The Garland Library of War and Peace, 19?? The Garland Library of War and Peace Sandi Cooper, Merle Curti, 1971 The Garland Library of War and Peace Blanche Wiesen Cook, Charles Chatfield, Sandi Cooper, 1971 The War for Peace Leonard Woolf, 1972 War, Peace, and Change John Foster Dulles, 1972 Peace Movement Organizations and Activists in the U.S. John Lofland, Victoria Lee Johnson, Pamela Kato, 1991 Here is the most comprehensive compilation and analytic classification of book length publications on the immense upwelling of peace activism that occurred in the United States during the 1980 s It is an indispensable reference addition to the bookshelf of all researchers of peace movements in the United States Focusing on the post World War II years with particular attention to the 1980 s this volume is an extensive bibliography of books categorized into six categories by theory transcenders educators intellectuals politicians protestors and prophets Peace Movement Organizations and Activists in the United States An Analytic Bibliography is an indispensable tool for researchers and students of peace movements from several disciplines including history political science security studies sociology and international relations The Fight for Peace Devere Allen, 1972 The Advocates of Peace in Antebellum America Valarie H. Ziegler, 2001 This book chronicles the political and intellectual development of the two major antebellum peace movements The American Peace Society a moderate peace group aimed to work through the institutions of church and state to achieve peace The New England Nonresistant Society constituted a radical group which advocated the individual s complete separation from all institutions and strict adherence to the example of Christ s life and teachings Plans for World Peace Through Six Centuries Sylvester John Hemleben, 1972 Physicians and the Peace Movement Nick Lewer, 2013-09-13 First Published in 1992 This book was written in recognition of the many physicians and other health workers who since the formation of the first peace societies in 1815 have dedicated their lives to make the world a more peaceful and just place to live The intention is to introduce the field to illustrate the main issues and avenues that have motivated individuals and groups to work directly for peace The conclusion draws these threads together and considers some ways in which the health professions may contribute to peace work in the future The Glorious Art of Peace John Gittings, 2012-02-23 A ground breaking history of the arts of peace from Confucius and Ancient Greece through to the 21st century opening an alternative window on history to show the strength of the case for peace which has been argued from ancient times onwards Peace Museums Peter van den Dungen, 2024-12-31 This book is the first comprehensive study of the history nature and purposes of peace museums comprising twenty one essays by a leading authority in the field It presents a powerful argument for the need for this new kind of museum that informs and inspires visitors that a world of peace and nonviolence is both necessary and possible Whereas there are numerous museums about war and the armed forces museums about peacemaking and peacemakers are rare indeed the very concept of peace museums is still largely unknown This is a reflection of the traditional writing and teaching of history which is dominated by narratives of war and warriors with little or no attention being paid to the history of efforts to prevent and abolish war Peace museums are ideal instruments to bring the long fascinating and vitally important history of peace to life for a large public Among the essays included are histories of two forgotten and unknown yet heroic efforts to prevent World War I and then World War II through museums that educated and alerted visitors about the disasters ahead if war was not avoided and ways to steer a different course following the catastrophe that was the Great War At a time when a barbaric war in Europe continuing wars in Africa and ominous threats of war in Asia are raising the specter of nuclear war and World War III the need for anti nuclear bomb and anti war museums is greater than ever Such museums are essential for the development of a global culture of peace and nonviolence The book provides inspiration and hope for everyone interested in efforts to overcome an existential threat to civilization that is wholly man made Newer Ideals of Peace Jane Addams,2007 A paradigm for peace discovered in the cosmopolitan neighborhoods of poor urban immigrants

Peace 1991-1995 Irwin Abrams,1999 The last decade of the twentieth century is already proving to be as dramatic as any decade before The chances of global peace seem stronger now than at any time since 1900 and the people and organizations that have contributed most towards this progress are recognized by the Norwegian Nobel Committee The Nobel Peace prizewinners during the period 1991 1995 include men women and organizations whose principles dedication and diligence continue to shape history This volume is a collection of the Nobel Lectures delivered by the prizewinners together with their biographies portraits and presentation speeches by representatives of the Norwegian Nobel Committee for the period 1991 1995 Each Nobel Lecture is based on the work that won the laureate his her prize New biographical data of the laureates since they were awarded the Nobel prize are also included This volume of inspiring lectures by outstanding individuals should be on everyone s bookshelf Below is a list of the prizewinners during the period 1991 1995 Aung San Suu Kyi R Mench Tum N R Mandela F W de Klerk Y Arafat S Peres Y Rabin J Rotblat Pugwash Conferences on Science and World Affairs The Routledge History of World Peace since 1750 Christian Philip Peterson,William M. Knoblauch,Michael

Loadenthal,2018-10-10 The Routledge History of World Peace since 1750 examines the varied and multifaceted scholarship surrounding the topic of peace and engages in a fruitful dialogue about the global history of peace since 1750

Interdisciplinary in nature the book includes contributions from authors working in fields as diverse as history philosophy literature art sociology and Peace Studies The book crosses the divide between historical inquiry and Peace Studies scholarship with traditional aspects of peace promotion sitting alongside expansive analyses of peace through other lenses including specific regional investigations of the Middle East Africa Latin America and other parts of the world Divided thematically into six parts that are loosely chronological in structure the book offers a broad overview of peace issues such as peacebuilding state building and or conflict resolution in individual countries or regions and indicates the unique challenges of achieving peace from a range of perspectives Global in scope and supported by regional and temporal case studies the
