Mistress of the House, Mistress of Heaven Anne K. Capel, Glenn Markoe, 1996 The first of its kind exhibit cataloged here focuses on the women of Egypt from all levels of society in works compiled strictly from American collections by American curators Because the quantity of written records is limited though enormous in comparison to most early societies there is still much guesswork involved in determining the place women held in Egyptian society It is clear that unlike most ancient and not so ancient societies Egypt conferred on women the legal right to own property and to barter their own goods which means a larger record for current study The essays here are both erudite and fascinating to read the illustrations are clear and well presented in conjunction with the text 117 colour 112 b w illustrations the valley of the golden mummies zahi hawass, 2000 The astonishing discovery of the Valley of the Golden Mummies in Bahariya Oasis deep in the Western Desert of Egypt is considered perhaps the most spectacular Egyptian archeological discovery since that of Tutankhamun's tomb This vast site was uncovered by accident when a donkey stumbled into the opening of one of the many underground tombs of a 2 000 year old cemetery believed to cover approximately two square miles Never before have so many mummies been discovered at a single site multi chambered tombs dating from the Roman period in Egypt held rows of mummies many adorned with gilded masks and painted cases others wrapped in linen Whole families were found placed together Jewelry pottery amulets and other artifacts were also uncovered and it is estimated that as many as 10 000 mummies may ultimately be uncovered from the site which has escaped plunderers and is thus remarkably intact Featuring some 250 color illustrations most of which have never before been published this exciting book reveals the lives customs and religious beliefs of this until now little known community As such it will both fascinate and enthrall all those with an interest in the ancient history of Egypt
