Gateway To Wine An Introduction To The Wines Of The World:

Gateway to Wine ,1981      The Battle for Wine and Love Alice Feiring,2009 I want my wines to tell a good story I want them natural and most of all like my dear friends I want them to speak the truth even if we argue says Alice Feiring Join her as she sets off on her one woman crusade against the tyranny of homogenization wine consultants and of course the 100 point scoring system of a certain all powerful wine writer Traveling through the ancient vineyards of the Loire and Champagne to Piedmont and Spain she goes in search of authentic barolo the last old style rioja and the tastiest new terroir driven champagnes She reveals just what goes into the average bottle the reverse osmosis the yeasts and enzymes the sawdust and oak chips and why she doesn't find much to drink in California And she introduces rebel winemakers who are embracing old fashioned techniques and making wines with individuality and soul No matter what your palate travel the wine world with Feiring and you'll have to ask yourself What do I really want in my glass      Wine and Identity Matt

Harvey,Leanne White,Warwick Frost,2014-01-10 In an increasingly competitive global market winemakers are seeking to increase their sales and wine regions to attract tourists To achieve these aims there is a trend towards linking wine marketing with identity Such an approach seeks to distinguish wine products whether wine or wine tourism from their competitors by focusing on cultural and geographical attributes that contribute to the image and experience In essence marketing wine and wine regions has become increasingly about telling stories engaging and provocative stories which engage consumers and tourists and translate into sales This timely book examines this phenomena and how it is leading to changes in the wine and tourism industries for the first time It takes a global approach drawing on research studies from around the world including old and new world wine regions The volume is divided into three parts The first branding investigates cases where established regions have sought to strengthen their brands or newer regions are striving to create effective emerging brands The second heritage considers cases where there are strong linkages between cultural heritage and wine marketing The third section terroir explores how a sense of place is inherent in winescapes and regional identities and is increasingly being used as a distinctive selling proposition This significant volume showcasing the connections between place identity variety and wine will be valuable reading for students researchers and academics interested in tourism marketing and wine studies
