acclaimed neorealist films of the period 1946-55. As this anthology reveals, however, his production was remarkably multifaceted. The essays included here, some newly commissioned, some reprinted, and others in translation, look at De Sica's varied career from many perspectives. Structured chronologically, the volume begins by introducing readers to De Sica's early popularity as an actor and singer during the years of Italian Fascism and to his initial directorial efforts before the end of World War II. It was not until the postwar era, however, that De Sica made his mark in film history. Special attention is given to this critical phase of his career, which encompasses the neorealist films that made him famous: Shoeshine, Bicycle Thieves, Miracle in Milan, and Umberto D. When the neorealist movement waned after 1955, De Sica returned to his roots in Neapolitan comedy for a series of commercially successful films starring Sophia Loren and Marcello Mastroianni. Memorable works from this period include Two Women and Marriage Italian Style, as well as Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow, which won De Sica an Academy Award in 1965. In one of his final films, The Garden of the Finzi-Continis, he returned to the subject of World War II and to the human tragedy characteristic of his best neorealist productions. This fine anthology offers a comprehensive critical survey that covers the entire scope of De Sica's career and is an excellent resource for students, critics, and film enthusiasts.

Narrative and Imperative Risa B. Sodi, 2007. Narrative Imperative is the first book in English on Italian Holocaust writing as a whole. Risa Sodi explores the work of eight representative authors, including the internationally famous Primo Levi, Giorgio Bassani, and Elsa Morante, and the lesser-known Giacomo Debenedetti, Paolo Maurensig, Liana Millu, Bruno Piazza, and Giuliana Tedeschi. She examines issues of genre, language, gender, and facticity while situating the works studied within the fields of European and Holocaust letters. A brief history of the Italian Jews, the oldest Jewish community in Europe, opens the book, and the conclusion brings the study up to recent times. Holocaust Cinema Complete Rich Brownstein, 2021-09-17. Holocaust movies have become an important segment of world cinema, and the de facto Holocaust education for many. One quarter of all American-produced Holocaust-related feature films have won or been nominated for at least one Oscar. In fact, from 1945 through 1991, half of all American Holocaust features were nominated. Yet most Holocaust movies have fallen through the cracks, and few have been commercially successful. This book explores these trends and many others with a comprehensive guide to hundreds of films and made-for-television movies. From Anne Frank to Schindler's List to Jojo Rabbit, more than 400 films are examined from a range of perspectives: historical, chronological, thematic, sociological, geographical, and individual. The filmmakers are contextualized, including Charlie Chaplin, Sidney Lumet, Steven Spielberg, Quentin Tarantino, and Roman Polanski. Recommendations and reviews of the 50 best Holocaust films are included, along with an educational guide, a detailed listing of all films covered, and a four-part index/glossary. Death and Garden Narratives in Literature, Art, and Film Feryal Cubukcu, Sabine Planka, 2020-07-30. Death and Garden Narratives in Literature, Art, and Film. Song of Death in Paradise explores the combination of two motifs, death and gardens, to show how the two subjects are intertwined and used in various media and cultural contexts. Using cultural, literary, film, and art history theories, the contributors analyze various death and garden sceneries in literary works by Arthur Machen Agatha Christie J K Rowling as well as in superhero comics films and cultural and art contexts such as Ian Hamilton Finley s Little Sparta the poetic verses from the Karoo Desert National Botanical Garden in South Africa and the Australian wilderness The Garden of the Finzi-Continis. Translated ... by Isabel Quigly Giorgio Bassani, Isabel QUIGLY, 1965 Projecting the Holocaust into the Present Lawrence Baron, 2005-11-01 Most Holocaust scholars and survivors contend that the event was so catastrophic and unprecedented that it defies authentic representation in feature films Yet it is precisely the extremity of the Final Solution and the issues it raised that have fueled the cinematic imagination since the end of World War II Recognizing that movies reach a greater audience than eyewitness historical or literary accounts Lawrence Baron argues that they mirror changing public perceptions of the Holocaust over time and place After tracing the evolution of the most commonly employed genres and themes in earlier Holocaust motion pictures he focuses on how films from the 1990s made the Holocaust relevant for contemporary audiences While genres like biographical films and love stories about doomed Jewish Gentile couples remained popular they now cast Jews or non Jewish victims like homosexuals in lead roles more often than was the case in the past Baron attributes the recent proliferation of Holocaust comedies and children s movies to the search for more figurative and age appropriate genres for conveying the significance of the Holocaust to generations born after it happened He contends that thematic shifts to stories about neo Nazis rescuers survivors and their children constitute an expression of the continuing impact the Holocaust exerts on the present The book concludes with a survey of recent films like Nowhere in Africa and The Pianist
