Rebecca Weld Bushnell

Garden Of Desire:

The Gardens of Desire Stephen Gilbert Brown, 2012-02-01 The Gardens of Desire is at once a model of literary interpretation and a groundbreaking psychocritical reading of a literary masterpiece Marcel Proust's la recherche du temps perdu Remembrance of Things Past Shedding new light on the origins of the creative impulse in general and on the psychological origins of the Recherche in particular the book illuminates the hidden associations between matricidal suicidal sadistic masochistic homoerotic and creative impulses as manifested in Proust's work The book moves beyond traditional Freudian readings of Proust to consider the theories of Otto Rank Jacques Derrida and others and provides provocative readings of the privileged moments that comprise many of the work's critical cruxes as well as a thought provoking rereading of the novel's ending Both elegant and accessible this book boldly explores the violence of desire as it relates not only to Proust's narrator but also to Proustian criticism itself with its own violent desire to appropriate the essence of Proust's masterpiece

Green Desire Rebecca Weld Bushnell, 2018-07-05 For Rebecca Bushnell English gardening books tell a fascinating tale of the human love for plants and our will to make them do as we wish These books powerfully evoke the desires of gardeners they show us gardeners who like poets imagine not just what is but what should be In particular the earliest English garden books such as Thomas Hill's The Gardeners Labyrinth or Hugh Platt's Floraes Paradise mix magical practices with mundane recipes even when the authors insist that they rely completely on their own experience in these matters Like early modern books of secrets early gardening manuals often promise the reader power to alter the essential properties of plants to make the gillyflower double to change the lily's hue or to grow a cherry without a stone Green Desire describes the innovative design of the old manuals examining how writers and printers marketed them as fiction as well as practical advice for aspiring gardeners Along with this attention to the delights of reading it analyzes the strange dignity and pleasure of garden labor and the division of men's and women's roles in creating garden art The book ends by recounting the heated debate over how much people could do to create marvels in their own gardens For writers and readers alike these green desires inspired dreams of power and self improvement fantasies of beauty achieved without work and hopes for order in an unpredictable world not so different from the dreams of gardeners today

Watching Women Sarah Kornfield, 2025-04-21 The women on television series are spectacularly feminine They are the most beautiful doctors lawyers detectives scientists queens fashion writers moms Victorian ladies and witches ever seen Focusing on series that celebrate empowered women from mainstay crime dramas such as Bones 2005 2017 and The Rookie 2022 2023 to teen dramas with series such as Sex Education 2019 2023 and Charmed 2018 2022 to romance series such as Bridgerton 2020 this book analyzes the onscreen portrayals of femme femininity and feminism Specifically this book maps the televisual trends that objectify femininity and those that visualize femininity as subject working to demonstrate how televisual style constructs femininity through its onscreen portrayals      The Sacrament of Desire Alex D. Suderman,2022-09-26 This book explores the political theological implications of sacramental desire in Fyodor Dostoevsky's The Brothers Karamazov with Friedrich Nietzsche's Thus Spoke Zarathustra in critical dialogue with Henri de Lubac. Suderman demonstrates how the work of de Lubac, Dostoevsky and Nietzsche address a transcendent desire for a higher social and political unity in late modern Western cultures and the imperialistic and coercive tendencies latent within it concretely expressed in the Western church and the modern state. Specifically this book investigates how Dostoevsky and Nietzsche envision new forms of political embodiment that are neither escapist nor imperialist. Through a detailed examination of Zarathustra's dramatic discovery of the eternal return and Alyosha's mystical experience of the resurrection, Suderman demonstrates the metaphysical significance of their respective political ethics. While the intent of de Lubac is to recover the social implications of the sacraments of Roman Catholicism, Nietzsche and Dostoevsky espouse alternative articulations of community and the sacramental desire necessary for such embodiment: a desire rooted in their respective perceptions of God.      Dare to Be Great! Terry Cole-Whittaker,2003-08-25 The author of the number one New York Times bestseller How to Have More in a Miserable World gives us her most passionate and personal book yet. In her trademark witty straight talking style, Terry Cole-Whittaker reveals a seven step program that teaches readers to become the successful happy people God has designed them to be.      Garden of Desire Laura Martin,1993-01-01      Space and Place in Jewish Studies Barbara E. Mann,2012-02-10 Scholars in the humanities have become increasingly interested in questions of how space is produced and perceived and they have found that this consideration of human geography greatly enriches our understanding of cultural history. This spatial turn equally has the potential to revolutionize Jewish Studies, complicating familiar notions of Jews as people of the Book, displaced persons with only a common religious tradition and history to unite them. Space and Place in Jewish Studies embraces these exciting critical developments by investigating what space has meant within Jewish culture and tradition and how notions of Jewish space, diaspora and home continue to resonate within contemporary discourse, bringing space to the foreground as a practical and analytical category. Barbara Mann takes us on a journey from medieval Levantine trade routes to the Eastern European shtetl to the streets of contemporary New York, introducing readers to the variety of ways in which Jews have historically formed communities and created a sense of place for themselves. Combining cutting edge theory with rabbinics, anthropology and literary analysis, Mann offers a fresh take on the Jewish experience.      The Garden ,1906      The Garden Magazine ,1909      Documents of the Assembly of the State of New York New York (State). Taumua,2023-10-05 Greetings The THE MAGNIFICENCE OF THE 3 title was extracted from a quote attributed to the legendary NIKOLA TESLA stating that If you only knew the magnificence of the 3 6 and 9 then you would have the key to the universe The magnificence of the three as I claim was a reference to the atom s three particles Yes I found the ATOM in the Torah If you know then you know the implications As I followed its tracts to the New Testament God revealed to me the identities of the Tree of Knowledge Tree of Life Garden of Eden and the Ark of the Testimony along the way Scientists define their design and purposes without understanding and inadvertently reveal God s hidden treasures Come review the record for yourself and for your elders before they move on You will never fully know God until you know what this Garden is and its Trees God s design is a thing of beauty and it cannot be accessed with faith So enjoy and meet God the Scientist Creator of Heaven and Earth
