The Gay Genius Yutang Lin, 1947      The Gay Genius Yutang Lin, 1948      The Gay Genius Yutang Lin (Schriftsteller), 1947      Drowning Girls in China D. E. Mungello, 2008-06-27 This groundbreaking book offers the first full analysis of the long neglected and controversial subject of female infanticide in China Although infanticide and child abandonment were worldwide phenomena from antiquity down to the nineteenth century when massive numbers of children were still being abandoned in Europe China was unique in targeting girls almost exclusively Yet despite its persistence for two thousand years little has been published on a practice that is deeply sensitive within China and little understood by outsiders Drawing on little known Chinese documents and illustrations noted historian D E Mungello describes the causes and continuation of female infanticide since 1650 despite efforts by Confucian moralists Buddhist teachings government officials and even imperial edicts to stop the practice The arrival of Christian missionaries led to foreign involvement as well with Catholic priests baptizing abandoned and dying infants in Nanjing and Beijing beginning in the early 1600s Mission efforts peaked in the nineteenth century when the European based Society of the Holy Childhood urged Catholic children to contribute their pennies to help neglected children in China However most of the infant victims were drowned at birth in the privacy of their homes thereby escaping the scrutiny of the law and the public Mungello brings this secretive practice to light with a nuanced and balanced analysis of the cultural economic and social causes of early infanticide and its contemporary manifestation in sex selected abortion as a result of the government's one child policy Presenting female infanticide as a human rather than a distinctly Chinese problem he estimates the tragic loss of girls in the millions      Crowded by Beauty David Schneider, 2015-07-26 Philip Whalen was an American poet Zen Buddhist and key figure in the literary and artistic scene that unfolded in San Francisco in the 1950s and 60s When the Beat writers came West Whalen became a revered much loved member of the group Erudite shy and profoundly spiritual his presence not only moved his immediate circle of Beat cohorts but his powerful startling innovative work would come to impact American poetry to the present day Drawing on Whalen's journals and personal correspondence particularly with Ginsberg Kerouac Snyder Kyger Welch and McClure David Schneider shows how deeply bonded these intimates were supporting one another in their art and their spiritual paths Schneider himself an ordained priest provides an insider's view of Whalen's struggles and breakthroughs in his thirty years as a Zen monk When Whalen died in 2002 as the retired Abbot of the Hartford Street Zen Center his own teacher referred to him as a patriarch of the Western lineage of Buddhism Crowded by Beauty chronicles the course of Whalen's life focusing on his unique eccentric humorous and literary religious practice      Mapping Modern Beijing Weijie Song, 2018 Mapping Modern Beijing investigates the five methods of representing Beijing a warped hometown a city of snapshots and manners an aesthetic city an imperial capital in comparative and cross cultural perspective and a displaced city on the Sinophone and diasporic postmemory by authors travelling across mainland China Taiwan Hong Kong and overseas Sinophone and non
