War and Society in Afghanistan Kaushik Roy,2015-02-12 This monograph analyses the rhythms of war and the geopolitical significance of Afghanistan with a focus on the interrelated concepts of weak rentier state great power rivalry and counter insurgency It analyses why the Mughals the British the Soviets and the Americans won the conventional wars in Afghanistan but were defeated in the unconventional ones It takes a comprehensive view of the history of the region and provides a political and military narrative of conventional and unconventional war in Afghanistan during the last five centuries It therefore covers wide ranging aspects such as empire building and military operations in Afghanistan in the pre modern period regular and irregular warfare in Afghanistan during the British era the Russian intervention and the emergence of the fragile rentier state after the world war and the American and NATO activities and the nature of on going war in light of the recent debates on the changing character of war in the twenty first century With a special emphasis on ecology terrain and logistics this book explores the trajectory of state building and contextualizes the Afghan problem as part of the wider struggle among the great powers for controlling the heart of Eurasia

Rethinking Place in South Asian and Islamic Art, 1500-Present Deborah S. Hutton,Rebecca M. Brown,2016-10-04 Place plays a fundamental role in the structuring of the discipline of Art History And yet place also limits the questions art historians can ask and impairs analysis of objects and locations in the interstices of established ossified categories The chapters in this interdisciplinary volume investigate place in all of its dynamism and complexity several call into question traditional constructions regarding place in Art History while others explore the fundamental role that place plays in lived experience The particular nexus for this collection lies at the intersection and overlap of two major subfields in the history of art South Asia and the Islamic world both of which are seemingly geographically determined yet at the same time uncategorizable as place with their ever shifting and contested borders The eleven chapters brought together here move from the early modern through to the contemporary and span particular monuments and locations ranging from Asia and Europe to Africa and the Americas The chapters take on the question of place as it operates in more obvious settings such as architectural monuments and exhibitionary contexts while also probing the way place operates when objects move or when the very place they exist in transforms dramatically This volume engages place through the movement of objects the evocation of senses desires and memories and the on going project of articulating the parameters of place and location

War and State-Building in Afghanistan Scott Gates, Kaushik Roy, 2014-11-20 The Mughals British and Soviets all failed to subjugate Afghanistan failures which offer valuable lessons for today Taking a long historical perspective from 1520 to 2012 this volume examines the Mughal British Soviet and NATO efforts in Afghanistan drawing on new archives and a synthesis of previous counter insurgency experiences Special emphasis is given to ecology terrain and logistics to explain sub conventional operations and state building in Afghanistan War and State Building in Modern Afghanistan provides an overall synthesis of British Russian American and NATO military activities in Afghanistan which directly links past experiences to the current challenges These timely essays are particularly relevant to contemporary debates about NATO's role in Afghanistan do the war and state building policies currently employed by NATO forces undercut or enhance a political solution The essays in this volume introduce new historical perspectives on this debate and will prove illuminating reading for students and scholars interested in military history the history of warfare international relations and comparative politics

Persia Francis Bradley Bradley-Birt, 1910 Through Persia, from the Gulf to the Caspian Francis Bradley Bradley-Birt, 1909 A Dictionary of Islam Thomas Patrick Hughes, 1885 Sehrengiz, Urban Rituals and Deviant Sufi Mysticism in Ottoman Istanbul B. Deniz Calis-Kural, 2016-04-01 ehrengiz is an Ottoman genre of poetry written in honor of various cities and provincial towns of the Ottoman Empire from the early sixteenth century to the early eighteenth century This book examines the urban culture of Ottoman Istanbul through ehrengiz as the Ottoman space culture and traditions have been shaped by a constant struggle between conflicting groups practicing political and religious attitudes at odds By examining real and imaginary gardens landscapes and urban spaces and associated ritualized traditions the book questions the formation of Ottoman space culture in relation to practices of orthodox and heterodox Islamic practices and imperial politics The study proposes that ehrengiz was a subtext for secret rituals performed in city spaces carrying dissident ideals of Melami mysticism following after the ideals of the thirteenth century Sufi philosopher Ibn al Arabi who proposed a theory of creative imagination and a three tiered definition of space the ideal the real and the intermediary barzakh In these rituals marginal groups of guilds emphasized the autonomy of individual self and suggested a novel proposition that the city shall become an intermediary space for reconciling the orthodox and heterodox worlds In the early eighteenth century liminal expressions of these marginal groups gave rise to new urban rituals this time adopted by the Ottoman court society and by affluent city dwellers and expressed in the poetry of Ned m The author traces how a tradition that had its roots in the early sixteenth century as a marginal protest movement evolved until the early eighteenth century as a movement of urban space reform The

Muslim Empires of the Ottomans, Safavids, and Mughals Stephen F. Dale,2009-12-24 Between 1453 and 1526 Muslims founded three major states in the Mediterranean Iran and South Asia respectively the Ottoman Safavid and Mughal empires By the early seventeenth century their descendants controlled territories that encompassed much of the Muslim world stretching from the Balkans and North Africa to the Bay of Bengal and including a combined population of between 130 and 160 million people This book is the first comparative study of the politics religion and culture of these three empires between 1300 and 1923 At the heart of the analysis is Islam and how it impacted on the political and military structures the economy language literature and religious traditions of these great empires This original and sophisticated study provides an antidote to the modern view of Muslim societies by illustrating the complexity humanity and vitality of these empires empires that cannot be reduced simply to religious doctrine A Dictionary of the Sacred Language of All Scriptures and Myths

(Routledge Revivals) G Gaskell,2016-03-10 G A Gaskell s Dictionary of the Sacred Language of All Scriptures and Myths first published in 1923 examines several different aspects of religion including examples from Ancient Egyptian religion and mythology to modern day Christianity providing explanations of gods events and symbols in alphabetical order This is a perfect reference book for students of theology or the history of religion Mughal Rule in India Stephen Meredyth
