Garibaldi's Ski Boat:

Garibaldi's Ski-boat Anthony Fleischer, 2002 Garibaldi's Ski-Boat Anthony Fleischer, 2003-09 GARIBALDI S SKI BOAT by Anthony Fleischer Extracts from press reviews SUNDAY TIMES Johannesburg This second novel more than fulfills the promise of the first It has dignity simplicity and an ease of narration that makes it not a tale told but a pattern of people and events evolving independently through some natural process Somehow the novel begins one knows when the night is turning into morning the darkness is a morning darkness and the air is chilled The sense of atmosphere conveyed in this opening sentence is maintained to the end of the book Throughout the tree chief characters move speak and fulfill their destinies against a background of the elements SUNDAY TIMES London To Garibaldi Cape Coloured fisherman comes by luck and coincidence an amazing fishing boat It is unsinkable they say and at last he can venture into the Indian ocean for real fishing instead of skulking in a leaking tub in the muddy waters with his friend Sky But Sky lost his wife to the terrible ocean and can't overcome his terror so Garibaldi goes it alone This is really an elongated short story but it is beautifully told THE OBSERVER London The author handles the transition from the simple fun of the quayside to the elemental disaster of the climax with great skill He is a real writer and he knows what some writers never learn when to stop TIME TIDE London It is difficult to pin point the extraordinary attractiveness of this story perhaps it is because the author never by so much as a nod towards a more complex world leaves the setting and the characters he has drawn There are no symbols to worry us no folk wisdom to fox us no archetypes only people with special wants and special likes In all this he shows an unpretentious confidence perhaps unconscious and skill lacked by many more famous European novelists Garibaldi's Ski-boat Hans Hofmeyer, 1960 Okavango Gods Anthony Fleischer, 2001-05 Pula is the son of the rainmaker and he fishes with his father from a mokoro on the Okavango River Above him he sees aircraft rising into the clouds and he too wants to fly He and his dear friend Julia are caught in the biggest flood ever to hit the Okavango Delta They are rescued from Shakawe by an American pilot flying a C130 Hercules A huge wave of global change now swamps the world old cultures and long honoured beliefs are questioned small languages and small communities are being destroyed some people are endangered not only birds and beasts The cycles of flood and drought have been around since Gilgamesh's time so have unstable metaphysical explanations for them the eternal role of fickle gods Even Okavango Gods Current change in the Okavango Delta and ancient change in the Euphrates are perhaps not so far apart after all Man will bring about the change the ancient gods are no longer reliable the future lies in man's volition The Cape Librarian, 1960 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 British Books in Print, 1970 Time & Tide Helen A.
