Gastrointestinal Symptoms In Advanced Cancer Patients:

Gastrointestinal Symptoms in Advanced Cancer Patients Carla Ripamonti, Eduardo Bruera, 2002 Gastrointestinal symptoms such as anorexia cachexia chronic nausea vomiting and bowel obstruction are highly distressing for patients with advanced cancer Approximately one in three adults will be diagnosed with cancer in their lives and approximately fifty per cent of them will die because of malignancy More than eighty per cent of patients who die of cancer will present severe gastrointestinal symptoms before death This book presents detailed evidence based information on each of the gastrointestinal symptoms for a multi disciplinary audience Comprehensive guidelines have been included on how to assess the patient in order to ensure effective treatment in which prescribing is tailored to the cause of the symptoms and to the patient s individual needs The book recognises that the aim of good cancer management and palliative care is to assess diagnose manage and treat these symptoms to ensure best quality of life Handbook of Advanced Cancer Care Michael J. Fisch, Eduardo Bruera, 2003-03-27 Patients with advanced cancer increasingly receive end of life care from a variety of health care professionals physicians and nurses These professionals need to be able to assess the original diagnosis and the appropriateness of patient referral set a treatment or palliation program and recognise and plan for the clinical problems associated with specific primary tumors This is the first comprehensive source of information available at a level between specialist oncology texts and nursing texts Two eminent physicians from one of the world s foremost cancer centers have drawn together a remarkable team to provide a handbook which covers the full range of problems the healthcare workforce caring for these patients will encounter This highly accessible text covers general principles in oncology the primary tumors one by one and management of specific symptoms and syndromes It will be invaluable to primary care physicians surgeons nurses therapists and trainees Symptom Management in Advanced Cancer Robert G. Twycross, Andrew Wilcock, 2001 An established text showing doctors and careers how to provide a high level of physical and psychological comfort

Gastrointestinal Oncology James L. Abbruzzese, 2004 In 74 chapters Gastrointestinal Oncology brings together a diverse group of specialists to provide the most authoritative up to date and encyclopedic volume currently available on the subject The first part of this text introduces a series of concepts and topics taht are important to gastrointestinal malignancies in general These topics include epidemiologic principles prevention screening familial GI cancers developmental and molecular biology pathobiology general therapeutic principles emerging therapies and palliative care The second part of the book covers each of the specific cancers affecting the human gastrointestinal tract These chapters are introduced by state of the art discussions outlining our current understanding of the pathobiology and molecular biology relevant to each cancer Subsequent sections describe the multidisciplinary management of specific clinical situations By organizing the treatment related chapters around clinical scenarios the reader will readily find the information necessary to effectively manage the complex clinical situations encountered by patients with gastrointestinal malignancies The Medical Care of Terminally Ill

Patients Robert E. Enck, 2002 Since the publication of the first edition of The Medical Care of Terminally Ill Patients the field of palliative care has progressed significantly both socially and scientifically In this new edition Dr Robert Enck reviews the results of clinical studies devoted to the care of dying patients Special attention is given to pain management management of symptoms care of advanced cancer patients and care of patients with nonmalignant diseases More than 100 new references a new list of abbreviations and tables with new drugs and dosages provides valuable information Dr Enck places great emphasis on enhancing the quality of life while addressing the most common symptoms of terminal illness Handbook of Advanced Cancer Care Raphael Catane, 2006 The treatment of patients with advanced cancer presents a special set of problems The cancer itself poses significant challenges related to treatment and the chemotherapy involved can often induce its own set of issues In these difficult cases psychiatric problems and palliative care often come to the forefront of a physician's concerns The book examines these and other issues including metabolic gastrointestinal respiratory genitourinary dermatological and neurological problems that occur in advanced cancer cases The book also addresses the unique problems of geriatric patients Nutrition and the Cancer Patient Egidio Del Fabbro, 2010 This comprehensive reference book provides both background information and practical clinical advice on all areas of nutrition for the cancer patient at all stages of their disease trajectory The UK Association of Supportive Care in Cancer Handbook of Supportive Oncology Richard Berman, Ben Heyworth, Ashique Ahamed, 2025-05-19 What does supportive oncology do that palliative care doesn't already do Answering that question forms part of the rationale behind this text Supportive oncology is delivered across the whole cancer experience from diagnosis through treatment to post treatment care and so necessitates the involvement of most clinical specialties and many non clinical services Palliative care which focuses on advanced disease and end of life has a special and important role within this broader and longer term scope of supportive care in cancer This handbook defines the new and emerging specialty of supportive oncology and equips the workforce with the appropriate skill sets Providing personalized and targeted treatments consistent with the stage of disease A focus on preservation and improvement in quality of life Affecting survival and the quality of that survival Permitting the use of the most effective anti cancer agents Assisting in accurate diagnosis and management Clinical Nutrition for Oncology Patients Mary Marian, Susan Roberts, 2010-10-25 Clinical Nutrition for Oncology Patients provides clinicians who interact with cancer survivors the information they need to help patients make informed choices and improve long term outcomes This comprehensive resource outlines nutritional management recommendations for care prior to during and after treatment and addresses specific nutritional needs and complementary therapies that may be of help to a patient This book is written by a variety of clinicians who not only care for cancer survivors and their caregivers but are also experts in the field of nutritional oncology Important Notice The digital edition of this book is missing some of the images or content found in the physical edition Gastrointestinal Oncology Janusz A.
