Terrorism: A Very Short Introduction Charles Townshend, 2002-10-10 This book charts a path through the outpouring of efforts to understand and explain modern terrorism by asking what makes terrorism different from other forms of political military action what makes it effective and what can be done about it It unravels complex central questions such as whether terrorists are criminals whether terrorism is a kind of war what kind of threat terrorism represents how far media publicity sustains terrorism and whether democracy is especially vulnerable to terrorist attack It examines the historical ideological and local roots of terrorist violence and the success of specific terrorist and anti terrorist campaigns in the more distant as well as the recent past Koran: Forbid Or Rewrite? a Guide for Peaceful De-Islamicization Dewanand, 2011-03 Why is the Koran the deeper abstract cause of terrorism What can Muslims and non Muslims do about this How can we help Muslims liberate themselves from medieval ways of thinking Is there more in the world than Islam Mohammed and terrorism What is a real Muslim How can an anti Muslim be defined Hindu writer Dewanand provides answers to all these questions in a striking and scientific way trying to present the interests of both Muslims and non Muslims in a tactical way Dewanand says he wrote this book to make sacrifices to Altecreea and to show concern for all living creatures Discover for yourself if he has reached his goal when you read Koran Forbid or Rewrite In the first chapters the PV Muslim scientific model scale is revealed This is a psychological vectored model for classifying Muslims to understand them better Dewanand says his book is intended to show respect for Muslims and to help them to grow spiritually I wanted to reform Islam and end the suffering and violence in many Islamic nations I was raised as a Muslim by my mother and later on I converted to Hinduism His book is the meeting point of three old civilizations Islam Western and Hinduism That s why it is so important for the future of Islam and religion Dewanand grew up in Surinam and at age twenty went to Holland to study He now lives in Delft Holland He has published numerous books in Dutch and these can be found on his website www.dewanand.com Publisher s website http://www.strategicpublishinggroup.com/title/Koran_ForbidOrRewrite.html Commonsense Darwinism John Lemos,2015-11-09 Written in a simple accessible style Commonsense Darwinism offers a clear critical examination of the subject Assuming that the diversity of life including human beings is the result of evolution from common origins and that its driving force is natural selection the book explores what this might mean for issues in ethics philosophy of religion epistemology and metaphysics The author s defense of free will makes this an especially stimulating read Plotting Terror Margaret Scanlan,2001 Scanlan English Indiana University South Bend considers several novels about terrorists and considers what they say about the role of the writer in modern society and politics She examines the figure of the writer as a rival or a mirror of the terrorist tracing the development of this relationship from its Romantic origins to the age of the Unabomber The works of DeLillo Rushdie McNamee Mary McCarthy Lessing Coetzee Durrenmatt Roth Robert Stone Volodine and Conrad are specifically considered c Book News Inc New Directions in Diaspora Studies Sarah Illott,Ana Cristina Mendes,Lucinda Newns,2018-07-02 This collection brings together new critical approaches to diaspora studies branching out to areas such as literary studies visual culture and museum studies and explores them in relation to a variety of fictional works cultural traditions theoretical paradigms and geo political contexts The innovation of this volume lies in the interplay of both texts and theoretical insights from these different areas of cultural analysis drawn together to probe diverse manifestations of diaspora while pointing out new directions of critique Moving between representations of real and imaginary violent and utopian past present and future diasporas contributors demonstrate the ways in which authors performers and artists are establishing new modes of representing and imagining diaspora in an increasingly globalised age Contributions are organised into sections on performance speculative fiction city spaces affective or violent diasporas and silence and voice Bringing together these wide ranging histories contexts and media allows for dialogue across vastly divergent experiences and representations of diaspora and opens up a theoretical debate on the changing nature of this field of study The Obsolete Empire Philip Tsang,2021-11-02 Modernist literature at the end of the British empire challenges conventional notions of homeland heritage and community Finalist of the MSA First Book Prize by The Modernist Studies Association The waning British empire left behind an abundance of material relics and an inventory of feelings not easily relinquished In The Obsolete Empire Philip Tsang brings together an unusual constellation of writers Henry James James Joyce Doris Lessing and V S Naipaul to trace an aesthetics of frustrated attachment that emerged in the wake of imperial decline Caught between an expansive Britishness and an exclusive Englishness these writers explored what it meant to belong to an empire that did not belong to them Thanks to their voracious reading of English fiction and poetry in their formative years all of these writers experienced a richly textured world with which they deeply identified but from which they felt excluded The literary England they imagined frozen in time and out of place with the realities of imperial decline in turn figures in their writings as a repository of unconsummated attachments contradictory desires and belated exchanges Their works arrest the linear progression from colonial to postcolonial from empire to nation and from subject to citizen Drawing on a rich body of scholarship on affect and temporality Tsang demonstrates how the British empire endures as a structure of desire that outlived its political lifespan By showing how literary reading sets in motion a tense interplay of intimacy and exclusion Tsang investigates a unique mode of belonging arising from the predicament of being conscripted into a global empire but not desired as its proper citizen Ultimately The Obsolete Empire asks What does it mean to be inside or outside any given culture How do large scale geopolitical changes play out at the level of cultural attachment and political belonging How does literary reading establish or unsettle narratives of who we are These questions preoccupied writers across Britain's former empire and continue to resonate today
