Gardens Of War Life And Death In The New Guinea Stone Age:

Gardens of War Robert Gardner, 1969 Klein erfgoed Gerrit Kolthof, 2002 Columns over herinneringen aan het dagelijks leven in Nederland in de jaren vijftig en zestig Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film 3-Volume Set Ian Aitken, 2013-10-18 The Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film is a fully international reference work on the history of the documentary film from the Lumi re brothers Workers Leaving the Lumi re Factory 1885 to Michael Moore s Fahrenheit 911 2004 This Encyclopedia provides a resource that critically analyzes that history in all its aspects Not only does this Encyclopedia examine individual films and the careers of individual film makers it also provides overview articles of national and regional documentary film history It explains concepts and themes in the study of documentary film the techniques used in making films and the institutions that support their production appreciation and preservation Tracing Early Agriculture in the Highlands of New Guinea Tim Denham, 2018-06-28 In this book historical narratives chart how people created forms of agriculture in the highlands of New Guinea and how these practices were transformed through time The intention is twofold to clearly establish New Guinea as a region of early agricultural development and plant domestication and to develop a contingent practice based interpretation of early agriculture that has broader application to other regions of the world The multi disciplinary record from the highlands has the potential to challenge and change long held assumptions regarding early agriculture globally which are usually based on domestication Early agriculture in the highlands is charted by an exposition of the practices of plant exploitation and cultivation Practices are ontologically prior because they ultimately produce the phenotypic and genotypic changes in plant species characterised as domestication as well as the social and environmental transformations associated with agriculture They are also methodologically prior because they emplace plants in specific historico geographic contexts Rethinking Mycenaean Palaces II Michael L. Galaty, William A. Parkinson, 2007-12-31 This revised and expanded edition of the classic 1999 edited book includes all the chapters from the original volume plus a new updated introduction and several new chapters The current book is an up to date review of research into Mycenaean palatial systems with chapters by archaeologists and Linear B specialists that will be useful to scholars instructors and advanced students This book aims to define more accurately the term palace in light of both recent archaeological research in the Aegean and current anthropological thinking on the structure and origin of early states Regional centers do not exist as independent entities They articulate with more extensive sociopolitical systems The concept of palace needs to be incorporated into enhanced models of Mycenaean state organization ones that more completely integrate primary centers with networks of regional settlement and economy Gregory Bateson on Relational Communication: From Octopuses to Nations Phillip Guddemi, 2020-10-03 This book develops Gregory Bateson s ideas regarding communication about relationship in animals and human beings and even nations It bases itself on Bateson s theory of relational communication as he described it in the zoosemiotics of octopus mammals birds and human beings This theory includes for example the roles of metaphor play analog and digital communication metacommunication and Laws of Form It is organized around a letter from Gregory Bateson to his fellow cybernetic thinker Warren McCulloch at the time of the Cuban Missile Crisis In this letter Bateson argued that what we would today call zoosemiotics including Bateson's own previously unpublished octopus research should be made a basis for understanding the relationship between the two blocs of the Cold War Accordingly the book shows how Bateson understood interactive processes in the biosemiotics of conflict and peacemaking which are analyzed using examples from recent animal studies from primate studies and from cultural anthropology The Missile Crisis itself is described in terms of Bateson's critique of game theory which he felt should be modified by an understanding of the zoosemiotics of relational communication The book also includes a previously unpublished piece by Gregory Bateson on wolf behavior and metaphor abduction

Documenting Ourselves Sharon R. Sherman, 2021-10-21 Since Robert Flaherty's landmark film Nanook of the North 1922 arguments have raged over whether or not film records of people and traditions can ever be authentic And yet never before has a single volume combined documentary ethnographic and folkloristic filmmaking to explore this controversy What happens when we turn the camera on ourselves This question has long plagued documentary filmmakers concerned with issues of reflexivity subject participation and self consciousness Documenting Ourselves includes interviews with filmmakers Les Blank Pat Ferrero Jorge Preloran Bill Ferris and others who discuss the ways their own productions and subjects have influenced them Sharon Sherman examines the history of documentary films and discusses current theories and techniques of folklore and fieldwork But Sharon Sherman does not limit herself to the problems faced by filmmakers today She examines the history of documentary films tracing them from their origins as a means of capturing human motion through the emergence of various film styles She also discusses current theories and techniques of folklore and fieldwork concluding that advances in video technology have made the camcorder an essential tool that has the potential to redefine the nature of the documentary itself

Ethnic Conflict and Indoctrination Irenäus Eibl-Eibesfeldt, Frank K. Salter,1998 Violent ethno nationalist conflicts continue to mar the history of the current century yet no satisfactory answer to the question of why humans are susceptible to indoctrination by ideologies that lead to inter group hostility has so far been found In this volume an international team of leading scientists from many different fields approach this complex issue from a biological perspective treating indoctrinability as a predisposition that has its roots in humanity s evolutionary past

Visual Sociology Douglas Harper,2023-06-09 This new version of the authoritative textbook in the field of visual sociology focuses on the key topics of documentary photography visual ethnography collaborative visual research visual empiricism the study of the visual symbol and teaching sociology visually This updated and expanded edition includes nearly twice as many images and incorporates new in depth case studies drawing upon the author s lifetime of pioneering research and teaching as well as the often neglected experiences of women and people of color The book examines how documentary photography can be useful to sociologists both because of the topics examined by documentarians and as an example of how seeing is socially constructed Harper describes the exclusion of women through much of the history of documentary photography and the distinctiveness of the female eye in recent documentary a phenomenon he calls the gendered lens The author examines how a visual approach allows sociologists to study conventional topics differently while offering new perspectives topics and insights For example photography shows us how perspective itself affects what we see and know how abstractions such as ideal types can be represented visually how social change can be studied visually and how the study of symbols can lead us to interpret public art architecture and person made landscapes There is an extended study of how images can lead to cooperative research and learning how images can serve as bridges of understanding blurring the lines between researcher and researched The important topic of reflexivity is examined by close study of Harper s own research experiences Finally the author focusses on teaching offering templates for full courses assignments and projects and guides for teachers imagining how to approach visual sociology as a new practice This definitive yet accessible textbook will be indispensable to teachers researchers and professionals with an interest in visual sociology research methods cultural theory and visual anthropology

War and the Cultural Turn Jeremy Black,2013-05-08 In this stimulating new text renowned military historian Jeremy Black unpacks the concept of culture as a descriptive and analytical approach to the history of warfare Black takes the reader through the limits and prospects of culture as a tool for analyzing war while also demonstrating the necessity of maintaining the context of alternative analytical matrices such as technology Black sets out his unique approach to culture and warfare without making his paradigm into a straightjacket He goes on to demonstrate the flexibility of his argument through a series of case studies which include the contexts of rationale Gloire strategy early modern Britain organizations the modern West and ideologies the Cold War These case studies drive home the point at the core of the book culture is not a bumper sticker it is a survival mechanism Culture is not immutable it is adaptable Wide ranging international and always provocative War and the Cultural Turn will be required reading for all students of military history and security studies

The Peaceful People Paul Malone, 2022-12-06 The Peaceful People is the story of the Penan the jungle nomads of Sarawak who for decades have fought for possession and preservation of their traditional forest lands Drawing on extensive first hand interviews as well as the diaries and journals of explorers botanists and colonial administrators and the observations of missionaries the book provides the most comprehensive account of the dynamics of Penan society to date Written in a compelling and accessible style the narrative tells the shocking history of the Penan exposing massacres and murders while recounting the nomads uniquely shy and peaceful way of life In particular the analysis focuses on the Penan s consistently non violent modern day protests against rampant logging which attracted world attention in the 1980s and 1990s The Peaceful People is essential reading for those interested in the history and culture of Borneo the politics of logging and development and the lives of indigenous peoples who seek new ways to survive in a hostile world

Archaeology of Body and Thought Tomasz Gralak, 2024-03-07 This study explores what we as people can do with our bodies what we can use them for and how we can alter and understand them With analysis based on artefacts found in graves anthropomorphic images and written sources it considers the ways in which human groups from the Neolithic to the Migration Period have perceived and treated the body

Landscape, Process and Power Serena Heckler, 2012 In recent years the field of study variously called local indigenous or traditional environmental knowledge TEK has experienced a crisis brought about by the questioning of some of its basic assumptions This has included reassessing notions that scientific methods can accurately elicit and describe TEK or that incorporating it into development projects will improve the physical social or economic well being of marginalized peoples The contributors to this volume argue that to accurately and appropriately describe TEK the historical and political forces that have shaped it as well as people s day to day engagement with the landscape around them must be taken into account TEK thus emerges not as an easily translatable tool for development experts but as a rich and complex element of contemporary lives that should be defined and managed by indigenous and local peoples themselves

Conspiring with the Enemy Yvonne Chiu, 2019-10-08 Despite the strong influence of just war theory in military law and practice warfare is commonly considered devoid of morality Yet even in the most horrific of human activities there is frequent communication and cooperation between enemies One remarkable example is the Christmas truce unofficial ceasefires between German and English trenches in December 1914 in which soldiers even mingled in No Man's Land In Conspiring with the Enemy Yvonne Chiu offers a new understanding of why and how enemies work together to constrain violence in warfare Chiu argues that what she calls an ethic of cooperation is found in modern warfare to such an extent that it is often taken for granted The importance of cooperation becomes especially clear when wartime ethics reach a gray area To whom should the laws of war apply Who qualifies as a combatant Should guerrillas or terrorists receive protections Fundamentally Chiu shows the norms of war rely on consensus on the existence and content of the laws of war In a wide ranging consideration of pivotal instances of cooperation Chiu examines weapons bans treatment of prisoners of war and the Geneva Conventions as well as the tensions between the ethic of cooperation and the pillars of just war theory An original exploration of a crucial but overlooked phenomenon Conspiring with the Enemy is a significant contribution to military ethics and political philosophy

Rollwagen, 2014-06-03 First Published in 1988 Visual Anthropology is a book series devoted to the illumination of the human condition through a systematic examination of all that is made to be seen It is our intention to demonstrate the value of an anthropological approach to the study of the visual and pictorial world The anthropological filmmaker just like the ethnographer must be content to present something about a dynamic process at a particular moment in time regardless of the fact that all of the variables are constantly in flux The purpose of this work is to make available a collection of articles by individuals who are both anthropologists and filmmakers
