Women Poets in the Victorian Era Fabienne Moine,2016-03-09 Examining the place of nature in Victorian women s poetry Fabienne Moine explores the work of canonical and long neglected women poets to show the myriad connections between women and nature during the period At the same time she challenges essentialist discourses that assume innate affinities between women and the natural world Rather Moine shows Victorian women poets mobilised these alliances to defend common interests and express their engagement with social issues While well known poets such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Christina Rossetti are well represented in Moine s study she pays particular attention to lesser known writers such as Mary Howitt or Eliza Cook who were popular during their lifetimes or Edith Nesbit whose verse has received scant critical attention so far She also brings to the fore the poetry of many non professional poets Looking to their immediate cultural environments for inspiration these women reconstructed the natural world in poems that raise questions about the validity and the scope of representations of nature ultimately questioning or undermining social practices that mould and often fossilise cultural identities

Material Cultures in Canada Thomas Allen,Jennifer Blair,2015-06-18 Material Cultures in Canada presents the vibrant and diverse field of material culture studies in Canadian literary artistic and political contexts today The first of its kind this collection features sixteen essays by leading scholars in Canada each of whom examines a different object of study including the beaver geraniums comics water a musical playlist and the human body The book s three sections focus in turn on objects that are persistently material on things whose materiality blends into the immaterial and on the materials of spaces Contributors highlight some of the most exciting new developments in the field such as the emergence of new materialism affect theory globalization studies and environmental criticism Although the book has a Canadian centre the majority of its contributors consider objects that cross borders or otherwise resist national affiliation This collection will be valuable to readers within and outside of Canada who are interested in material culture studies and in addition will appeal to anyone interested in the central debates taking place in Canadian political and cultural life today such as climate change citizenship shifts in urban and small town life and the persistence of imperialism Cultivating Community Jodey Nurse,2022-02-22 For close to two hundred years families and individuals across Ontario have travelled down country roads and gathered to enjoy seasonal agricultural fairs Though some features of township and county fairs have endured for generations these community events have also undergone significant transformations since 1850 especially in terms of women s participation Cultivating Community tells the story of how women s involvement became critical to agricultural fairs growth and prosperity By examining women s diverse roles as agricultural society members fair exhibitors performers volunteers and fairgoers Jodey Nurse shows that women used fairs manifold nature to present different versions of rural womanhood Although traditional domestic skills and handicrafts such as baking needlework and flower arrangement remained the domain of women throughout this period women steadily enlarged their sphere of influence on the fairgrounds By the mid twentieth century they had staked out a place in venues previously closed to them including the livestock show ring the athletic field and the boardroom Through a wealth of fascinating stories and colourful detail Cultivating Communities adds a new dimension to the social and cultural history of rural women placing their activities at the centre of the agricultural fair Karl Langer ,2021-12-30 Despite a European training and an early career working with Peter Behrens a migration from Vienna to the Australian state of Queensland positioned the architect Karl Langer 1903 1969 at the very edge of both European and Australian modernism Confronted by tropical heat and glare the economics of affordable housing fiercely proud and regional architectural practices and a suspicion of the foreign Langer moulded the European language of international modernism to the unique climatic and social conditions of tropical Australia This book will tell Langer s story through a series of edited essays focused on key themes and projects Published as part of the Bloomsbury Studies in Modern Architecture series which brings to light the work of significant yet overlooked modernist architects it is both an examination of an architect s work and international legacy and also a case study in the trans global dissemination of design ideas Studying the architect s built and proposed work both regional and metropolitan the scale and reach of Langer s practice will be considered for the first time showing how given his continued influence on the contemporary culture of tropical design Langer has been unjustly ignored by the historiography of both Australian and Modernist architecture to date Catalogue of (printed) music. Music. Accessions. pt.[1]-94 British museum dept. of pr. books,1884 The Aesthetics of Imperfection in Music and the Arts Andy Hamilton,Lara Pearson,2020-10-01 The aesthetics of imperfection emphasises spontaneity disruption process and energy over formal perfection and is often ignored by many commentators or seen only in improvisation This comprehensive collection is the first time imperfection has been explored across all kinds of musical performance whether improvisation or interpretation of compositions Covering music visual art dance comedy architecture and design it addresses the meaning experience and value of improvisation and spontaneous creation across different artistic media A distinctive feature of the volume is that it brings together contributions from theoreticians and practitioners presenting a wider range of perspectives on the issues involved Contributors look at performance and practice across Western and non Western musical artistic and craft forms Composers and non performing artists offer a perspective on what is imperfect or improvisatory within their work contributing further dimensions to the discourse The Aesthetics of Imperfection in Music and the Arts features 39 chapters organised into eight sections and written by a diverse group of scholars and performers They consider divergent definitions of aesthetics employing both 18th century philosophy and more recent socially and historically situated conceptions making this an essential up to date resource for anyone working on either side of the perfection imperfection debate

The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie, The Girls of Slender Means, The Driver's Seat, The Only Problem Muriel Spark,2004-04-06 The brevity of Muriel Spark s novels is equaled only by their brilliance These four novels each a miniature masterpiece illustrate her development over four decades Despite the seriousness of their themes all four are fantastic comedies of manners bristling with wit Spark s most celebrated novel The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie tells the story of a charismatic schoolteacher s catastrophic effect on her pupils The Girls of Slender Means is a beautifully drawn portrait of young women living in a hostel in London in the giddy postwar days of 1945 The Driver s Seat follows the final haunted hours of a woman descending into madness And The Only Problem is a witty fable about suffering that brings the Book of Job to bear on contemporary terrorism All four novels give evidence of one of the most original and unmistakable voices in contemporary fiction Characters are vividly etched in a few words earth shaking events are lightly touched on Yet underneath the glittering surface there is an obsessive probing of metaphysical questions the meaning of good and evil the need for salvation the search for significance nice people in England were poor allowing for exceptions begins The Girls of Slender Means Dame Muriel Spark's tragic and rapier-witted portrait of a London ladies' hostel just emerging from the shadow of World War II. Like the May of Teck Club itself three times window-shattered since 1940 but never directly hit its lady-inhabitants do their best to act as if the world were back to normal practicing elocution and jostling over suitors and a single Schiaparelli gown. The novel's harrowing ending reveals that the girls' giddy literary and amorous peregrinations are hiding some tragically painful war wounds. Chosen by Anthony Burgess as one of the Best Modern Novels in the Sunday Times of London The Girls of Slender Means is a taut and eerily perfect novel by an author The New York Times has called one of this century's finest creators of comic-metaphysical entertainment.
