Gates Of Forgiveness:

Gates Of Redemption Linda V Chandler,2014-04-15 In God's redemptive plan one's heart is the center of one's being. Actually it is designed to be the dwelling place of God. I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you. I will put My Spirit within you. Ezekiel 36:26-27. God has designed the heart as the gateway to one's mind, will, and emotions. By opening a single gate into the heart and letting the Spirit of the Living God come in, we start a domino effect of massive proportions. Through opening all the gates into the heart, we allow the Spirit of the Living God to dwell and abide in us. As we rebuild and restore these gateways, we will find that not only are we a people whom God wants to bless, but that these ancient gates literally FLOW with the blessings of God—blessings of purpose, understanding, and rest for the weary soul. These gates, when properly aligned, are the entrance/exit places for God's Glory. □□□ Shimon Finkelman,1991. The Sages teach that when the six Days of Creation were over, everything in the universe was in place. What was the world lacking? Only one thing it lacked: the contentment of a genuine spiritual rest day—a contentment that could replenish the human spirit and bear testimony to the Architect and Creator of all that was. When the Sabbath came, contentment came. Our weekly Sabbath is a regular renewal of that final, necessary aspect of Creation: our renewed acknowledgment of Him Who made all and grants us a share of the World to Come on earth every seventh day. Drawn from the rich lodes of Jewish thought and practice, the book will help the reader enter the joy and holiness of the Sabbath for the better; we understand the deeper content of the day and what it represents the better; we enter into its higher universe.
