Water Your Garden and Watch Your Mind Bloom Lissa Larsen,2025-05-02

In the quiet soil of your soul something wild and wonderful is waking up This is not just a book of poems It s a gentle dirt under your fingernails kind of journey a cozy walk through the tangled blooming garden of self discovery Rooted in the rhythms of the natural world these verses trace the tender arc of healing from the first brave sprout of hope to the unruly radiant riot of full blown self love With each page you ll wander through wild meadows and mossy woods dig deep into soft earth and eavesdrop on the wisdom of trees seeds and shy flowers Nature knows how to break and bloom over and over again and so do you These poems are for anyone who s ever felt a little lost a little cracked a little like a forgotten houseplant They re for the ones who are learning slowly bravely how to tend to their own hearts I wrote them for myself my inner sapling but somewhere along the way I started thinking maybe this could help someone else too So come on in Kick off your shoes Let your roots stretch Welcome to the garden Your healing has been waiting for you

Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 Women Poets in the Victorian Era Fabienne Moine,2016-03-09

Examining the place of nature in Victorian women s poetry Fabienne Moine explores the work of canonical and long neglected women poets to show the myriad connections between women and nature during the period At the same time she challenges essentialist discourses that assume innate affinities between women and the natural world Rather Moine shows Victorian women poets mobilised these alliances to defend common interests and express their engagement with social issues While well known poets such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Christina Rossetti are well represented in Moine s study she pays particular attention to lesser known writers such as Mary Howitt or Eliza Cook who were popular during their lifetimes or Edith Nesbit whose verse has received scant critical attention so far She also brings to the fore the poetry of many non professional poets Looking to their immediate cultural environments for inspiration these women reconstructed the natural world in poems that raise questions about the validity and the scope of representations of nature ultimately questioning or undermining social practices that mould and often fossilise cultural identities
