Garden Of Roman Verse:

Gardens of the Roman Empire Wilhelmina F. Jashemski, Kathryn L. Gleason, Kim J. Hartswick, Amina-Aïcha Malek, 2017-12-28 In Gardens of the Roman Empire the pioneering archaeologist Wilhelmina F Jashemski sets out to examine the role of ancient Roman gardens in daily life throughout the empire This study therefore includes for the first time archaeological literary and artistic evidence about ancient Roman gardens across the entire Roman Empire from Britain to Arabia Through well illustrated essays by leading scholars in the field various types of gardens are examined from how Romans actually created their gardens to the experience of gardens as revealed in literature and art Demonstrating the central role and value of gardens in Roman civilization Jashemski and a distinguished international team of contributors have created a landmark reference work that will serve as the foundation for future scholarship on this topic An accompanying digital catalogue will be made available at www gardensoftheromanempire org Ancient Roman Literary Gardens K. Sara Myers, 2024 Beginning with Cicero and Varro and ending with Statius and Pliny the Younger this chapter offers a chronological investigation of the ways in which real and literary gardens developed from the first century BCE to the first century CE as a means of elite masculine self representation and the reactions of elite Roman men to the increased social and cultural power of villa and horti estates and their grounds Gardens served as powerful symbols of wealth and as creative displays of the cultural aspirations of their owners in ways that challenged traditional definitions of gardens and of Roman manliness Since these large scale gardens are primarily associated with leisure otium authors are concerned with describing and justifying their activities in these sites as befitting Roman masculine ideals We can trace a change in attitude towards leisure and the private display of wealth and consequently gardens largely attributed to changes in the socio political circumstances of the Roman elite in the works of Statius and his contemporary Pliny the Younger who use laudatory descriptions of extensive villas and grounds as a means of expressing social and literary power Virgil's Garden Frederick Jones, 2013-10-16 Virgil's book of bucolic verse the Ecloques defines a green space separate from the outside worlds both of other Roman verse and of the real world of his audience However the boundaries between inside and outside are deliberately porous The bucolic natives are aware of the presence of Rome and Virgil himself is free to enter their world Virgil's bucolic space is in many ways a poetic replication of the public and private gardens of his Roman audience enclosed green spaces which afforded the citizen sheltered social and cultural activities temporary respite from the turbulence of public life and a tamed landscape in which to play out the tensions between the simple ideal and the complexities of reality This book examines the Eclogues in terms of the relationship between its contents and its cultural context making connections between the Eclogues and the representational modes of Roman art Roman concepts of space and landscape and Roman gardens Medieval Love Poetry John Cherry, 2005 This selection of extracts and inscriptions from medieval poems and songs romances and chansons rings and brooches is illustrated with images drawn from a wide range of beautiful objects and illuminated manuscripts in the rich collections of the British Museum and the British Library Roman Poetry Edward Classical Love Poetry Dr. Jonathan Williams, Clive Cheesman, 2004 This lovely book pairs selections Ernest Sikes, 1923 of translated Greek and Roman verse from Homer Sappho Virgil Horace and Ovid among others with fine examples of paintings sculpture vases and decorative objects The excerpts which cover the period from the eighth century B C to the early Middle Ages were chosen from famous works such as Homer's Iliad as well as less well known pieces such as the writings of the Greek poet Ibycus This book demonstrates that the human preoccupation with love in all its forms has inspired writers for millennia from the expression of enduring faithfulness and familial affection in Homer's description of Hector and Andromache to the passionate intensity portrayed by the later Greek lyric poets and the light hearted depiction of love as a lost little boy by the anonymous authors of the Inacreontea The book includes a brief introduction to Greek and Roman views on love and marriage a short biographical note on each of the major poets and a glossary of mythical and geographical names The four gardens, a solemn imagery [in verse, by H. Dartnall]. Henry Dartnall, 1870 Rome and the Literature of Gardens Victoria Emma Pagán, 2013-10-10 Rome and the Literature of Gardens explores the garden as a powerful locus of transformation and transgression in the De Re Rustica of Columella the Satires of Horace the Annals of Tacitus and the Confessions of Saint Augustine In keeping with the approach of this series a concluding chapter examines the reincarnation of these expressions in the contemporary plays Arcadia and The Invention of Love by Tom Stoppard Many books on gardens in ancient Rome concentrate on either technical agricultural manuals or pastoral poetry or the physical remains of Roman gardens Instead this book considers images of gardens from a kaleidoscope of genres especially those that the Romans made their own satire annalistic history and autobiography This atypical approach makes a unique contribution to the field of Latin literature and garden history bridging the gap between material culture and cultural history The Flower Garden. With an Essay on the Poetry of Gardening. Reprinted from the 'Quarterly Review.". Flower Garden, Flower garden, 1852 The Poem and the Garden in Early Modern England Deborah Solomon, 2022-12-30 This book draws attention to the pervasive artistic rivalry between Elizabethan poetry and gardens in order to illustrate the benefits of a trans media approach to the literary culture of the period In its blending of textual studies with discussions of specific historical patches of earth The Poem and the Garden demonstrates how the fashions that drove poetic invention were as likely to be influenced by a popular print convention or a particular garden experience as they were by the formal genres of the classical poets By moving beyond a strictly verbal approach in its analysis of creative imitation this volume offers new ways of appreciating the kinds of comparative and competitive methods that shaped early modern poetics Noting shared patterns both conceptual and material in these two areas not only helps explain the persistence of botanical metaphors in sixteenth century books of poetry but also offers a new perspective on the types of contrastive illusions that distinguish the Elizabethan aesthetic With its interdisciplinary approach The Poem and the Garden is of interest to all students and scholars who study early modern poetics book history and garden studies The Flower-Garden; with an Essay on the Poetry of Gardening. Reprinted from the "Quarterly Review.", 1852 Poetry, Space, Landscape Chris Fitter, 1995-04-20 Social and historical theory of the conceptualisation of space from ancient times to the Renaissance Poetry in the Song of Songs Patrick Hunt, 2008 This ground breaking study explores the structure and literary figures in the biblical Hebrew poetry of the Song of Songs These figures include simile metaphor paronomasia parallelism sensory cluster fertility language flowers spices and plants as well as animals and images of wealth and many other literary devices delineated but not limited to how they also appear in classical literature as defined by Aristotle Quintilian and others This biblical poetry is also compared to the Greek poetry of Sappho and Egyptian love poetry as well as to the Ramayana and the Kamasutra The Song of Songs is discreetly vet firmly interpreted as erotic literature Key Figures in Medieval Europe Richard K. Emmerson, 2013-10-18 From emperors and gueens to artists and world travelers from popes and scholars to saints and heretics Key Figures in Medieval Europe brings together in one volume the most important people who lived in medieval Europe between 500 and 1500 Gathered from the biographical entries from the on going series the Routledge Encyclopedias of the Middle Ages these A Z biographical entries discuss the lives of over 575 individuals who have had a historical impact in such areas as politics religion or the arts Individuals from places such as medieval England France Germany Iberia Italy and Scandinavia are included as well as those from the Jewish and Islamic worlds A thematic outline is included that lists people not only by categories but also by regions For a full list of entries contributors and more visit the Routledge Encyclopedias of the Middle Gardens and the Passion for the Infinite Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2013-06-29 What essentially is a Ages website garden Is it a small plot of land that we put aside to cultivate our favourite vegetables or to grow flowers for our personal enjoyment Or is it a symbol a mirror a reflection of our human passions Within the context of phenomenology ontopoiesis of life we find the significance of the garden inscribed within the web of the Human Condition creatively unfurling its form from the vital basis to its loftiest swings of the period The aesthetic synthesis of our passions is carried by the logoic promise of life its infinite renewal and infinite response The topic of the present volume is the mysterious ways in which Imaginatio Creatix plays within the human ingrowness in natural life transposing dreams nostalgias and enchantments Spiritual and Material Boundaries in Old French Verse Jacob Abell, 2023-09-05 The Earthly Paradise was a vibrant symbol at the heart of medieval Christian geographies of the cosmos As humanity s primal home now lost through the sins of Adam of Eve the Earthly Paradise figured prominently in Old French tales of lands beyond the mundane world This study proposes a fresh look at the complex roles played by the Earthly Paradise in three medieval French poems Marie de France's The Purgatory of St Patrick Benedeit s Voyage of Saint Brendan the Abbot and Guillaume de Lorris s The Romance of the Rose By examining the literary cultural and artistic components that informed each poem this book advances the thesis that the exterior walls of the Earthly Paradise served evolving purposes as contemplative objects that implicitly engaged complex notions of economic solidarity and idealized community These visions of the Earthly Paradise stand to provide a striking contribution to a historically informed response to the contemporary legacies of colonialism and the international refugee crisis Medieval Gardens Elisabeth B. MacDougall,1986 Studies in Medieval Jewish Poetry Alessandro Guetta, Masha Itzhaki,2009 Analysing well known Hebrew medieval poets from a new refreshing standpoint and focusing on less known authors and periods this book shows the maturity of the research in this field Written in English and French the articles make the Hebrew texts more easily available to scholars of comparative literature Anthology of Magazine Verse for 1913-29 and Yearbook of American Poetry William Stanley Braithwaite, 1920 Metamorphosis Alison Keith, Stephen James Rupp, 2007
