Gathered In The Word Praying The Scripture In Small Groups:

Gathered in the Word Norvene Vest, 1998-06-01 Many of us thirst for a meaningful spiritual life We may even begin a spiritual journey yet before we are very far along we discover we need help Is the living compassionate God revealed in scripture in a way that offers guidance and comfort to us in our contemporary lives Norvene Vest says a resounding Yes Using the classic spiritual practice of lectio divina or divine reading in the context of small groups she shows how this devotional and prayerful reading of the scriptures leads us to a deeper understanding of and relationship with God A Lifelong Apprenticeship : Study Guide for Growing Disciples Cam Stuart, 2005 Lay Leaders of Worship Kathleen Hope Brown, 2004 This book might be considered a companion to Sunday celebrations in the absence of a priest and A ritual for lay persons It addresses the questions Who is the lay person who leads the community in prayer What is their relationship to the community What skills and or training should be required What sort of spiritual formation is desirable How can the parish community or diocese help to promote their ministerial identity Because lay ministry is not a stop gap solution to a temporary need but a gift to the Church for the long term these questions need careful consideration Book cover

Alleluia Is the Song of the Desert Lawrence D. Hart, 2004 This is no simple how to book but rather a profound challenge to consider a totally different kind of life Lawrence Hart approaches these life changes from several different angles each leading to the deep kind of knowing that is God's gift to the true seeker from the Foreword by Jean Dalby Clift For thousands of years deserts have been geographical centers of spiritual formation and direct encounter with God In Christian spirituality men and women seeking the kind of purification that leads to wisdom of the heart have sought out the desert places But the desert is also a state of mind or consciousness a spiritual practice an inner place where we come to have a first hand experience of God Designed for use by small groups or individuals the Lenten meditations in this book lead us to this interior desert The forty days of Lent are a time of metanoia repentance of emptying our hearts so that they can be filled with that love and presence of Christ we celebrate at Easter Entering Lent then can be imagined as entering the silence of a vast and empty desert that leads to an experience of alleluia What is essential in the spiritual life is of course not that we find a dry and sand blown country far from any geographical city but rather a desert place of the heart where spiritual transformation can occur Lent with its emphasis on taking spiritual inventory repentance renunciation and preparation for Easter is just such a desert In fact we can appropriately think of the forty days from Ash Wednesday to Easter Sunday as a Lenten desert

Holy Invitations Jeannette A. Bakke, 2000-10-01 Learn how to nurture your awareness of and response to God's love and guidance through the historical practice of spiritual direction A Quiet Pentecost Dwight H. Judy, 2013-02-01 During the past 30 years a quiet revolution has taken place in Christianity People of all ages are finding the need for daily prayer Many are encountering Jesus anew through ancient yet new forms of prayer Quiet Pentecosts are happening as Christians engage in spiritual practices Congregations feel the power of the Holy Spirit at work as they participate in thoughtful reading of scripture walking the labyrinth prayerful listening to one another spiritual direction and more At a time when denominations are declining and the church seems to be fighting for survival Dwight Judy sees hope for the future in the practices of spiritual formation The practices of spiritual formation take us outside of the noisy and frenetic activity our popular culture encourages Judy writes We need to be taught how to be together in a spirit of respectful listening to one another We will not learn this art from our television commentators We will rarely witness such moments of genuine care in national or international politics In A Quiet Pentecost he recounts the stories of more than 40 congregations being transformed by spiritual practices This book addresses the following topics evangelism and spiritual formation praying the scriptures lectio divina spiritual practices in small groups healing prayer multisensory worship evening prayer and Taiz congregational discernment prayer ministries health and wellness ministries centering prayer and much more A wonderful resource for churches and individuals interested in reenergizing their spiritual life Perfect for laypersons or clergy who want guidance in establishing or expanding spiritual formation ministries also helpful for seminary classes
