Sini,2019-04-23 This book traces the evolution of Singapore's parks system from colonial to present times. Further, it contextualizes the design and planning of parks in the general discourse on western and eastern traditions, early twentieth-century western conceptions imported during colonialism, modernism, postmodernism, and the contemporary ecological debate. Park system planning products respond to national policies and result in structural urban elements and a range of park types. Global western ideology and local issues have influenced park system planning and the physical design of individual parks over time. However, in Singapore, the eastern literature has not addressed the development of parks and urban green spaces in terms of historical perspective. The publication reveals the interrelations between visual representations and changing political ideologies. Singapore's system of public parks is shown to represent an iconography created by the state. Its set of constructed narratives elucidates on the potential social, cultural, and environmental roles of public parks. However, Singapore's park system presents a novel paradigm for expanding Asian cities characterized by evolving urban imaging strategies. In framing Singapore's case study within the broader perspective of eastern applications of western planning and design practices and constructions of nation in post-colonial countries, the manuscript establishes the contribution of the Singaporean model of design and planning of parks to the international debate. Top 10 Singapore

M.H.T. Sutedja-Liem,2012-01-01 This volume brings together new scholarship by Indonesian and non-Indonesian scholars on Indonesia's cultural history from 1950-1965. During the new nation's first decade and a half, Indonesia's links with the world and its sense of nationhood were vigorously negotiated on the cultural front. Indonesia used cultural networks of the time, including those of the Cold War, to announce itself on the world stage. International links, post-colonial aspirations, and nationalistic fervour interacted to produce a thriving cultural and intellectual life at home. Essays discuss the exchange of artists, intellectuals, writing, and ideas between Indonesia and various countries; the development of cultural networks and ways these networks interacted with and influenced cultural expression and discourse in Indonesia. With contributions by Keith Foulcher, Liesbeth Dolk, Hairus Salim, HS Tony Day, Budiawan, Maya H T Liem, Jennifer Lindsay, Els Bogaerts, Melani Budianta, Choirotun, Chisaan I Nyoman Darma Putra, Barbara Hatley, Marije Plomp, Irawati Durban, Ardjo Rhoma Dwi Aria Yuliantri, and Michael Bodden. DK Malaysia and Singapore
