Cultural Transplantation: The Writing of Classical Chinese Poetry in Colonial Singapore (1887–1945) Lap Lam, 2023-12-28 Classical style poetry in modern China and other Sinitic speaking localities is attracting greater attention with the recent upsurge in academic revision of modern Chinese literary history. Using the concept of cultural transplantation, this monograph attempts to illustrate the uniqueness, compatibility and adaptability of classical Chinese poetry in colonial Singapore as well as its sustained connections with literary tradition and homeland. It demonstrates how the reading of classical Chinese poetry can better our understanding of Singapore's political, social and cultural history, deepen knowledge of the transregional relationship between China and Nanyang, and fine-tune, redress and enrich our perception of Singapore Chinese literature.

Sinophone literature, the Chinese diaspora and global Chinese identity Shakespeare's First Folio 1623-2023 Matthias Bauer, Angelika Zirker, 2024-09-05 This wide-ranging collection reflects on the various motivations that caused the Folio to come into being in 1623, 7 years after Shakespeare's death, and on how the now iconic book has been continually reimagined after its initial publication to the present day. In honour of its original publication, Shakespeare's First Folio 1623-2023: Text and Afterlives brings together a remarkable set of ground-breaking essays by an international group of scholars. From the beginning, the publication that came to be called the First Folio was defined by the tension between the book as text and the book as a material object. In this volume, the individual contributions move between these two meanings in that they consider precursors to the First Folio in the form of reader-assembled volumes, the poetic identity of Shakespeare and how misfortunes and successes in the early modern printing house shaped Shakespeare's text. Chapters examine the unpredictable and often surprising subsequent histories of the book that has even been given a sacred status and become the basis of Shakespeare's unique position in the history of literature. They consider the afterlife of the text in relation to the reception of Shakespeare's First Folio in Spain, its presence in and influence on James Joyce's Ulysses, the role that Meisei University of Japan's Shakespeare Collection has played in the education and research of the institution, and what the collection of 82 copies at the Folger Shakespeare Library in Washington DC tells us about the ongoing role of these books within the study of Shakespeare and the early modern period.

Women's Poetry and Poetics in Late Imperial China Haihong Yang, 2017-05-24 This literary study examines women authored poetry and poetic criticism in late imperial China It provides close readings of original texts to explore the poetic forms and devices women poets employed to place their work into the context of the wider literary history of the period and to analyze how they asserted their own agency to negotiate their literary social and political concerns The author also investigates the interactions between women's poetic creations and existing male scholars discourses and probes how these interactions generated innovative self identities and renovations in poetic forms and aesthetics The Shower of Pearls.
