Gathering Creating 21st Century Esoteric Groups:

Gathering the Magic Nick Farrell, Gabriel Strange, 2005-01-01 Many people on the spiritual path spend their lives looking for an esoteric order or school to join. If they find one they will inevitably find it a hotbed of intrigue and egos that eclipses any spiritual work. Despite this Nick Farrell believes that esoteric groups are the way forward in the Aquarian Age provided there are fundamental changes in the way they run. The book applies the rules of group dynamics and conflict resolution to set up organisations that not only work but are fun to be involved in. The Author calls on seekers to set up working esoteric groups of their own instead of waiting to find that perfect group organisation or teacher. As the working title suggests the book is written light heartedly with plenty of humorous case studies of what happens when things go wrong. It provides seekers with a window of what is happening within esoteric groups and the unique dynamics that take place when two or more gather to look at new age subjects. This book will prove invaluable to magicians, Wiccans and members of the new age movement who wish to set up a group. It will also help those who more information about how esoteric groups work and those who are members of organisations and want to know what is going on. Included in the course is a correspondence course designed to help people integrate with a group mind. There are also practical suggestions for a structure how to set up a group that creates individuals rather than followers. The author also reveals the secret techniques used by different esoteric groups to connect themselves to the spiritual reality that is behind everything. Kingdom Growth Through Spiritual Groups Keith Summey, 2005-08 Extreme Collecting Graeme Were, Jonathan C. It has been in existence since time began long before the appearance of any of today's major religions. Although ancient in source it has a philosophical integrity that is as relevant in today's life as it has been in every previous period of time. No irreconcilable leaps of faith are required. No mysteries. All is knowable. The wisdom contained herein is that which has always been previously communicated to interested spiritual aspirants who sought it out. This book continues that tradition. By Names and Images Peregrin Wildoak, 2012
