imperial politics The study proposes that ehrengiz was a subtext for secret rituals performed in city spaces carrying dissident ideals of Melami mysticism following after the ideals of the thirteenth century Sufi philosopher Ibn al Arabi who proposed a theory of creative imagination and a three tiered definition of space the ideal the real and the intermediary barzakh In these rituals marginal groups of guilds emphasized the autonomy of individual self and suggested a novel proposition that the city shall become an intermediary space for reconciling the orthodox and heterodox worlds In the early eighteenth century liminal expressions of these marginal groups gave rise to new urban rituals this time adopted by the Ottoman court society and by affluent city dwellers and expressed in the poetry of Ned m The author traces how a tradition that had its roots in the early sixteenth century as a marginal protest movement evolved until the early eighteenth century as a movement of urban space reform
