Walters, 2000-06-30 Compiled in this volume is the most significant accumulation of works on the subject of African American leadership to date As the field of leadership studies continues to grow this timely work contributes to an understanding of the activities of those people and organizations that have been leaders of people of African descent and have contributed to the cultural and political affairs of the black community as well as the representation of the black community in mainstream American life The annotated entries cover a variety of works on subjects such as dedicated black leadership studies local descriptions and analyses biographies leadership organizations and audio visual materials This reference is an important contribution to the field of leadership studies in general and African American leadership in particular and will serve as a valuable research tool for educators and practitioners alike The entries are organized into six sections which offer a broad overview of the various aspects of African American leadership Part I Critical Studies and Appraisals focuses on the history of works dedicated to both national and local leaders and their politically relevant activities The next section Local Leadership Studies is organized around black leaders who served local communities and the various issues they addressed Part III looks at relevant social movements and ideologies that have highlighted the activities of black leaders Individual leaders who have made contributions to the political life of the black community are included in Part IV while leadership organizations are highlighted in Part V The concluding section of the volume looks at available audio visual materials A thorough index rounds out the bibliography Muslims on the Americanization Path? Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, John L. Esposito, 2000-05-11 Islam is the fastest growing religion in the United States There are more Muslims in America than in Kuwait Qatar and Libya together Leaving aside immigration and conversion birthrate alone ensures that in the first part of the twenty first century Islam will replace Judaism as the nation s second largest religion Like all religious minorities in America Muslims must confront a host of difficult questions concerning faith and national identity Can they become part of a pluralistic American society without sacrificing their identity Can Muslims be Muslims in a state that is not governed by Islamic law Will the American legal system protect Muslim religious and cultural differences Is there a contradiction between demanding equal rights and insisting on maintaining a distinctively separate identity Will the secular and or Judeo Christian values of American society inhibit the Muslim practice of religious faith While the Muslims of America are indeed on the path to Americanization what that means and what that will yield remains uncertain In this thoughtful and wide ranging volume fourteen distinguished scholars take an in depth look at these issues and examine the varied responses and opinions of the Muslim community
