Gathering Evidence A Memoir:

Gathering Evidence Thomas Bernhard, 1986

Gathering Evidence & My Prizes Thomas Bernhard, 2011-11-29

Written with a dark pain and drama that recalls the novels of Dickens Gathering Evidence is a powerful and compelling memoir of youth by one of the twentieth century's most gifted writers. Born in 1931 the illegitimate child of an abandoned mother, Thomas Bernhard was brought up by an eccentric grandmother and an adored grandfather in right wing Catholic Austria. He ran away from home at age fifteen. Three years later he contracted pneumonia and was placed in a hospital ward for the old and terminally ill where he observed first hand and with unflinching acuity the cruel nature of protracted suffering and death. From the age of twenty one everything he wrote was shaped by the urgency of a dying man's testament and where this account of his life ends his art begins. Included in this edition is My Prizes a collection of Bernhard's viciously funny and revelatory essays on his later literary life. Here is a portrait of the artist as a prize winner laconic sardonic shaking his head with biting amusement at the world and at himself.

Thomas Bernhard's Afterlives Olaf Berwald, Stephen D. Dowden, Gregor Thuswaldner, 2020-10-01 In his prose fiction memoirs poetry and drama Thomas Bernhard 1931-1989 one of the 20th century's most uniquely gifted writers created a new and radical style seemingly out of thin air. His books never tell a story in the received sense. Instead he rages on the page he rants and spews vitriol about the moral failures of his homeland Austria in the long amnesiac aftermath of the Second World War. Yet this furious prose seemingly shapeless but composed with unparalleled musicality and taxing by conventional standards has been powerfully echoed in many writers since Bernhard's death in 1989. These explorers have found in Bernhard's singular accomplishment new paths for the expression of life and truth. Thomas Bernhard's Afterlives examines the international mobilization of Bernhard's style. Writers in Italian German Spanish Hungarian English and French have succeeded in making Bernhard's Austrian vision an international vision. This book tells that story.

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina

Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time. General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality, truth and fiction, the dependency of author, narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre. Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms. Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles, autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance. By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs, diaries, self-portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre, this three-volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches, systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective. While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition, special emphasis is placed on the modes of self-representation in non-Western cultures and on inter- and transcultural perspectives of the genre. The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross-references. The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies, students as well as non-academic readers. Forgotten

Connections Klaus Mollenhauer, 2013-10-30 Klaus Mollenhauer's Forgotten Connections: On Culture and Upbringing is internationally regarded as one of the most important German contributions to educational and curriculum theory in the 20th century. Appearing here in English for the first time, the book draws on Mollenhauer's concern for social justice and his profound awareness of the pedagogical tension between the inheritance of the past and the promise of the future. The book focuses on the idea of Bildung in which philosophy and education come together to see upbringing and maturation as being much more about holistic experience than skill development. This translation includes a detailed introduction from Norm Friesen, the book's translator and editor. This introduction contextualizes the original publication and discusses its application to education today. Although Mollenhauer's work focused on content and culture, particularly from a German perspective, this book draws on philosophy and sociology to offer internationally relevant responses to the challenge of communicating cultural values and understandings to new generations. Forgotten Connections will be of value to students, researchers and practitioners working in the fields of education and culture, curriculum studies and in educational and social foundations.

Curating Worlds Emma Bond, 2024-12-15 Showing how museum practices shed new light on literary form. How and why do books deploy objects in order to narrate the past? To answer this question, Emma Bond sifts through collections of objects stored in boxes, drawers, baskets and displayed on shelves in contemporary texts by authors such as Valeria Luiselli, Maaza Mengiste, Orhan Pamuk and Olga Tokarczuk and interprets them using a framework of museum practices. These practices, which include collection, curation, conservation and display, have helped to turn real-life museums into three-dimensional narrative spaces. Curating Worlds: Museum Practices in Contemporary Literature shows how we can use this same set of practices to shed light on literary form itself: how stories are created, shaped and communicated. Harnessing museum practices as an innovative lens for critical interpretation Bond provides a fresh theoretical framework to engage with the meanings of object collections in literature and to make sense of the lives and afterlives of things today By The Book: A reader's guide to life Ramona Koval, 2012-10-24 By the Book is Ramona Koval's love letter to books and writing What is it about reading that we love so much Why do books make our lives so much richer Ramona Koval's By the Book is about reading and living and about the authors that have written themselves into her life from Oliver Sacks to Oscar Wilde Christina Stead to Grace Paley It is about learning to read and asking her mother to buy her a copy of the Kama Sutra about love and science and her childhood ambition to be Marie Curie about arctic exploration and her ruminations on what part of a husky she would eat if she had to about poetry and travel and falling in love In our book devouring nation this is a book for every avid reader and every avid listener who has been spellbound by Ramona's interviews over the years By the Book is quintessentially Ramona warm bright erudite unmissable Ramona Koval is a writer journalist and broadcaster She is the editor of Best Australian Essays and was the presenter of ABC Radio National's The Book Show for many years She now interviews writers for The Monthly's online book club textpublishing.com.au After 16 years as the host of Australian Broadcasting Corporation's The Book Show Koval has a knack for conveying the essence of a book without spoiling it She also recounts key exchanges with interviewees as diverse as Grace Paley Oliver Sacks and Paul Theroux starred review Shelf Awareness By the Book takes us on intriguing journeys through books The excitement with which Koval still approaches each new book plunging in head first heart deep furnishes the last words of this urbane and enlightening work of her own Weekend Australian By the Book is a reminder of the role books can play in our lives If you celebrate their contribution and appreciate their influence and artistry then this is a story you will want to treasure I certainly do Weekly Review A love letter to the act of reading an ideal read for any bibliophile Her tone is warm and inviting just a touch short of wry genuine and infectious Readings Monthly She's a shining presence in the world of literature here in Australia and right across the globe The book reads smoothly it flows along from mood to mood full of wit and beauty and grace Her voice is always recognisable invigorating familiar to us and greatly loved the voice of a highly literate woman Helen Garner As keen readers know a book is more than an ordered pile of paper and cardboard or these days a collection of e-reader pixels A companion a refuge a happy distraction a gift to share it can be all or any of these things plus a bookmark of important times of one's life The wise and warm Ramona Koval has written a literary memoir which focuses on this last quality the books that marked and made her from childhood through teens student years to adulthood Australian Women's Weekly An irresistible study of the symbiotic relationship for the bookish between life and books The voice is easily recognisable as the one we know from Koval's decades in radio generous warm and fearless Kerryn Goldsworthy Australian Book Review The last chapters of By the Book reveal the quality of mind that made Ramona Koval such a brilliant interviewer as much at home with scientists and travel writers as with novelists and poets Brenda Niall Age Koval's enthusiasm bubbles from the page It confirms the erudite and

Transformative Fictions World Literature and Personal Change engages with current debates in world literature over the past twenty years addressing the nature of literary influence in centers and peripheries the formation of transnational literary and pedagogical canons and the role of translation and regionalism in how we relate to texts from around the globe The author Daniel Just argues for a supranational but sub global perspective of regions that emphasizes practical reasons for reading and focuses on the potential of literary texts to stimulate personal transformation in readers One of the recurring dilemmas in these debates is the issue of delimitation of world literature The trouble with the world as a frame of reference is that no single researcher is bound to have the in depth knowledge and linguistic skills to discuss works from all countries In response this book revives literary theory and recasts it for the purposes of world literature by making a case for the continuing relevance of literature in the age of new media With the examples of fictional and nonfictional writings by Milan Kundera Witold Gombrowicz and Bohumil Hrabal Just shows that regional literatures offer differing methods of activating readers and thereby prompting personal change This book would be of general interest to anyone who wants to explore personal change through literature but is particularly indispensable for literary professionals researchers and postgraduate and graduate students The Writing Notebooks Helene Cixous,Susan Sellers,2006-08-03 Helene Cixous is among the most influential and original literary critics and feminist thinkers of our time This volume reproduces for the first time in any language a collection of pages from her original writing notebooks offering a unique insight into her radical thought and work The material gathered here ranges across the full spectrum of Cixous writing including the concept of critique feminine and the starting points and sources of inspiration for her poetry and prose The editor s introduction succinctly outlines the central tenets of Cixous theory of writing Each extract is accompanied by editorial commentary and a translation both by Susan Sellers The book concludes with an interview with Cixous herself in which she discusses the writing process her own criticism fiction and poetry and the value and importance of these notebooks Students and teachers of literature psychoanalysis philosophy and feminist theory will find this an illuminating and inspiring collection of writings Edited by Susan Sellers Professor of English and Related Literature at the University of St Andrews Silenced Facts Bianca Theisen,2021-10-01 In response to the silence that continues to shroud Austria s historical past Austrian literature after 1950 wants to retrace an untold history that left its marks in mental schemata and cultural clichés The question how literature can refer to the facts silenced by a political unconscious the question of literary reference and reality description lies at the core
