Bartlett Jere Whiting

Gather No Moss:

The Wisdom of Many Wolfgang Mieder, Alan Dundes, 1994 The Wisdom of Many explores research on proverbs of many cultures More than twenty essays written by scholars of such diverse disciplines as folklore literature psychology linguistics and anthropology illustrate the significance of traditional proverbs and trace variations of proverbs over time drawing on African Chinese Spanish Finnish Irish and Yiddish examples Early American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases Bartlett Jere Whiting, 1977 p B J Whiting savors proverbial expressions and has devoted much of his lifetime to studying and collecting them no one knows more about British and American proverbs than he The present volume based upon writings in British North America from the earliest settlements to approximately 1820 complements his and Archer Taylor's Dictionary of American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases 1820 1880 It differs from that work and from other standard collections however in that its sources are primarily not literary but instead workaday writings letters diaries histories travel books political pamphlets and the like The authors represent a wide cross section of the populace from scholars and statesmen to farmers shopkeepers sailors and hunters Mr Whiting has combed all the obvious sources and hundreds of out of the way publications of local journals and historical societies This body of material because it covers territory that has not been extracted and compiled in a scholarly way before can justly be said to be the most valuable of all those that Whiting has brought together according to Albert B Friedman What makes the work important is Whiting's authority a proverb or proverbial phrase is what BJW thinks is a proverb or proverbial phrase There is no objective operative definition of any value no divining rod his tact feel experience determine what's the real thing and what is spurious Australian

Folk Songs of the Catskills
Norman Cazden, Herbert Haufrecht, Norman Studer, 1982-01-01 Traditional songs from the Catskill area of New York State are accompanied by detailed discussions of their roots, development, musical structure, and subject matter.

Familiar Quotations, 1909
American Folk Songs Norman Cohen, 2008-09-30 This state-by-state collection of folksongs describes the history, society, culture, and events characteristic of all fifty states. Unlike all other state folksong collections, this one does not focus on songs collected in the particular states but rather on songs concerning the life and times of the people of that state. The topics range from the major historical events such as the Boston Tea Party, the attack on Fort Sumter, and the California Gold Rush to regionally important events such as disasters and murders, labor problems, occupational songs, ethnic conflicts. Some of the songs will be widely recognized such as Casey Jones, Marching Through Georgia, or Sweet Betsy from Pike. Others less familiar have not been reprinted since their original publication but deserve to be studied because of what they tell about the people of these United States: their loves, labors, and losses, and their responses to events. The collection is organized by regions, starting with New England and ending with the states bordering the Pacific Ocean, and by states within each region. For each state, there are from four to fifteen songs presented with an average of 10 songs per state. For each song, a full text is reprinted, followed by discussion of the song in its historical context. References to available recordings and other versions are given. Folksongs such as those discussed here are an important tool for historians and cultural historians because they sample experiences of the past at a different level from that of contemporary newspaper accounts and academic histories. These songs, in a sense, are history writ small. Includes: Away Down East, The Old Granite State, Connecticut, The Virginian Maid's Lament, Carry Me Back to Old Virginny, I'm Going Back to North Carolina, Shut up in Cold Creek Mine, Ain't God Good to Iowa, Dakota Land, Dear Prairie Home, Cheyenne Boys, I'm off for California, and others.
