Gardens Of A Golden Afternoon:

Gardens of a Golden Afternoon Jane Brown, 1982 A Lutyens house with a Jekyll garden was an Edwardian catch phrase denoting excellence something fabulous in both scale and detail They created over 100 gardens together and in this magnificent book Jane Brown tells the story of this unusual and abundantly creative partnerships Page 4 of cover

Gardens of a Golden Afternoon Jane Brown, 1985 Gardens of a Golden Afternoon Jane Brown, 1994 Gardens of a golden afternoon; the story of a partnership; Edwin Lutyens and Gertrude Jekyll J. brown, Cultural Landscape Report ,2000 Cultural Landscape Report, Dumbarton Oaks Park, Rock Creek Park ,2000 Gardens of the Arts and Crafts Movement Judith B. Tankard, 2018-11-27 The ever alluring Arts and Crafts garden is profoundly relevant to our 21st century needs Sam Watters author of Gardens for a Beautiful America In Gardens of the Arts and Crafts Movement landscape scholar Judith B Tankard surveys the inspirations characteristics and development of garden design during this iconic movement Tankard presents a selection of houses and gardens of the era from Great Britain and North America With almost 300 illustrations and photographs and an emphasis on the diversity of designers who helped forge the movement Gardens of the Arts and Crafts Movement is an essential resource for this truly distinct approach to garden design A Gentle Plea for Chaos Mirabel Osler, 2012-08-31 In this book the author describes the way her garden evolved and how without meaning to do so she let it take over her life She suggests moving away from planning regimentation and gardening with the mentality of a stamp collector Frequently funny and always stimulating she writes of the alchemy of gardens of the 19th century plant collectors and plant illustrators and of the gardening philosophers all fertilizing great thoughts along with their hollyhocks She won the 1988 Sinclair Consumer Press Garden Writer of the Year Award Garrett Eckbo Marc Treib, Dorothée Imbert, 2005 A beautifully illustrated consideration of the life and career of modernist landscape architect Garrett Eckbo

Captured Landscape Kate Baker, 2018-03-20 The enclosed garden or hortus conclusus is a place where architecture and landscape come together It has a long and varied history ranging from the early paradise garden and cloister the botanic garden and giardini segreto the kitchen garden and as a stage for social display The enclosed garden has continued to develop into its many modern forms the city retreat the redemptive garden the deconstructed building As awareness of climate change becomes increasingly important the enclosed garden which can mediate so effectively between interior and exterior provides opportunities for sustainable design and closer contact with the natural landscape By its nature it is ambiguous Is it an outdoor room or captured landscape is it architecture or garden Kate Baker discusses the continuing relevance of the typology of the enclosed garden to contemporary architects by exploring influential historical examples and the concepts they generate alongside some of the best of contemporary designs brought to life with vivid photography and detailed drawings taken primarily from Britain the Mediterranean Japan and North and South America She argues that understanding the potential of the enclosed garden requires us to think of it as both a design and an experience Captured

Landscape provides a broad range of information and design possibilities for students of architectural and landscape design practising architects landscape designers and horticulturalists and will also appeal to a wider audience of all those who are interested in garden design This second edition of Captured Landscape is enriched with new case studies throughout the book The scope has now been broadened to include an entirely new chapter concerning the urban condition with detailed discussions on issues of ecology sustainability economy of means well being and the social pressures of contemporary city life

Cultural Landscape Report: Site history, existing conditions, and analysis and evaluation ,2000 The British Arboretum

Paul A. Elliott,Charles Watkins,Stephen Daniels,2016-09-12 This study explores the science and culture of nineteenth century British arboreta or tree collections The development of arboreta was fostered by a variety of factors each of which is explored in detail global trade and exploration the popularity of collecting the significance to the British economy and society developments in Enlightenment science changes in landscape gardening aesthetics and agricultural and horticultural improvement Arboreta were idealized as microcosms of nature miniature encapsulations of the globe and as living museums This book critically examines different kinds of arboretum in order to understand the changing practical scientific aesthetic and pedagogical principles that underpinned their design display and the way in which they were viewed It is the first study of its kind and fills a gap in the literature on Victorian science and culture Delius and the Sound of Place

Daniel M. Grimley,2018-12-06 Offers a radical and interdisciplinary analysis that will transform readers understanding of this deeply compelling early twentieth century composer Loving and Studying Nature Malcolm Skilbeck,2022-01-05 This volume investigates crucial ways in which nature has been apprehended understood and valued in different cultures and over time It is grounded in current global concerns about growing threats to the natural environment Through a critical appraisal of specific examples it ranges widely over historical and contemporary attitudes and behaviours It presents a wide ranging analysis of selected ideas and attitudes in the evolution mainly of western civilisation from the time of the cave artists to the present day It argues for preservation and conservation of the natural resources and beauty of the earth in the face of religious supernatural arguments and the rise of consumer capitalism and consumerism The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Homes through World History James M. Steele,2009-03-30 The house throughout history in every place in the world has been built to provide shelter from the elements The dwellings that have resulted are as different as the people that have built them the social norms that prevailed at the time and place in which they were built and the natural environment that they adapted to Studying them now in a comprehensive way allows us to understand the social political economic and religious conditions that existed for their inhabitants They are a three dimensional record of culture Twenty four pages of color images along with black and white images through three volumes illustrate the homes of people throughout the world The volumes cover ancient times to the late Middle Ages the Renaissance to the Industrial Revolution and the Post Industrial Revolution to the Present Angel Dorothy Jane Brown,2017-02-23 Angel Dorothy is the inspiring biography of a formidable woman wealthy American heiress Dorothy Elmhist who poured her considerable resources into founding Dartington Hall in 1925 What started as a progressive school rapidly transformed into a magnet for artists architects writers philosophers and musicians creating an exceptional centre for British cultural life It was at Dartington in Devon that the Labour Party s post war manifesto was written and the Arts Council was conceived Born in Washington DC into the influential Whitney family Dorothy was a national darling bells rang flags flew and the American Navy s new fast tugboat was named Dorothy Orphaned at seventeen she started giving away her inheritance at eighteen and buried herself in social and political work She maintained her status as an unmarried woman until she fell in love with and married her first husband Willard Straight in 1911 Following Willard s untimely death Dorothy worked herself into a breakdown trying to fulfil his wishes She recovered with the help of Leonard Elmhist an Englishman who shared her liberal beliefs they married and moved to England in 1925 to start what would become Dartington Hall In this vividly told biography Jane Brown follows Dorothy from one side of the Atlantic to the other a journey Dorothy made one hundred times to spread her political beliefs her passion for education and her support of the arts for all She traces the evolution of Dartington from its restoration to its farming and forestry projects and to its time as a home for the period s greatest artists and intellectuals A History of Women in the Garden Twigs Way,2005-01-01 From the early misfortunes of Eve condemning her descendants to a dubious reputation for fruit management to the acclaimed successes of plant breeders such as the eccentric Ellen Willmott who combined bankruptcy with iris breeding the fortunes of the female gardener have been as varied as their roles Telling the tales of the sixteenth century housewife who neatly sidestepped accusations of herbal witchcraft while working her plot and the unconventional Ladies of Llangollen who eloped together and created their gothic garden and many other women besides A History of Women in the Garden showcases female horticulturists through the centuries An enlightening and entertaining read that will allow the reader to gain fresh enthusiasm for even the most menial of garden tasks and realise that hundreds of women have trod the garden path before An Environmental History of Wildlife in England 1650 - 1950 Tom Williamson,2013-12-05 Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2014 While few detailed surveys of fauna or flora exist in England from the period before the nineteenth century it is possible to combine the evidence of historical sources ranging from game books diaries churchwardens accounts and even folk songs and our wider knowledge of past land use and landscape with contemporary analyses made by modern natural scientists in order to model the situation at various times and places in the more remote past This timely volume encompasses both rural and urban environments from 1650 to the mid twentieth century drawing on a wide variety of social historical and ecological sources It examines the impact of social and economic organisation on the English landscape biodiversity the agricultural revolution landed estates the coming of large scale industry and the growth of towns and suburbs It also develops an original perspective on the complexity and ambiguity of man animal relationships in this post medieval period My Forests Janine Burke,2021-05-04 The narratives in My Forests are a pleasure to read like strolling down a meandering track through the trees you never quite know what you'll discover around that next bend Travel the ancient Incense Road with the Biblical Magi Enjoy the dancing Olive groves of Tuscany and read of sleeping Silver Birches Witness the spectacular tree houses of the Korowai of West Papua Visit tree sitter Miranda Gibson whose 449 day protest against clearfelling in Tasmania's Tyenna Valley led to a World Heritage listing In this enlightening and entertaining book Janine Burke invites you to accompany her through forests art and writing cities and parks deserts and gardens rainforests and wetlands exploring the connections between trees and civilisations past and present My Forests Travels with Trees presents the role of trees in contemporary life in a world where most people don't live in the wild and their acquaintance with nature comes from many sources

Women and Their Gardens Catherine Horwood, 2012-04 From the golden age in English history to today's gardeners and designers this volume recognizes women's contributions to gardening in Britain and around the worldspanning more than four centuries Despite growing vegetables for their kitchens tending herbs for their medicine cupboards and teaching other women about the craft before agricultural schools officially existed women have been mere footnotes in the horticultural annals for specimens collected abroad These pioneers influence on the style of gardens in the present day is illustrated here in a style both accessible and scholarly Presenting a rare bouquet this collection shares the stories of more than 200 women who have been involved with garden design plant collecting flower arranging botanical art garden writing and education
