The History of Gardens in Painting Nils Büttner, 2008-09-23 This book by Nils Buttner traces the history of gardens as seen through the eyes of artists over the course of 2 000 years The focus of this book is not gardens themselves or different concepts of the garden but rather the representation of gardens in art In this study the author explains why pictures of gardens are a mirror of the social historical and aesthetic context in which gardens were conceived He also examines how artists paint gardens by presenting some 185 beautifully reproduced pictures including full views and details of both well heralded and little known masterpieces The wide ranging coverage includes late medieval devotional pictures featuring Madonnas in idyllic gardens Botticelli s masterwork La Primavera an allegory of love set in a grove of orange trees that was created for a bridal chamber sixteenth century views of well known historic gardens like those of the Vatican which were in demand because of a new interest in geography and topography realistic depictions of nature without any attempt to beautify it by Courbet and other so called naturalists painters gardens like Monet s Giverny and representations of modern gardens like David Hockney s Red Pots in the Garden which are extremely varied in style and reflect the artist s subjectivity In sum the carefully chosen paintings in this book represent a progression of developments in art history and foster a deep appreciation for actual gardens as well as paintings of them BOOK JACKET

Art and the Gardener Gordon Hayward, 2008 In Art and the Gardener Gordon Hayward s tenth book on garden design he makes a radical departure from his earlier approaches in order to explore elements of visual language across two artistic disciplines fine painting and garden design in hopes that the remarkable crosscurrents will help reveal how to design or simply appreciate your garden with greater acuity

Impressionist Gardens Judith Bumpus, 1990 Gardens in Pastel Jackie Simmonds, 1998-02 Shows how to simplify the drawing and painting of garden Painting Paradise Vanessa Remington, Sally Goodsir, Roy Strong, 2015 Gardens are where man and nature meet They change by the hour day to day and with the seasons They carry associations about the status approach to life and sometimes even the political affiliations of their creator Gardens can be intended for public enjoyment or private delectation they can be open to the masses or closed to all but a few They may be places of scientific study havens for the solitary thinker spaces for frolicking and games for flirtation and for love Presented with the many faces of the garden artists in Western Europe have looked at the garden in different ways extracting and emphasising those facets of the garden unique to their culture and their time At the same time individual elements drawn from the garden whether architectural or botanic have at certain periods come to the fore and taken their place in the decorative arts of Western Europe This book explores the way in which the garden has inspired artists and craftsmen in Europe between 1500 and 1900
