Arabic and Islamic geographical setting But the Kalenjiin people of Kenya have held on fast to a tradition that their ancestors in antiquity were part of ancient Pharaonic Egypt which they variously call Tto and Misiri As unlikely as it may sound the persistence in keeping this oral tradition alive does not seem to be dying with time and distance from the claimed place of origin The Misiri Legend Explored A Linguistic Inquiry into the Kalenjiin People s Oral Tradition of Ancient Egyptian Origin establishes the Kalenjin oral tradition of Misirian origin on the basis of linguistic evidence a genuine tool which Egyptology scholars and researchers need to have relied on much more to bring greater and more final results to their investigations Students of ancient Egypt willing to accept that there is an irrational prejudice against the concept of ancient black African ingenuity will upgrade their stock of knowledge regarding ancient Egypt with the numerous discoveries laid out here They will discover a powerful new tool for their trade in the form of the African languages and cultures that now lie South of the Sahara

Vodou in the Haitian Experience Celucien L. Joseph,Nixon S. Cleophas,2016-05-05 One glaring lacuna in studies of Haitian Vodou is the scarcity of works exploring the connection between the religion and its main roots traditional Yoruba religion Discussions of Vodou very often seem to present the religion in vacuo as a sui generis phenomenon that arose in Saint Domingue and evolved in Haiti with no antecedents What is sorely needed then is more comparative studies of Haitian Vodou that would examine its connections to traditional Yoruba religion and thus illuminate certain aspects of its mythology belief system practices and rituals This book seeks to bridge these gaps Vodou in the Haitian Experience studies comparatively the connections and relationships between Vodou and African traditional religions such as Yoruba religion and Egyptian religion Such studies might enhance our understanding of the religion and the connections between Africa and its Diaspora through shared religious patterns and practices The general reader should be mindful of the transnational and transcultural perspectives of Vodou as well as the cultural socio economic and political context which gave birth to different visions and ideas of Vodou The chapters in this collection tell a story about the dynamics of the Vodou faith and the rich ways Vodou has molded the Haitian narrative and psyche The contributors of this book examine this constructed narrative from a multicultural voice that engages critically the discipline of ethnomusicology drama performance art anthropology ethnography economics literature intellectual history philosophy psychology sociology religion and theology Vodou is also studied from multiple theoretical approaches including queer feminist theory critical race theory Marxism postcolonial criticism postmodernism and psychoanalysis
