Gaspard Melchior Et Balthazar Collection Folio:

Transcending Boundaries Sandra L. Beckett, 2013-10-11 Transcending Boundaries Writing for a Dual Audience of Children and Adults is a collection of essays on twentieth century authors who cross the borders between adult and children's literature and appeal to both audiences This collection of fourteen essays by scholars from eight countries constitutes the first book devoted to the art of crosswriting the child and adult in twentieth century international literature Sandra Beckett explores the multifaceted nature of crossover literature and the diverse ways in which writers cross the borders to address a dual readership of children and adults It considers classics such as Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and Pinocchio with particular emphasis on post World War II literature The essays in Transcending Boundaries clearly suggest that crossover literature is a major widespread trend that appears to be sharply on the rise

Michel Tournier's Metaphysical Fictions Susan Petit, 1991-01-01 This study of the fictional themes and techniques of Michel Tournier reveals his profound radicalism as a social critic and novelist despite the seeming conventionality of his works Guided by Tournier's essays and interviews Petit examines his fiction in light of plot sources philosophical and anthropological training and his belief that fiction should change the world Close study of Vendredi ou les limbes du Pacifique Le Roi des aulnes Les Metéores Gaspard Melchior et Balthazar and La Goutte d'or as well as the short fiction in Le Coq de bruyère and Le Medianoche amoureux shows Tournier's revolutionary conception of plot structuring as he develops key themes whether religion sensuality or prejudice in more than twenty years spent reconceiving the nature of fiction

Reform and Counterreform John C. Hawley, 2020-10-12 No detailed description available for Reform and Counterreform

Crossover Fiction Sandra L. Beckett, 2010-11-24 In Crossover Fiction Sandra L. Beckett explores the global trend of crossover literature and explains how it is transforming literary canons concepts of readership the status of authors the publishing industry and bookselling practices This study will have significant relevance across disciplines as scholars in literary studies media and cultural studies visual arts education psychology and sociology examine the increasingly blurred borderlines between adults and young people in contemporary society notably with regard to their consumption of popular culture

History Made, History Imagined David Walter Price, 1999 In this provocative and original study David Price investigates history as a form of poiesis the act of making in language and suggests that certain novels can provide the best means of engaging in historical interpretation Contending that the fundamental act of narration itself including the narration of history expresses a system of values Price explores the work of seven contemporary novelists who share a commitment to reexamining history as idea and a refusal to accept history as given Within a theoretical framework based on Friedrich Nietzsche and Giambattista Vico Price investigates how these writers Carlos Fuentes Susan Daitch Salman Rushdie Michel Tournier Ishmael Reed Graham Swift and Mario Vargas Llosa create a discursive space between history and literature a space within which history can be questioned and the making of history explored Through their novels these writers replace the univocal expression of history as a description of what really happened with a polyvocality of competing discourses languages and points of view Price's investigation of three modalities of the poietic novel the history of forgotten possibilities the construction of countermemory and cultural critique and history as myth has far reaching implications for how we read and question the narratives we understand as history By treating the past as a dynamic flow of values rather than a fixed collection of facts History Made History Imagined fosters a deeper understanding not only of literature and philosophy but also of history and our relationship to it De grands romanciers écrivent pour les enfants Sandra L. Beckett, 1997 Ce sont Henri Bosco Jean Giono Le Clézio Michel Tournier et Marguerite Yourcenar auxquels est consacré pour chacun un chapitre documenté Par analyse et par entretiens avec eux se dégage une conception simple mais vivante de ce qui est littérature pour les enfants Sexuality and the Reading Encounter Emma Wilson, 1996 Can fictions of desire determine real pleasures Do texts regulate the performance of our sexual identities In Sexuality and the Reading Encounter Emma Wilson offers a new account of the intimate relations between reading identity and identification Interweaving theoretical debate with analysis of texts by Proust Duras Tournier and Cixous her study reveals the formative potential and transference pleasures of the reading encounter Drawing on an understanding of identity as performative alienated and fictitious this study argues that the fictions we read act as mirrors and decoys displaying seductive images of intelligible sexual identities The texts chosen for discussion here draw attention to the strategies by which identity is constructed textually They work thus to frame the reading encounter and to highlight its formative power In analysis of these texts this study works to cut across the axes of homosexuality and heterosexuality offering an alternative focus on the interdependence of identity and fantasy Relire Tournier Jean-Bernard Vray, 2000

Michel Tournier's Children Christopher Anderson, 1998 Best known in America for his 1970 novel The Ogre Le Roi des aulnes Michel Tournier is arguably France's most important living popular author Since 1980 however Tournier has focused on making his fiction accessible to children who now constitute his primary audience Dr Anderson focuses on the evolution of Tournier's writing style in terms of myth initiation and intertextual reference He breaks new ground by demonstrating that Tournier's later works introduce young readers to initiatic structures and a ludic approach to reading a key to the understanding of Tournier's adult works It shows too the crucial role that initiation and intertextual reference play in unifying all of Tournier's fiction Literature and Spirituality David Bevan, 1992 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1992
