Good News from the Barrio Harold Joseph Recinos, In a world divided by race ethnicity gender violence and hate Harold Recinos's Good News from the Barrio explores the ways in which the good news of the gospel is at work in Latino barrios He challenges Christians to listen to the gospel in these contexts and offer a prophetic witness to the nation and the church

Wading Through Many Voices Harold Recinos, 2011-04-16 Wading through Many Voices brings together the voices of Latino a African American Asian American Native American and Euro American scholars to produce a dialogue of public theology how faith communities divided by race class ethnicity and gender can find a common ground for life together The authors articulate a multiethnic perspective on public theology that counters the divisive identity politics of U S public life with systematic thinking that strengthens the commitment to critically transform social relations in light of a shared vision of public good The contributors develop a shared public theology that addresses social divisions while offering readers a broad vision to collaborate and struggle for an improved understanding of the common good for our pluralistic society In light of emerging social issues the contributors suggest that a fundamental respect for difference is a required first value for living together in a common social and political space

The Lord Roars (Theological Explorations for the Church Catholic) M. Daniel Carroll R., 2022-08-16 The world cries out for a prophetic word to the chaos unrest and destructiveness of our times Can the biblical prophets speak into our world today Old Testament ethicist M Daniel Carroll R shows that learning from the prophets can make us better prepared for Christian witness In this guide to the ethical material of Old Testament prophetic literature Carroll highlights key ethical concerns of the three prophets most associated with social critique Amos Isaiah and Micah showing their relevance for those who wish to speak with a prophetic voice today The book focuses on the pride that generates injustice and the religious life that legitimates an unacceptable status quo both of which bring judgment as well as the ethical importance of the visions of restoration after divine judgment Each of these components in the biblical text makes its own particular call to readers to respond in an appropriate manner The book also links biblical teaching with prophetic voices of the modern era
