Religion and American Cultures Gary Laderman, Luis León, 2014-12-17 This four volume work provides a detailed multicultural survey of established as well as new American religions and investigates the fascinating interactions between religion and ethnicity gender politics regionalism ethics and popular culture This revised and expanded edition of Religion and American Cultures Tradition Diversity and Popular Expression presents more than 140 essays that address contemporary spiritual practice and culture with a historical perspective The entries cover virtually every religion in modern day America as well as the role of religion in various aspects of U S culture Readers will discover that Americans aren't largely Protestant Catholic or Jewish anymore and that the number of popular religious identities is far greater than many would imagine And although most Americans believe in a higher power the fastest growing identity in the United States is the nones those Americans who elect none when asked about their religious identity thereby demonstrating how many individuals see their spirituality as something not easily defined or categorized The first volume explores America's multicultural communities and their religious practices covering the range of different religions among Anglo Americans and Euro Americans as well as spirituality among Latino African American Native American and Asian American communities The second volume focuses on cultural aspects of religions addressing topics such as film Generation X public sacred spaces sexuality and new religious expressions The new third volume expands the range of topics covered with in depth essays on additional topics such as interfaith families religion in prisons belief in the paranormal and religion after September 11 2001 The fourth volume is devoted to complementary primary source documents

Theology as Autobiography Colby Dickinson, 2020-03-17 Autobiographical writings on faith frequently come from the lives of ordinary persons whose struggles with faith are often lived at the margins of the church academy and society Yet these voices have the potential to reshape the ways in which each of these fields function To find out what it means to stand before God with all of one's humanity on display is to engage in not only the act of confession but to demonstrate a bold theological reflection that needs to be more explicitly understood By turning to spiritual autobiographies as theological source texts we learn to place our emphasis where it matters most on the people whose lives of faith move us deeply and cause us to re-examine our own lives in light of their witness Moving through a range of ancient early modern and contemporary spiritual writers in order to demonstrate a profound connection that unites them all this book portrays how a critical self-examination of one's most personal internal fractures our poverty as it were is the only way to develop a life of faith the dual meaning of the word confession which expresses both a revealing of one's sins or brokenness and the articulation of what one believes

New Essays on Life Writing and the Body Christopher Stuart, Stephanie Todd, 2009-03-26 In light of materialist revisions of the Cartesian dual self and the increased recognition of memoir and autobiography as a crucial cultural index the physical body has emerged in the last twenty five years as an increasingly inescapable object of inquiry speculation and theory that intersects all of the various subgenres of life writing New Essays on Life Writing and the Body thus offers a timely original focused and yet appropriately interdisciplinary study of life writing This collection brings together new work by established authorities in autobiography such as Timothy Dow Adams G Thomas Couser Cynthia Huff and others along with essays by emerging scholars in the field Subjects range from new interpretations of well known autobiographies by Edith Wharton Gertrude Stein and Lucy Grealy as well as scholarly surveys of more recently defined subgenres such as the numerous New Woman autobiographies of the late 19th century adoption narratives and sibling memoirs of the mentally impaired Due to their wide interdisciplinary focus these essay will prove valuable not only to more traditional literary scholars interested in the classic literary autobiography but also to those in Women s Studies Ethnic and African American Studies as well as in emerging fields such as Disability Studies and Cognitive Studies

Numen, Old Men Joseph Gelfer,2016-09-17 Since the early 1990s there have been various movements designed to encourage masculine spirituality All these movements share a concern that spirituality has become too feminine and that men s experiences of the spiritual are being marginalized The task of masculine spirituality is to promote authentic masculine characteristics within a spiritual context Numen Old Men examines these characteristics to argue that masculine spirituality is thinly veiled patriarchy The mythopoetic evangelical and Catholic men s movements are shown to promote a hetero patriarchal spirituality by appealing to either combative and oppressive neo Jungian archetypes or biblical models of man as the leader of the family Numen Old Men examines spiritualities that aim to honour and transcend both the masculine and feminine and offers gay spirituality as an example of masculine spirituality that resists patriarchy

Christian Mysticism's Queer Flame Michael Bernard Kelly,2018-09-03 Is the Christian mystical tradition a relic of another time shaped by celibates for celibates unable to engage meaningfully with people of our time who embrace their corporeality and sexuality as crucial aspects of their journey towards union with God This book reflects in serious theological depth and detail on the spiritual and sexual journeys of gay men of mature and committed Christian faith employing the Christian mystical tradition as the lens and the interlocutor in this process This study examines the major themes and stages of the mystical tradition as outlined by Evelyn Underhill but also including more recent work by Ruth Burrows Thomas Merton and Constance Fitzgerald Using methods of qualitative research it then considers the texts of in depth interviews conducted with men most of whom are theologians or spiritual leaders with a deep Catholic faith and all of whom are openly self affirmingly gay Finally it employs Ricoeur s hermeneutical theory to engage in a creative theological conversation between the traditional mystical stages and themes and these men s lives as described in their interviews This is a unique study that brings together ancient spirituality with contemporary lived religion As such it will be of interest to scholars of religious studies theology Christian mysticism and spirituality and queer studies It will be of particular interest to those teach spiritual direction and to all who seek new ways to engage with the spiritual lives of LGBTIQ people
