The ebook is split into five chapters, each focusing on a different theme. Gardens of the World Mark Lane, 2020-09-24 A sumptuous exploration of 21 of the world's most celebrated royal gardens from the formal splendour of Versailles to the organic sustainable Highgrove. In mainland Europe, you can journey from the formal splendour of Het Loo in the Netherlands and Fontainebleau in France to the Baroque World Heritage Site of the Royal Palace of Caserta in Southern Italy. Further afield still lies the Taj Mahal in India and the Peterhof Palace in Russia. Each featured garden will include the history, plantings and evolution of the garden, as well as plant portraits of key plants and information about the design and layout of each. Countries included are England, Scotland, Germany, France, Italy, Spain, Austria, the Czech Republic, the Netherlands, Sweden, Denmark, Russia, India, Bali and Japan. This inspiring global selection of royal gardens is a perfect gift for any gardening enthusiast or armchair traveller and takes the reader on a journey of architecturally significant houses and their classic gardens, as well as providing planting ideas that range from modest to grand, simple to ornate. A World of Gardens John Dixon Hunt, 2014-05-14 A Japanese garden is immediately distinct to the eye from the traditional gardens of an English manor house, just as the manicured topiaries of Versailles contrast with the sharp cacti of the American Southwest. Though gardening is beloved the world over, the style of gardens themselves varies from region to region, determined as much by culture as climate. In this series of illustrated essays, John Dixon Hunt takes us on a world tour of different periods in the making of gardens. Hunt shows here how cultural assumptions and local geography have shaped gardens and their meaning. He explores our continuing responses to land and reworkings of the natural world encompassing a broad range of gardens from ancient Roman times to early Islamic and Mughal gardens, from Chinese and Japanese gardens to the invention of the public park and modern landscape architecture. A World of Gardens looks at key chapters in garden history, reviewing their significance past and present and tracing the recurrence of different themes and motifs in the design and reception of gardens throughout the world. A World of Gardens celebrates the idea that similar experiences of gardens can be found in many different times and places, including sacred landscapes, scientific gardens, urban gardens, secluded gardens and symbolic gardens. Featuring two hundred images, this book is a treasure trove of ideas and inspiration, whether your garden is a window box, a secluded backyard or a daydream. Gardens of the Roman World

Patrick Bowe, 2004 Romans loved their gardens whether they were the grand gardens of imperial country estates or the small private spaces tucked behind city houses They treasured gardens both as places for relaxation and as plots to grow ornamental plants as well as fruits and vegetables The soothing sound of bubbling fountains often added further to the pleasures of life in the garden Romans constructed gardens in every corner of their empire from Britain to North Africa and from Portugal to Asia Minor Long after their empire collapsed the gardens they had so carefully planted continued to exert influence in the farflung corners of their former world This book describes the variety of Roman gardens throughout the empire from the humblest to the most lavish including such well known places as Hadrian s Villa in Tivoli and the gardens of Pompeii and Herculaneum The continued influence of Roman gardens is traced through Arabic medieval and Renaissance gardens to the present day Many of the lavish illustrations were commissioned for this book Gardens of This World Henry B. Fuller, 1972-01-01 Gardens and Gardeners of the Ancient World Linda Farrar, 2016-02-29 From the earliest of times people have sought to grow and nurture plants in a garden area Gardens and Gardeners of the Ancient World traces the beginning of gardening and garden history from Ancient Egypt and Mesopotamia to the Minoans and Mycenaeans Greeks Etruscans and Romans through Byzantine Islamic and Persian gardens right up to the Middle Ages It shows how gardens in each period were designed and cultivated Evidence for garden art and horticulture is gathered from surviving examples of ancient art literature archaeology actual period gardens that have survived the centuries and the wealth of garden myths associated with certain plants These sources bring ancient gardens and their gardeners back to life and provide information on which plants were chosen as garden worthy their setting and the design and appearance of ancient gardens Deities associated with aspects of gardens and the garden s fertility are featured everyone wanted a fertile garden Different forms of public and domestic gardens are explored and the features that you would find there whether paths pools arbors and arches seating or decorative sculpture The ideal garden could be like the Greek groves of the Academy in Athens a garden so fine that it was comparable with that of the mythical king Alcinoos the paradise contemplated by the Islamic world or a personal version of a garden of Eden that Early Christians could create for themselves or in the forecourt of their churches In general books on garden history cover all periods up to the present often placing all ancient gardens in one chapter at the beginning But there is so much of interest to be found in these early millennia Generously illustrated with 150 images with plant lists for each period this is essential reading for everyone interested in garden history and ancient societies Gardens of this World Henry Blake Fuller, 1929 My Garden World Monty Don, 2020-09-17 THE SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLER BEST GARDENING BOOKS OF 2020 Sunday Times Every page a joy NIGEL SLATER From a very early age I loved the countryside as much as any garden and was fascinated by the life that I saw all around me from trees wildflowers birds insects and mammals In a sense this book has been over sixty years in gestation I have kept notebooks and journals ever since I could write and I have drawn upon these as well as the events of the past year Spend a year with Monty Don My Garden World is a celebration of every living creature and the natural world that we all share Recent times have given us the enforced opportunity to learn more about the fascinating natural world around us Whether you live in the countryside or the town Monty s observations and insights are relevant to each and every one of us My Garden World is Monty Don s personal journey through the natural year month by month season by season observed from the immediate world around him Wildlife is not something that we watch happening in remote and exotic parts of the world on our screens but right here in our own back yards and the more that we encourage it and learn to live with it the more rewarding it becomes If in our own modest back yards we can help preserve and treasure our natural world then we will make the world a better place not just for ourselves but for every living creature

Gardens Robert Pogue Harrison,2010-10 Humans have long turned to gardens both real and imaginary for sanctuary from the frenzy and tumult that surrounds them Those gardens may be as far away from everyday reality as Gilgamesh s garden of the gods or as near as our own backyard but in their very conception and the marks they bear of human care and cultivation gardens stand as restorative nourishing necessary havens With Gardens Robert Pogue Harrison graces readers with a thoughtful wide ranging examination of the many ways gardens evoke the human condition Moving from the gardens of ancient philosophers to the gardens of homeless people in contemporary New York he shows how again and again the garden has served as a check against the destruction and losses of history The ancients explains Harrison viewed gardens as both a model and a location for the laborious self cultivation and self improvement that are essential to serenity and enlightenment an association that has continued throughout the ages The Bible and Qur an Plato s Academy and Epicurus s Garden School Zen rock and Islamic carpet gardens Boccaccio Rihaku Capek Cao Xueqin Italo Calvino Ariosto Michel Tournier and Hannah Arendt all come into play as this work explores the ways in which the concept and reality of the garden has informed human thinking about mortality order and power Alive with the echoes and arguments of Western thought Gardens is a fitting continuation of the intellectual journeys of Harrison s earlier classics Forests and The Dominion of the Dead Voltaire famously urged us to cultivate our gardens with this compelling volume Robert Pogue Harrison reminds us of the nature of that responsibility and its enduring importance to humanity
